McNamara Cites $68 Million Annual Savings

63 More Military Bases To Be Closed Or Reduced

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara today announced 63 new actions closing or reducing military bases, depots and arsenals and consolidating offices. He estimated savings at $68 million a year.

McNamara said slicing away at least eight unneeded facilities, scaling down 14 others, combining separate contract monitoring offices in 29 cities, and other actions would yield savings "without in any reducing military effectiveness."

These latest moves in a three-year economy drive, now embraced by President Johnson, bring the number of bases ordered closed or reduced to more than 500.

When added to those other moves, the Pentagon said, the 63 new actions will:

Save $551 million a year in operating costs.

Eliminate 81,600 civilian jobs and military assignments. Of these 10,056 will drop away as a result of today's actions.

Release 696,000 acres of real estate for nondefense use.

Make available 61 industrial plants for sale to American business.

Fifty-five of the new actions announced by McNamara at a news conference affect military activities in 29 states.

The primary emphasis is on consolidating — one to a city — the separate contract supervision offices maintained by the Army, Navy, Air Force and Defense Supply Agency in many places. That is to be done in two years.

The combining of these offices in 29 cities is expected to lop off 1,800 workers and save $18.8 million a year.

For the time being at least, the Navy's 11 shipyards, major Air Force and Army bases were left untouched.

The other eight actions — worth $21 million a year in savings — involve unspecified installations overseas. What will happen to them was left open, pending consultation with European and Western Hemisphere governments concerned. No NATO forces are affected.

McNamara said in Boston last week it would take him six months to determine which of 11 naval shipyards will be closed because of heavy costs and excess capacity.

The last time the defense chief announced any base closings was last Dec. 12. The announcement came amid considerable political commotion that reportedly won reprieves for some bases, including a couple of the Navy yards.

On that occasion, 33 bases were tapped for shutdown or substantial reduction over a period of 3½ years. All but seven are in the United States.

Up to today's actions, the Pentagon reported, 494 major installations had been ordered closed or reduced, with annual savings pegged at $485 million.

McNamara estimated last winter that the base trimmings then contemplated would cut 70,000 civilian workers from the rolls.

It has been Pentagon policy to absorb as much of the worker reductions as possible through attrition and a freeze on hiring at other installations.

Employes displaced by base closings are generally offered a crack at openings elsewhere in the government complex. The Defense Department also has done some retraining, to give ousted workers new skills.

Goldwater Raps Offer Of Johnson

Rejects Briefings To Avert Campaign On Foreign Affairs

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson's offer of intelligence briefings to avert a campaign "knock-down, drag-out" on foreign affairs has drawn a sharp rejection from Sen. Barry Goldwater.

Two other Republicans said they would accept the President's invitation.

The rest of the men on Johnson's guest list of potential Republican nominees remained silent.

Johnson first announced the invitation last Monday. He expanded it at a news conference Thursday, saying "I would like to confer with them and have their suggestions from time to time on what the wise course to pursue is."

And Secretary of State Dean Rusk wrote six Republicans and a Democrat, formally asking them to hear intelligence reports from him, Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara and Director John A. McCone of the Central Intelligence Agency.

The names on Johnson's list: Goldwater, New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, Sen. Margaret Chase Smith Maine, former Vice President Richard M. Nixon, Pennsylvania Gov. William W. Scranton, Harold E. Stassen and Alabama Gov. George C. Wallace.

Through a spokesman, Sen. Smith said she would accept the invitation and added she would be "delighted to confer with the President any time he calls, on anything."

Scranton said the offer doesn't apply to him—"I'm not a presidential aspirant."

Talk Slated As Part Of Tour By Air

Visits Also Planned At Huntington And In Paintsville, Ky.

PITTSBURGH — President Lyndon Johnson arrived at Greater Pittsburgh Airport late this morning for a speech before the League of Women Voters and meetings with city officials as part of a four-state tour.

The President and his wife were welcomed at the airport by various dignitaries in the bright April sunshine, and then taken in a motorcade to the downtown area where he was to speak at the Hotel Hilton to some 1,000 women.

He was to address steelworkers later on the South Side.

Mayor Joseph Barr and Steelworkers President David J. McDonald were among those who greeted the Presidential party.

Earlier this morning the President and Mrs. Johnson were mobbed by school children during a visit at South Bend, Ind.

Neither the President nor the First Lady was injured in the wild melee as well-wishers crushed around them from all sides. However, several of the enthusiastic greeters were carried out of the crowd and given first aid.

After a fleet of three presidential helicopters landed outside a retraining school for unemployed workers, thousands of school children who had been released from classes swarmed over the landing field.

Both the President and Mrs. Johnson were buffeted about and swept along by the crowd despite the determined efforts of Secret Service agents and police.

After about five minutes, Johnson lost his ready grin and looked grim as security men tried to clear a way through the press of humanity.

Secret Service agents waved for police reinforcements and had difficulty steering the President toward the entrance to the field. The pressure of the crowd insistently swept the presidential party away from its destination.

Once Johnson was free of the crush, however, his grin reappeared and he began a more normal hand - shaking tour, greeting well-wishers penned up

Red China Faces Crises

Leadership To Change In Next 10 Or 15 Years

WASHINGTON (AP) — Communist China faces at least two major crises of leadership in the next 10 or 15 years as its aging rulers relinquish power to younger men, according to U.S. intelligence studies on once-secret Chinese military documents.

U.S. officials believe the changes that will come about in these crises may profoundly alter Red China's attitude toward the outside world, including the United States.

Two other points which stand out in the intelligence reports are: 1. Red China under the leadership of Mao Tse-tung is following a strategy of stalemate toward the United States while it concentrates on promoting Red revolutionary movements in underdeveloped countries, particularly in Africa.

2. The Chinese Reds are devoting considerable resources to a program for developing atomic weapons though one of their military leaders estimated in January 1961 that if they got into a big war three to five years from then they would still have to rely on conventional weapons. Meanwhile, the Communist party leaders take the position, according to one of the previously secret documents, that "although the material atomic bomb is important, the spiritual atomic bomb is more important"—apparently a statement of faith in their own Communist world view.

The documents make clear that the Red Chinese leaders believe they cannot be defeated by long-range nuclear weapons —such as U.S. missiles—and if they were invaded they would rely on their vast military manpower. One estimate is that in April 1961 there were supposed to be 200 million armed and organized militiamen.

These conclusions and estimates about Red Chinese policy and strength are set forth in research studies prepared for the State Department's Bureau of Intelligence and Research and based on military papers dealing with both military and political issues which were circulated in Red China in 1961.

In testimony released today, Thomas L. Hughes, State Department intelligence chief, told a House Appropriations subcommittee that "the new materials gave us a look at the dark side of the moon in Communist China."

Hughes also described the documents—obtained in an undisclosed manner—as "uniquely valuable" to the United States in assessing Chinese Communist strategy and tactics and in shaping U.S. foreign policy.

The Red Chinese secret papers were analyed by various Chinese language experts. They were also declassified last year and were made available to scholars through the Library of Congress. They are still being translated.

In connection with Hughes' report that special studies had been made on them, The Associated Press obtained from the State Department two studies—one by Ralph L. Powell of American University and one by John Wilson Lewis of Cornell University. Both men are experts on Communist Chinese affairs.

In Laos Crisis

Premier Agrees To Rebels' Plan

VIENTIANE, Laos (AP) — Premier Souvanna Phouma announced today that he and his Cabinet have agreed to conditions laid down by right-wing rebels for settlement of the Laotian crisis. But coup leaders said they would not relinquish control of Vientiane until formation of a government they approve.

The rightist military leaders, who seized control of the capital Sunday and put Prince Souvanna under house arrest, demanded that he enlarge his government. They demanded that he add to it "qualified personalities" — meaning right-wingers—recommended by the rebels.

Prince Souvanna said the coalition Cabinet of neutralists, rightists and pro-Communists accepted various points of the demand and therefore "considers that there is a continuity in the exercise of its government powers."

The Cabinet "has accepted all clauses included in our motion," Gen. Kouprasith Abhay, the leader of the coup, told a news conference. But his deputy, Gen. Siho Lamphouthakoul, said: "We will maintain military control of the city of Vientiane until the formation of a government according to our wishes."

It was by no means certain that the agreement between Souvanna and the rightists would be approved by the pro-Communist Pathet Lao, an integral member of the coalition government. Its army controls a large part of Laos.

The decision must come from the Pathet Lao headquarters in Khang Khay, where Prince Souphanouvong, Pathet Lao leader and deputy premier, has holed up since he began a boycott of the government 14 months ago.

Souphanouvong in the past has repudiated a number of Cabinet decisions announced by Souvanna on the basis of agreement between him and his rightwing deputy premier, Gen. Phoumi Nosavan.

2 Wellsville Brothers Face Federal Case

Corbisellos Cited On Transportation Of Wagering Pools

Two Wellsville brothers have been arrested on warrants charging interstate transportation of wagering paraphernalia, apparently the climax of an investigation of six months by the FBI.

Anthony Joseph Corbisello, 49, and Benjamin Joseph Corbisello are charged with five counts of engaging in interstate transportation of records and slips intended for use in wagering pools on collegiate and professional sporting events.

U.S. Marshal Jack Bisop of Youngstown, accompanied by Wellsville Patrolman Frank Daniels, served the warrant on Anthony J. Corbisello Thursday night at 9 at Corby's Place on Main St.

Arraigned before U.S. Commissioner Thomas Moore last night in Youngstown, the defendant posted $1,500 bond for his release. He is accused of four violations.

The marshal said he was unable to serve a warrant on Benjamin J. Corbisello last night because the defendant was visiting out of town, but the warrant was left with Wellsville police.

Corbisello surrendered voluntarily this morning at the marshal's office in Youngstown and was expected to post $1,500 bond for release. His indictment accuses one violation.

The marshal said each defendant is to be notified later of a date to enter a plea to the charges at Federal Court in Cleveland.

The warrants accuse the Corbisello brothers of engaging in interstate transportation of wagering paraphernalia, in four separate instances.

Instructions From Board

Count John Glenn's Vote, Precinct Staffs Advised

The County Election Board today reminded its precinct officials that special instructions from Secretary of State Ted W. Brown require they must count and certify all votes cast for Col. John H. Glenn Jr. for the Democratic nomination for U. S. senator at the May 5 primary.

Although the astronaut announced he was withdrawing from the race and a court action to have his name removed from the ballot was unsuccessful, he still is a candidate in the eyes of the law, Frank R. O'Hanlon, clerk, reminded the precinct judges and clerks.

By the time Col. Glenn announced he was quitting the race, the Ohio deadline for withdrawal of candidates had passed. Consequently, his name will appear on ballots throughout the state as an opponent of the incumbent, Sen. Stephen M. Young.

O'Hanlon also reminded that law requires the Election Board to make certain that the full text of a proposed state amendment authorizing a $500 million dollar bond issue for highway purposes is posted in every polling place to be read by voters, if they wish.

Only a summary of the question is printed on the ballot because of its length. In such instances, the law requires that the full text must be posted in the polling places.

O'Hanlon advised precinct officials a copy of the full text will be included in the suitcase used to pack ballots and other supplies for each polling place.

Law stipulates that the polling places will operate on Eastern Standard Time, which is legal time in Ohio. That means polling places will be open from 6:30 a. m. to 6:30 p. m., standard time. In communities observing Daylight Saving Time, this means the polls will be open from 7:30 to 7:30 "fast" time.

O'Hanlon also reiterated a recent announcement that presiding judges must return suit-

Motorists Begin Rush To Settle For Tickets

Motorists started a rush today to pay $2 penalties on old parking tickets and avoid a trip to Municipal Court that could lead to a fine and costs.

"Meter Maids" issued a warning Thursday to about 100 drivers who allegedly ignored tickets issued in the year ending April 1. They said if the penalties were not paid by next Wednesday, issuance of warrants would begin to hale the drivers into court.

"Meter Maids" said the warning touched off a rush by "quite a few" drivers to settle for the old tickets.

Runaway Car Strikes Wall, Hurts Driver

A 46 - year - old Jefferson County man was injured Thursday afternoon when his car struck a picket fence and a stone wall after the brakes failed as he descended the steep E. 5th St. Hill toward the downtown area, police reported.

Edward H. Pysniak of Hammondsville complained of injuries of the neck and both arms after the crash, but said he would consult his own physician.

His 1957 sedan struck the fence and wall at a vacant home at 153 Pennsylvania Ave. as he tried unsuccessfully to steer it into a side street after the brakes failed, officers said. There was heavy damage to the front of the auto, police said.

Patrolmen Jerry Adkins and Orin C. Smith investigated the crash, timed at 1:30.

Pysniak told the officers he was headed downgrade when he noticed his brakes had failed. He said he attempted to steer the auto into Elm St., rather than continue into the downtown area, but the car rammed into the wall and the fence. Investigation showed a broken brake line, police said.

In another "runaway" incident yesterday afternoon, an air compressor broke away from

Mine Official Due Hearing On Pollution

Charles Heidelbach, managing agent of the North American Coal Corp.'s Jensie Coal Mine at East Springfield, has until Wednesday to enter plea or demurrer to a secret indictment returned by the April Grand Jury of Jefferson County charging stream pollution.

The concern is charged with throwing or depositing refuse from coal mines into Yellow Creek, which winds from the headwaters in Springfield through Hammondsville and empties into the Ohio River south of Wellsville.

The prosecutor's office invoked for perhaps the first time in history a section of the Ohio Revised Code prohibiting coal mine operators from throwing refuse into streams.

The indictment alleges the Jensie mine on April 1 "did intentionally throw, deposit and permit to be thrown and deposited, coal slack, coal screenings and coal refuse from the coal mines situated in Springfield Township into a place from which it did wash into a stream —Yellow Creek."

The defendant has until Wednesday in which to file a motion or demurrer or to enter a plea to the indictment.

Atty. Michael Blischak, assistant prosecutor, has been active in leading a fight against pollution of the stream and the Toronto lawyer has compiled a study on the effects and causes of pollution of Yellow Creek.

The penalty for stream pollution is a minimum fine of $50 or a maximum of $1,000.

Among IBOP Resolutions

Technical School Sought In Old Building Of Union

A proposal to seek establishment of a technical school in the union's former headquarters on W. 6th St. is among 30 more resolutions filed for consideration at the annual convention of the International Brotherhood of Operative Potters in July at Long Beach, Calif.

Filed by Generalware Local 320 of East Liverpool, the resolution asserts that the IBOP now has no program to develop job training or curb school drop - outs. It would authorize the Executive Board to name a committee to meet with five representatives of the trade to plan for establishment of the school.

The combined committee then would "meet with various educators, federal government agencies, technical advisors and other organized groups with the express purpose of exploring the feasibility of sponsoring a technical school utilizing the Brotherhood Building on W. 6th St. as far as practical and any other buildings or land as may be needed."

Among other provisions of the resolution, it stipulates the union would retain title to the property and would exercise final approval on all policy matters.

Other proposed resolutions would:

Allow the locals involved to decide whether to accept a settlement worked out by the international with a manufacturer or group of manufacturers.

Allow convention committees to elect their own chairmen, stipulating that a member of the Executive Board would serve as honorary chairman.

Require that all resolutions passed by local unions should be presented to the convention, removing the Executive Board's position as judge and jury" of which are to be considered.

Require the international to furnish a copy of the stenographer's minutes of the convention to each delegate and local union.

Allow local unions involved in consolidations with other locals —if they wish — to resume their separate identity.

Cancer Fund Tag Day To Be Held Saturday

The annual Cancer Fund Tag Day will be held Saturday in East Liverpool with students in Grades 5 through 9 in the public and parochial schools taking part.

Miss Joan Witt is Tag Day chairman. Members of the East Liverpool High School Key Club will assist Miss Witt at the City Hall headquarters of the event.

Mrs. Lawrence Newtz, chairman of the residential drive, said reports of this week's house-to-house canvass will be completed over the weekend for announcement Monday.

Turn Clocks Ahead—DST Starts Sunday

Tri - State District residents face the annual chore of changing their clocks to Daylight Saving Time, effective Sunday at 2 a. m.

Clocks should be turned AHEAD one hour to conform to the so-called "summer time," which generally lasts through Oct. 25.

It will be more convenient, of course, to make the time change before retiring Saturday night. P. S. You'll get back that hour of lost sleep next fall.

All Ohio Valley communities between Pittsburgh and Marietta shift from Eastern Standard Time, but not all will drop the fast time next October. Weirton, for instance, will return to EDT Sept. 27. And some area school districts go back to slow time that month because of the danger from fog and early - morning dimness for students on school bus routes.

Most Eastern States go to Daylight Saving Time this Sunday, so there should be no confusion over television programs.

63 More Military Bases To Be Closed Or Reduced

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara today announced 63 new actions closing or reducing military bases, depots and arsenals and consolidating offices. He estimated savings at $68 million a year.

McNamara said slicing away at least eight unneeded facilities, scaling down 14 others, combining separate contract monitoring offices in 29 cities, and other actions would yield savings "without in any reducing military effectiveness."

Release 696,000 acres of real estate for nondefense use.

Make available 61 industrial plants for sale to American business.

Fifty-five of the new actions announced by McNamara at a news conference affect military activities in 29 states.

The primary emphasis is on consolidating — one to a city — the separate contract supervision offices maintained by the Army, Navy, Air Force and Defense Supply Agency in many places. That is to be done in two years.

The combining of these offices in 29 cities is expected to lop off 1,800 workers and save $18.8 million a year.

Red China Faces Crises

Leadership To Change In Next 10 Or 15 Years

WASHINGTON (AP) — Communist China faces at least two major crises of leadership in the next 10 or 15 years as its aging rulers relinquish power to younger men, according to U.S. intelligence studies on once-secret Chinese military documents.

U.S. officials believe the changes that will come about in these crises may profoundly alter Red China's attitude toward the outside world, including the United States.

Two other points which stand out in the intelligence reports are: 1. Red China under the leadership of Mao Tse-tung is following a strategy of stalemate toward the United States while it concentrates on promoting Red revolutionary movements in underdeveloped countries, particularly in Africa.

2. The Chinese Reds are devoting considerable resources to a program for developing atomic weapons though one of their military leaders estimated in January 1961 that if they got into a big war three to five years from then they would still have to rely on conventional weapons. Meanwhile, the Communist party leaders take the position, according to one of the previously secret documents, that "although the material atomic bomb is important, the spiritual atomic bomb is more important"—apparently a statement of faith in their own Communist world view.

The documents make clear that the Red Chinese leaders believe they cannot be defeated by long-range nuclear weapons —such as U.S. missiles—and if they were invaded they would rely on their vast military manpower. One estimate is that in April 1961 there were supposed to be 200 million armed and organized militiamen.

These conclusions and estimates about Red Chinese policy and strength are set forth in research studies prepared for the State Department's Bureau of Intelligence and Research and based on military papers dealing with both military and political issues which were circulated in Red China in 1961.

In testimony released today, Thomas L. Hughes, State Department intelligence chief, told a House Appropriations subcommittee that "the new materials gave us a look at the dark side of the moon in Communist China."

Hughes also described the documents—obtained in an undisclosed manner—as "uniquely valuable" to the United States in assessing Chinese Communist strategy and tactics and in shaping U.S. foreign policy.

The Red Chinese secret papers were analyed by various Chinese language experts. They were also declassified last year and were made available to scholars through the Library of Congress. They are still being translated.

In connection with Hughes' report that special studies had been made on them, The Associated Press obtained from the State Department two studies—one by Ralph L. Powell of American University and one by John Wilson Lewis of Cornell University. Both men are experts on Communist Chinese affairs.

Premier Agrees To Rebels' Plan

VIENTIANE, Laos (AP) — Premier Souvanna Phouma announced today that he and his Cabinet have agreed to conditions laid down by right-wing rebels for settlement of the Laotian crisis. But coup leaders said they would not relinquish control of Vientiane until formation of a government they approve.

The rightist military leaders, who seized control of the capital Sunday and put Prince Souvanna under house arrest, demanded that he enlarge his government. They demanded that he add to it "qualified personalities" — meaning right-wingers—recommended by the rebels.

Prince Souvanna said the coalition Cabinet of neutralists, rightists and pro-Communists accepted various points of the demand and therefore "considers that there is a continuity in the exercise of its government powers."

The Cabinet "has accepted all clauses included in our motion," Gen. Kouprasith Abhay, the leader of the coup, told a news conference. But his deputy, Gen. Siho Lamphouthakoul, said: "We will maintain military control of the city of Vientiane until the formation of a government according to our wishes."

It was by no means certain that the agreement between Souvanna and the rightists would be approved by the pro-Communist Pathet Lao, an integral member of the coalition government. Its army controls a large part of Laos.

The decision must come from the Pathet Lao headquarters in Khang Khay, where Prince Souphanouvong, Pathet Lao leader and deputy premier, has holed up since he began a boycott of the government 14 months ago.

Souphanouvong in the past has repudiated a number of Cabinet decisions announced by Souvanna on the basis of agreement between him and his rightwing deputy premier, Gen. Phoumi Nosavan.

2 Wellsville Brothers Face Federal Case

Corbisellos Cited On Transportation Of Wagering Pools

Two Wellsville brothers have been arrested on warrants charging interstate transportation of wagering paraphernalia, apparently the climax of an investigation of six months by the FBI.

Anthony Joseph Corbisello, 49, and Benjamin Joseph Corbisello are charged with five counts of engaging in interstate transportation of records and slips intended for use in wagering pools on collegiate and professional sporting events.

U.S. Marshal Jack Bisop of Youngstown, accompanied by Wellsville Patrolman Frank Daniels, served the warrant on Anthony J. Corbisello Thursday night at 9 at Corby's Place on Main St.

Arraigned before U.S. Commissioner Thomas Moore last night in Youngstown, the defendant posted $1,500 bond for his release. He is accused of four violations.

The marshal said he was unable to serve a warrant on Benjamin J. Corbisello last night because the defendant was visiting out of town, but the warrant was left with Wellsville police.

Corbisello surrendered voluntarily this morning at the marshal's office in Youngstown and was expected to post $1,500 bond for release. His indictment accuses one violation.

The marshal said each defendant is to be notified later of a date to enter a plea to the charges at Federal Court in Cleveland.

Count John Glenn's Vote, Precinct Staffs Advised

The County Election Board today reminded its precinct officials that special instructions from Secretary of State Ted W. Brown require they must count and certify all votes cast for Col. John H. Glenn Jr. for the Democratic nomination for U. S. senator at the May 5 primary.

Although the astronaut announced he was withdrawing from the race and a court action to have his name removed from the ballot was unsuccessful, he still is a candidate in the eyes of the law, Frank R. O'Hanlon, clerk, reminded the precinct judges and clerks.

By the time Col. Glenn announced he was quitting the race, the Ohio deadline for withdrawal of candidates had passed. Consequently, his name will appear on ballots throughout the state as an opponent of the incumbent, Sen. Stephen M. Young.

O'Hanlon also reminded that law requires the Election Board to make certain that the full text of a proposed state amendment authorizing a $500 million dollar bond issue for highway purposes is posted in every polling place to be read by voters, if they wish.

Only a summary of the question is printed on the ballot because of its length. In such instances, the law requires that the full text must be posted in the polling places.

O'Hanlon advised precinct officials a copy of the full text will be included in the suitcase used to pack ballots and other supplies for each polling place.

Law stipulates that the polling places will operate on Eastern Standard Time, which is legal time in Ohio. That means polling places will be open from 6:30 a. m. to 6:30 p. m., standard time. In communities observing Daylight Saving Time, this means the polls will be open from 7:30 to 7:30 "fast" time.

O'Hanlon also reiterated a recent announcement that presiding judges must return suit-

Motorists Begin Rush To Settle For Tickets

Motorists started a rush today to pay $2 penalties on old parking tickets and avoid a trip to Municipal Court that could lead to a fine and costs.

"Meter Maids" issued a warning Thursday to about 100 drivers who allegedly ignored tickets issued in the year ending April 1. They said if the penalties were not paid by next Wednesday, issuance of warrants would begin to hale the drivers into court.

"Meter Maids" said the warning touched off a rush by "quite a few" drivers to settle for the old tickets.

Runaway Car Strikes Wall, Hurts Driver

A 46 - year - old Jefferson County man was injured Thursday afternoon when his car struck a picket fence and a stone wall after the brakes failed as he descended the steep E. 5th St. Hill toward the downtown area, police reported.

Edward H. Pysniak of Hammondsville complained of injuries of the neck and both arms after the crash, but said he would consult his own physician.

His 1957 sedan struck the fence and wall at a vacant home at 153 Pennsylvania Ave. as he tried unsuccessfully to steer it into a side street after the brakes failed, officers said. There was heavy damage to the front of the auto, police said.

Patrolmen Jerry Adkins and Orin C. Smith investigated the crash, timed at 1:30.

Pysniak told the officers he was headed downgrade when he noticed his brakes had failed. He said he attempted to steer the auto into Elm St., rather than continue into the downtown area, but the car rammed into the wall and the fence. Investigation showed a broken brake line, police said.

Mine Official Due Hearing On Pollution

Charles Heidelbach, managing agent of the North American Coal Corp.'s Jensie Coal Mine at East Springfield, has until Wednesday to enter plea or demurrer to a secret indictment returned by the April Grand Jury of Jefferson County charging stream pollution.

The concern is charged with throwing or depositing refuse from coal mines into Yellow Creek, which winds from the headwaters in Springfield through Hammondsville and empties into the Ohio River south of Wellsville.

The prosecutor's office invoked for perhaps the first time in history a section of the Ohio Revised Code prohibiting coal mine operators from throwing refuse into streams.

The indictment alleges the Jensie mine on April 1 "did intentionally throw, deposit and permit to be thrown and deposited, coal slack, coal screenings and coal refuse from the coal mines situated in Springfield Township into a place from which it did wash into a stream —Yellow Creek."

The defendant has until Wednesday in which to file a motion or demurrer or to enter a plea to the indictment.

Atty. Michael Blischak, assistant prosecutor, has been active in leading a fight against pollution of the stream and the Toronto lawyer has compiled a study on the effects and causes of pollution of Yellow Creek.

The penalty for stream pollution is a minimum fine of $50 or a maximum of $1,000.

Among IBOP Resolutions

Technical School Sought In Old Building Of Union

A proposal to seek establishment of a technical school in the union's former headquarters on W. 6th St. is among 30 more resolutions filed for consideration at the annual convention of the International Brotherhood of Operative Potters in July at Long Beach, Calif.

Filed by Generalware Local 320 of East Liverpool, the resolution asserts that the IBOP now has no program to develop job training or curb school drop - outs. It would authorize the Executive Board to name a committee to meet with five representatives of the trade to plan for establishment of the school.

The combined committee then would "meet with various educators, federal government agencies, technical advisors and other organized groups with the express purpose of exploring the feasibility of sponsoring a technical school utilizing the Brotherhood Building on W. 6th St. as far as practical and any other buildings or land as may be needed."

Among other provisions of the resolution, it stipulates the union would retain title to the property and would exercise final approval on all policy matters.

Other proposed resolutions would:

Allow the locals involved to decide whether to accept a settlement worked out by the international with a manufacturer or group of manufacturers.

Allow convention committees to elect their own chairmen, stipulating that a member of the Executive Board would serve as honorary chairman.

Require that all resolutions passed by local unions should be presented to the convention, removing the Executive Board's position as judge and jury" of which are to be considered.

Require the international to furnish a copy of the stenographer's minutes of the convention to each delegate and local union.

Allow local unions involved in consolidations with other locals —if they wish — to resume their separate identity.

Cancer Fund Tag Day To Be Held Saturday

The annual Cancer Fund Tag Day will be held Saturday in East Liverpool with students in Grades 5 through 9 in the public and parochial schools taking part.

Miss Joan Witt is Tag Day chairman. Members of the East Liverpool High School Key Club will assist Miss Witt at the City Hall headquarters of the event.

Mrs. Lawrence Newtz, chairman of the residential drive, said reports of this week's house-to-house canvass will be completed over the weekend for announcement Monday.

Turn Clocks Ahead–DST Starts Sunday

Tri - State District residents face the annual chore of changing their clocks to Daylight Saving Time, effective Sunday at 2 a. m.

Clocks should be turned AHEAD one hour to conform to the so-called "summer time," which generally lasts through Oct. 25.

It will be more convenient, of course, to make the time change before retiring Saturday night. P. S. You'll get back that hour of lost sleep next fall.

All Ohio Valley communities between Pittsburgh and Marietta shift from Eastern Standard Time, but not all will drop the fast time next October. Weirton, for instance, will return to EDT Sept. 27. And some area school districts go back to slow time that month because of the danger from fog and early - morning dimness for students on school bus routes.

Most Eastern States go to Daylight Saving Time this Sunday, so there should be no confusion over television programs.

Bids Received On 2 Cruisers For Midland

Bids for two new police cruisers were received by Midland Council Thursday night and turned over to the police committee for study. The prices include trade-in of two old cars.

Midland Auto sales asked $3,515 each for Dodge models, with allowance of $850 for a 1962 Dodge and $600 for a 1962 Ford as trade-in. Migliore Ford Sales bid $3,550 each for Ford models with $650 trade-in of the old Dodge and $750 for the old Ford.

The bids were refered to the committee and R. E. Steebner, borough engineer, and Solicitor Frank Suffoletta, with the power to act.

William Vinovich, president, said applications for summer employment at the Veterans Swimming pool would be available at the borough secretary's office May 1-15.

All positions will be open, he said, including manager, lifeguards, checkers, matron and concession stand operators.

The reduction will be from $8.10 per light to $5.39 per month on one type and from $9.35 to $7.16 on another. The total reduction will amount to $229.95 per month.

The reductions were affective March 13, the day after Council was advised.

In other action, Council granted permission to Mrs. Marlene Westlake, assistant borough secretary, to attend the Pennsylvania Government Secretaries Association convention the week of June 28 in Pittsburgh.

Councilman Ray Presutti, chairman of the tree committee, reported 65 trees had been planted and that the Davey Tree Co. is to begin spraying Monday.

Councilman James Hibbard reported on the meeting of the Southwestern Pennsylvania Regional Planning Commission that he and Councilmen Presutti, Steve Germusa and William Shovlin attended Wednesday in Pittsburgh.

Mayor Eli Corak, county commissioner, and Tax collector Rudolph Presutti, also attended.

Vinovich presided. Next meeting will be May 14.

Phone Retiree Honored

A retirement certificate for 40 years service in the Ohio Bell Telephone Co. was presented to Bert Clark of Wellsville, left, by K. B. Huhn of Steubenville, district plant superintendent, at a dinner Wednesday at the Travelers Hotel.

Clark, 602 Commerce St., began work with the utility as an installer in 1923, and became an assigner in 1955. He is a lifelong resident of Wellsville.

He is married and has a family of three. Besides fellow - employes at the event, guests included F. D. Bright, wire chief, and L. E. Gille, foreman.

Clark received the certificate and a service pin.

The marshal listed the dates on which the interstate violations took place as Sept. 24, 1963, Oct. 1, 1963, Oct. 8, 1963, and Oct. 14, 1963.

He said he understood the arrests climaxed an extensive investigation by the FBI.

The brothers were indicted by the Federal Grand Jury Wednesday in Cleveland.

Rural Couple Killed In Car-Train Crash

DELPHOS, Ohio (AP)—A rural couple from near Spencerville in Allen County were killed when they drove into the path of a freight train Thursday night. The victims were Albert N. Kill, 69, and Teresa G. Kill, 65.

The Highway Patrol said the accident occurred on the Allen-Van Wert County Line Road a short distance north of Ohio 117.

Broken Speedometer Seen No Excuse In Speeding Case

A broken speedometer cable is not a defense against a charge of speeding, Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff said today as he convicted a Glenmoor man of exceeding the limit on the East Liverpool-Wellsville "super-road."

Ernest Wayne Freeman, cited Saturday by the State Highway Patrol, also was fined $15 and costs. The patrol accused Freeman of driving 75 miles an hour in a 50-mile zone on the four-lane road.

Freeman told the court his speedometer cable was broken and "I didn't realize how fast I was going." Queried by the court, Freeman said he has been driving about 10 years.

"With 10 years' experience, you should be able to tell how fast you are going without looking at the speedometer," the judge told Freeman.

Harold J. Bissell, 22, of 526 Wedgewood St. was fined $10 and costs when the judge convicted him on a charge of passing another vehicle at the intersection of Route 30 and Township Rd. 925 at Cannons Mills. Bissell, cited April 15, previously had entered a not guilty plea.

William J. Simms of Route 20, Pleasant Heights, was fined $5 and costs when he pleaded guilty to a charge of crashing a traffic light at Walnut and E. 5th Sts. He was cited Wednesday.

The court dismissed an affidavit in which Ray G. Glendenning of 2nd St. and Carolina Ave., Chester, was accused of driving a vehicle with an expired Georgia license tag. Glendenning was cited April 3 on Walnut St. He had been granted two continuances to allow him time in which to obtain a title for his car and register it properly.

Glendenning submitted proof today that his vehicle is registered. The court then dismissed the action on payment of costs.

Aged Woman Hurt In Fall

An elderly woman hurt in a fall down stairs and a city man injured at work were among eight district residents treated Thursday at City Hospital.

John Brown, 52, of 1052 Dresden Ave., employe of Riverview Florists, suffered severe contusions and cuts of fingers when caught in a generator belt at work.

Nettie Hillyer, 78, of Collins Rest Home, Oakmont, suffered bruises and cuts of the forehead and scalp and an arm injury in a fall down a flight of stairs.

Floyd Cranston, 37, of M.C. Route 22, was treated early today for an injury to the right arm received in a fall at home.

Joan Snyder, 18, daughter of Mrs. Lois Cornman, 2135 Pennsylvania Ave., suffered a cut and abrasions of the left knee in a fall.

Judith Ann Lawrence, 3, daughter of Mrs. Jane Lawrence, 302 18th St., Wellsville, received a cut of the scalp in a fall backward from a swing.

cases with election supplies "forthwith" after the tabulation is completed and reported to the election board. The instructions apply particulary to the presiding judges in the northern section of the county, who will be required to deliver the suitcases to the Election Board's office in the Courthouse.

For many years, the presiding judges in the southern county area have been returning the suitcases on election night to the board's office here or to the water works office at Wellsville City Hall.

O'Hanlon also explained procedure in voting for delegates-at-large and alternates-at-large in Ohio for the GOP and Democratic national conventions.

An "X" in the rectangular space to the left of the candidates' names will count as a vote for all in the case of both the delegates and alternates on both tickets, he said. If the voters votes for delegates and alternates individually without placing an "X" in the rectangular space at the left, the votes cannot be counted.

Since there is no opposition on either ticket, precinct crews tabulating the returns need record only the votes of the first candidate for delegate and the first candidate for alternate on either slate, he said.

But in voting for 18th District delegates and alternates, the candidates' must be voted for individually.

O'Hanlon said all precinct officials have been notified of the order in which the tabulation of returns must be made.

"If any presiding judge decides not to follow the instructions, the other precinct officials should notify the Election Board, which will take whatever action is necessary," he said.

The veteran clerk pointed out that — contrary to the opinions held by some — the presiding judge is not the sole authority in determining a dispute on a ballot. If any dispute develops, the majority vote of the four judges is the deciding factor, he said.

He added that any precinct official "or any elector who happens to be in the polling place at the time" has the right to challenge any elector "on proper grounds."

town, Canton and Steubenville and communities of their metropolitan areas go to the fast time. All of West Virginia, Western Pennsylvania and most of Northeastern Ohio make the change.

Ohioans will continue buying their liquor on standard time throughout the state, regardless of any "Daylight Saving Time" rules which may be adopted by individual localities, says Director Donald D. Cook, Department of Liquor Control.

The department has ruled that the operating hours of all state liquor stores and agencies and all Ohio retail liquor permit holders must be in accordance with Standard Ohio Time and not by any advanced time adopted by any local government.

Caught With Stock

MIAMI (AP) — A pair of button shoes trapped two men in a theft case. They managed to sell 42 pairs of pants and 55 shirts. But the fancy, three-button shoes didn't move and they were caught with them. The owner of the store said he'd been trying to sell the same shoes for 10 years.

behind fences and police barricades.

Mrs. Johnson was the first to emerge from the crowd. She was able to reach the exit fairly easily because most of the shrieking youngsters did not recognize her and moved instead toward her husband.

The First Lady said later of the crowd, "There's nothing depressing about them. There's nothing down-hearted about them."

Thursday night, in Chicago, Johnson was saluted at a $100-a-plate dinner by an estimated 6,000 of the Democratic faithful.

The President, who has said he'll tone down partisan talk at preconvention political gatherings, forgot himself long enough to add some resounding flourishes to his prepared remarks at the dinner.

Come November, Johnson predicted, the voters will bestow "decisive victory at all levels for the party of all the people."

Grinning, Johnson said he had read in a Chicago newspaper that his first presidential foray into the Midwest was taking him into "Goldwater country."

TONSILLECTOMY NOT A MUST

Q. I have finally gotten enough courage to have Johnny's tonsils removed. Should I take him to a specialist or a general surgeon?

A. Did your family physician or pediatrician recommend tonsillectomy for Johnny, or is this your idea? There was a time, you know, when tonsils were considered the root of all evil. Some hospitals even had special "tonsil days" set aside for the wholesale removal of children's tonsils. Fortunately, these days are over. It's true that some tonsils need to come out but tonsillectomy isn't a must for all youngsters. The point is that the operation must be individualized just as much as an appendectomy. No one would advise the routine removal of the appendix. Let your doctor decide when to operate for appendicitis . . . and when (if ever) to remove Johnny's tonsils.

COLONIC IRRIGATIONS

Q. I have been receiving colonic irrigations regularly for about two years without any improvement in my general health. How long should I continue these treatments?

A. Colonic irrigation (used chiefly by pseudohealth clinics) are of no benefit and may be harmful. Such "treatment" is based on the theory of auto-intoxication and absorption of "poisons" through the bowel wall. This is pure nonsense in the light of scientific studies.

in Hancock County across the state line to Wellsville.

The marshal listed the dates on which the interstate violations took place as Sept. 24, 1963, Oct. 1, 1963, Oct. 8, 1963, and Oct. 14, 1963.

He said he understood the arrests climaxed an extensive investigation by the FBI.

Each charge against Anthony J. Corbisello accuses him of transportation across the state line of 2,000 football pool sheets.

The brothers were indicted by the Federal Grand Jury Wednesday in Cleveland.

Rural Couple Killed In Car-Train Crash

DELPHOS, Ohio (AP)—A rural couple from near Spencerville in Allen County were killed when they drove into the path of a freight train Thursday night. The victims were Albert N. Kill, 69, and Teresa G. Kill, 65.

The Highway Patrol said the accident occurred on the Allen-Van Wert County Line Road a short distance north of Ohio 117.

Broken Speedometer Seen No Excuse In Speeding Case

A broken speedometer cable is not a defense against a charge of speeding, Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff said today as he convicted a Glenmoor man of exceeding the limit on the East Liverpool-Wellsville "super-road."

Ernest Wayne Freeman, cited Saturday by the State Highway Patrol, also was fined $15 and costs. The patrol accused Freeman of driving 75 miles an hour in a 50-mile zone on the four-lane road.

Freeman told the court his speedometer cable was broken and "I didn't realize how fast I was going." Queried by the court, Freeman said he has been driving about 10 years.

"With 10 years' experience, you should be able to tell how fast you are going without looking at the speedometer," the judge told Freeman.

Harold J. Bissell, 22, of 526 Wedgewood St. was fined $10 and costs when the judge convicted him on a charge of passing another vehicle at the intersection of Route 30 and Township Rd. 925 at Cannons Mills. Bissell, cited April 15, previously had entered a not guilty plea.

Ira White of Smithfield St., a passenger in Bissell's car, testied for the defense.

William J. Simms of Route 20, Pleasant Heights, was fined $5 and costs when he pleaded guilty to a charge of crashing a traffic light at Walnut and E. 5th Sts. He was cited Wednesday.

The court dismissed an affidavit in which Ray G. Glendenning of 2nd St. and Carolina Ave., Chester, was accused of driving a vehicle with an expired Georgia license tag. Glendenning was cited April 3 on Walnut St. He had been granted two continuances to allow him time in which to obtain a title for his car and register it properly.

Glendenning submitted proof today that his vehicle is registered. The court then dismissed the action on payment of costs.

Aged Woman Hurt In Fall

An elderly woman hurt in a fall down stairs and a city man injured at work were among eight district residents treated Thursday at City Hospital.

John Brown, 52, of 1052 Dresden Ave., employe of Riverview Florists, suffered severe contusions and cuts of fingers when caught in a generator belt at work.

Nettie Hillyer, 78, of Collins Rest Home, Oakmont, suffered bruises and cuts of the forehead and scalp and an arm injury in a fall down a flight of stairs.

Mrs. Gloria Kleich of Dairy Ln. received a deep laceration of the left wrist when her hand slipped and broke through a pane of glass on a door.

Floyd Cranston, 37, of M.C. Route 22, was treated early today for an injury to the right arm received in a fall at home.

Joan Snyder, 18, daughter of Mrs. Lois Cornman, 2135 Pennsylvania Ave., suffered a cut and abrasions of the left knee in a fall.

Judith Ann Lawrence, 3, daughter of Mrs. Jane Lawrence, 302 18th St., Wellsville, received a cut of the scalp in a fall backward from a swing.

cases with election supplies "forthwith" after the tabulation is completed and reported to the election board. The instructions apply particulary to the presiding judges in the northern section of the county, who will be required to deliver the suitcases to the Election Board's office in the Courthouse.

For many years, the presiding judges in the southern county area have been returning the suitcases on election night to the board's office here or to the water works office at Wellsville City Hall.

O'Hanlon also explained procedure in voting for delegates-at-large and alternates-at-large in Ohio for the GOP and Democratic national conventions.

An "X" in the rectangular space to the left of the candidates' names will count as a vote for all in the case of both the delegates and alternates on both tickets, he said. If the voters votes for delegates and alternates individually without placing an "X" in the rectangular space at the left, the votes cannot be counted.

Since there is no opposition on either ticket, precinct crews tabulating the returns need record only the votes of the first candidate for delegate and the first candidate for alternate on either slate, he said.

But in voting for 18th District delegates and alternates, the candidates' must be voted for individually.

O'Hanlon said all precinct officials have been notified of the order in which the tabulation of returns must be made.

"If any presiding judge decides not to follow the instructions, the other precinct officials should notify the Election Board, which will take whatever action is necessary," he said.

The veteran clerk pointed out that — contrary to the opinions held by some — the presiding judge is not the sole authority in determining a dispute on a ballot. If any dispute develops, the majority vote of the four judges is the deciding factor, he said.

He added that any precinct official "or any elector who happens to be in the polling place at the time" has the right to challenge any elector "on proper grounds."

town, Canton and Steubenville and communities of their metropolitan areas go to the fast time. All of West Virginia, Western Pennsylvania and most of Northeastern Ohio make the change.

Ohioans will continue buying their liquor on standard time throughout the state, regardless of any "Daylight Saving Time" rules which may be adopted by individual localities, says Director Donald D. Cook, Department of Liquor Control.

The department has ruled that the operating hours of all state liquor stores and agencies and all Ohio retail liquor permit holders must be in accordance with Standard Ohio Time and not by any advanced time adopted by any local government.

Caught With Stock

MIAMI (AP) — A pair of button shoes trapped two men in a theft case. They managed to sell 42 pairs of pants and 55 shirts. But the fancy, three-button shoes didn't move and they were caught with them. The owner of the store said he'd been trying to sell the same shoes for 10 years.

behind fences and police barricades.

Mrs. Johnson was the first to emerge from the crowd. She was able to reach the exit fairly easily because most of the shrieking youngsters did not recognize her and moved instead toward her husband.

The First Lady said later of the crowd, "There's nothing depressing about them. There's nothing down-hearted about them."

Thursday night, in Chicago, Johnson was saluted at a $100-a-plate dinner by an estimated 6,000 of the Democratic faithful.

The President, who has said he'll tone down partisan talk at preconvention political gatherings, forgot himself long enough to add some resounding flourishes to his prepared remarks at the dinner.

Come November, Johnson predicted, the voters will bestow "decisive victory at all levels for the party of all the people."

Grinning, Johnson said he had read in a Chicago newspaper that his first presidential foray into the Midwest was taking him into "Goldwater country."

Better Health Through Knowledge

TONSILLECTOMY NOT A MUST

Q. I have finally gotten enough courage to have Johnny's tonsils removed. Should I take him to a specialist or a general surgeon?

A. Did your family physician or pediatrician recommend tonsillectomy for Johnny, or is this your idea? There was a time, you know, when tonsils were considered the root of all evil. Some hospitals even had special "tonsil days" set aside for the wholesale removal of children's tonsils. Fortunately, these days are over. It's true that some tonsils need to come out but tonsillectomy isn't a must for all youngsters. The point is that the operation must be individualized just as much as an appendectomy. No one would advise the routine removal of the appendix. Let your doctor decide when to operate for appendicitis . . . and when (if ever) to remove Johnny's tonsils.

COLONIC IRRIGATIONS

Q. I have been receiving colonic irrigations regularly for about two years without any improvement in my general health. How long should I continue these treatments?

A. Colonic irrigation (used chiefly by pseudohealth clinics) are of no benefit and may be harmful. Such "treatment" is based on the theory of auto-intoxication and absorption of "poisons" through the bowel wall. This is pure nonsense in the light of scientific studies.

The Expendable Candidates

Trying to pick a winner in the Republican presidential sweepstake is as hazardous as picking one in the National League. Everybody has his own basis of selection, depending on circumstances as he sees them.

One way of choosing to see them has special bearing on the guessing game. The break of the game that could upset every prediction now in circulation concerns not Republican contenders but the Democratic contender.

As long as Lyndon B. Johnson keeps running at the pace he has been able to sustain and quicken since he became president in the nation's long afternoon of grief last Nov. 22, the Republican presidential nomination will be a formal honor.

The nominee will be performing an important function within the two-party system — heading the opposition in a national election.

THE POSSIBILITY he might beat Mr. Johnson will be as remote as the possibility that Adlai E. Stevenson might have beaten Dwight D. Eisenhower in 1952 and 1956, barring an upset or a disaster.

Defeat will not be referred to openly, just as it never is referred to openly when the old school is playing football against an odds-on favorite. But the fact is now and will continue to be that a drastic change in circumstances would be required to turn the odds against President Johnson this year.

If Republican leaders think Mr. Johnson can't be licked, they will nominate a candidate they can count on to do credit to them in defeat — an expendable willing to be expended in good grace.

BUT IF THEY think the President is losing favor and can be taken in the 1964 election, they will give the Republican nomination to the candidate they can do the most credit to them in victory. And it goes without saying they will nominate the candidate strong enough to command the most support at the polls.

So — divide all GOP contenders into two groups — expendables and unexpendables —and rank them in their proper order in thse two categories. It makes the guessing game more fun. It weeds out the contenders with no chance.

Some Glowing Expectations

Joel H. Hunter's outlook for the rest of 1964 at Crucible Steel Co. is encouraging for the concern's employes and investors, along with the rest of the Tri-State Area whose economy is based on steel and pottery.

"Prospects for the latter portion of the year look better than last year," the Crucible president said this week, having told shareholders of increased profits for the first quarter.

National Steel Corp. also gave out news of boosted income, record sales and bright expectations.

Across the nation, steelmakers have indicated belief the second quarter shipments of metal will likely top the first quarter by 4 to 8 per cent.

One of the big clouds on the industry front was the threat of a railroad strike—dissipated this week by the agreement at Washington. The other is the possibility of a labor dispute in the auto industry later in the summer.

Meanwhile, the hot metal continues to flow at Midland and Weirton with a warm and promising glow.

Ample Warning

West Virginia is chalking up a lamentably sad toll of highway deaths for the first part of the year—132 victims so far, compared to 89 this time in 1963.

Carelessness, whether in West Virginia, Ohio or any state, is inevitably the answer, and lies behind the many and varied causes attributed to accidents—speed, road conditions, mechanical failure, momentary distraction, and so on.

The big increase in road fatalities in the Mountain State does point up, however, the real need for motorists and government officials to embark on a program of safety through education, by enforcement and with improved roads.

A 48 per cent increase in death should be an ample warning.

Bridge Out Ahead

It is tempting to think a standoff between railroad management and labor was dissolved by the strike settlement reached Wednesday. But there still is a bridge out ahead, and no one knows what can be done about it.

The strike settlement Wednesday merely settled secondary issues on which four unions struck the Illinois Central April 8. Friction flared immediately into the threat of a national strike by Saturday. This threat has been removed.

But the most troublesome issue has not been touched.

Railroads still do not know if unions and the federal government will let them trim their payrolls and control of their operating costs, like other parts of the transportation industry.

The United States gives routine lip service to free enterprise but still has not determined whether railroads must operate in perpetuity under regulations framed to control them when they were a transportation monopoly.

Everything about transportation has changed since then, except the dead hand of federal control on railroads. Passenger ways have been heavily subsidized by the federal government. So have railroads, but in another way — loans to keep them from succumbing to their subsidized competition.

We share President Johnson's enthusiasm about averting a railroad strike; it would have been a disaster for the railroads, the rail unions and all the rest of us. But no issue of substances has been settled. The bridge is still out ahead.

It still hasn't been settle whether railroads should be allowed to go it alone as free enterprise, or hobbled with restrictions and taxes until they succumb to federal ownership and operation as the only way to survive.

Deplorable!

By Truman Twill

Every time someone urges me and the rest of this country to get back to the old-fashioned virtues before the country goes to hell in a basket, I sigh and start to count to 1,000 by small fractions.

It is possible the country is going to hell in a basket. The point is debatable. In the long pull, all countries end up that way; at least, they've ended up that way so far.

It is not the judgment of where we are going that tests my composure but the notion that we can get back to something behind us, provided we really are picking up momentum on a downhill slope. The physics of this proposition affronts my sense of mechanics.

WE CANNOT ARREST social momentum any more than we can turn back time.

Most of what seems to alarmists to be social degredation, I believe is nothing more serious than changing fashions.

We do not invent new sins nor develop new virtues. We just put new names and gimmicks on standard varieties.

It is arrogant to believe men are bright enough to make material changes in their environment. I suspect they're not even bright enough to blow up the world, though I acknowledge they might be stupid enough to let nostalgic megalomaniacs try it.

In any event, once the conviction has jelled that things aren't the way they used to be and therefore must be a lot worse, what can anyone do about it?

Yapping about it is as foolish as threatening to repeal the law of gravity while falling through the air. Why should anyone waste time listening to such people?

All they are doing in many cases is singing for their supper at the table of someone who deplores the passing of time and begrudges a new generation its inalienable right to make its own mistakes. They can be forgiven for that. They even can be given the benefit of the doubt and classified as Sincere Types, though I question this.

I HAPPEN to be a deplorer, myself. But what I deplore is not the way the world keeps changing but the way I keep changing in relation to the world. It's like being in a train standing still while the train on the next track is moving.

In other words, I do not deplore the passage of time, the law of gravity, or the fact that change is the one thing that never changes. What I deplore is the way my own position keeps skittering about in relation to eternal verities.

I want to reach out with a sky hook and arrest my descent into the abyss. I want to make time stand still while I attend to some items of personal business that have been neglected. In small, personal ways, I screech and squawk, too.

But I am not aware of any surpassing virtue in the old-fashioned virtues, whatever they were. I think things were never better and the people who yap to the contray need to look at themselves, not at society.

This 'n That

The United States, comprising 6.7 per cent of the world's area and 6.4 per cent of the world's population, now has 43.5 per cent of all the trucks and 65.4 per cent of all the passenger automobiles in the world. By comparison, there is one motor vehicle for every 2.5 persons in the U.S. as against a ratio of one motor vehicle for every four persons in Australia, 21 in Europe, 50 in South America, 100 in Africa, and 516 in Asia.

The first official American flag, the Continental or Grand Union flag, was displayed on Prospect Hill on January 1, 1776, in the American lines besieging Boston. It had 13 alternate red and white stripes, with the British Union Jack in the upper left corner.

Doctors Getting Into Politics

By Victor Riesel

There never will be a doctors' strike in the U.S. That's the word from many of the nation's most active physicians—125 of whom were gathered at Chicago's Sheraton hotel. The Belgian boycott was the conversation piece at their unusual conference, which was political not medical.

Victor Riesel

These professional men had come from many cities at the call of their newest society, the American Medical Political Action Committee (AMPAC). They met to learn precinct politics from specialists. The doctors of the land appear not to have the slightest intention of idly waiting for American laws to develop in the image of Belgian and British medical legislation.

AMPAC specialists, who operate out of their national headquarters at 520 N. Michigan ave, Chicago, have doctors' political action rolling in high gear. Their vote getting machine is equipped with everything from prize winning motion pictures to a bulletin called Political Stethoscope.

THESE MOVIES are professional. They're produced in Hollywood at Parthenon Studios and feature a motion picture-TV player, Don Hagerty, who does quite well in his role as a doctor who decides to go into politics.

One of the films — which are part of AMPAC's "barnstormer" political education course—is tailored for the busy physician who cannot find the time to go out into the precinct. The script tells him, in effect, that the precincts actually come to him each day in the form of patients.

AMPAC's strategists, who believe their physicians are a part of the opinion - making circles of each community, have titled this movie "How the Opinion Maker Makes Opinion in Politics."

The movie doctor is told how to win friends from the moment he leaves his home — as he passes the postman, talks to the elevator man in his professional building, walks by the reception nurse in the local hospital, encounters other doctors or technicians and talks privately with his patients.

IN THE LATTER scenes, the "doctor" talks a little politics with each patient if he feels there is empathy with "the cause" — which is opposition to the King-Anderson social security "medicare" bill. The movie doctor asks a patient: "Incidently are you registered?" Or he says: "Incidentally, I don't know who you have in mind for Congress, but. . ."

There is another movie, "How to Stand Up and Not Be Counted," which is described as a film about the right and wrong ways to go into a campaign as a political novice. It explains how to raise funds and how to become a volunteer member on candidates' committees.

There are other films, but they are mostly slides and animated material. AMPAC leaders in all the 50 states and the District of Columbia feel they are effective and have used them at meetings and regional workshop sessions such as this past one here. Another conference is set for Denver. Two have already been held, in Atlanta and New York.

THOUGH THERE has been little publicity, AMPAC has been active for several years. And it claims successes, too. Typical of its activity was the doctors' campaign in Tennessee's third congressional district in '62. There AMPAC backed the conservative incumbent Democrat in a primary election. He lost. So the physicians bolted the Democrats and supported William E. Brock III in the regular fall elections. He won.

AMPAC leaders point to this election as characteristic of their non-partisanship. Their criterion is a conservative approach to medical legislation and opposition to the President's "medicare" bill.

Though President Johnson has just begun putting on the pressure for passage of the "medicare" bill, AMPAC will not swing into the presidential election.

Opposition as an organization to Mr. Johnson would compromise their non-partisan status, the doctors say. Instead, they will have enough political machinery to concentrate on at least 100 campaigns — for House seats. They say they don't have the funds to get into senatorial races.

THEY WILL NOT get behind any candidate, regardless of how much he pledges to fight "medicare" if he has no chance to win or if he obviously will win by a large margin. The doctors want to concentrate on marginal districts where they have a good chance to elect friends or at least to defeat a "medicare" champion.

Thus they believe that by working hard and professionally to deliver on the ballot line for their legislative friends, they will never have to hit the picket line.

Questions Unanswered

By David Lawrence

Demonstrators' Limits Never Defined

What's the difference between a stall-in and a sit-in? Did the New York City police violate "the law of the land"—as proclaimed by the Supreme Court of the United States —when demonstrators were arrested in and around the New York World's Fair?

David Lawrence

These questions reflect the confusion that exists in the United States today as to what are the true limits of street demonstrations and just how far the exercise of the right of petition may go before it becomes a vehicle of violence.

No matter whether one approves or disapproves of these demonstrations, the point has been dinned into the ears of many Americans that what the Supreme Court says is "the law of the land." Small wonder that the civil rights demonstrators decided on a stall-in as a mere supplement to the rights granted them in court cases in connection with sit-ins and marches.

The Supreme Court of the United States, for instance, on May 20, 1963, reversed the conviction of three Negroes and one white student who had been arrested for trespass when they refused to leave a lunch counter of a store in New Orleans.

THERE WAS no ordinance requiring segregation, but the mayor had issued a statement previously in which he said that "the community interest, the public safety and the economic welfare of this city require that such demonstrations cease and that henceforth they be prohibited by the police department."

Speaking for the Supreme Court, Chief Justice Warren concluded that this statement by a city official was state action and thus constituted denial of equal protection.

The arrest of the sit-in demonstrators was, therefore, held to be unconstitutional. Justice Douglas, in a concurring opinion, insisted that a restaurant "has no aura of constitutionally protected privacy about it." Certainly the same can be said about the World's Fair Pavilions.

In another case, decided on Feb. 25, 1963, the Supreme Court reversed the conviction of 187 Negro students involved in a march around the state house police had permitted the demonstration to go on for about 45 minutes and made the arrests for breach of the peace only after the students refused to obey an order to disperse when a crowd had gathered in the area and traffic was being impeded.

THE SUPREME COURT, by an 8-1 vote, held that this violated constitutional guarantees of free speech, free assembly and freedom to petition.

Demonstrators thus have been encouraged to block entrances and collect crowds that disrupt traffic—if only to gain notoriety or publicity for their cause. The right of any citizen to drive his automobile and stall it on a public highway is regarded by some Negro leaders as comparable to the court-approved right of sit-in demonstrators to block entrances to buildings.

Strictly speaking, the police should be able to arrest persons either for a breach of the peace or for performing acts which threaten a breach of the peace. The Supreme Court has declared otherwise, and the supporters of the stall-in idea have every right to invoke the existing Supreme Court decisions in defense of their demonstrations in New York City.

IT IS TRUE that the New York State Court issued an order enjoining the stall-in demonstration. The mere existence of an injunction, however, is not sacred in the eyes of the Supreme Court if the person who violates it claims his objective is to obtain constitutional rights.

This is an extreme interpretation but the Supreme Court has made it. It now remains valid, either reversed by the court itself or by a constitutional amendment.

Two of the demonstrators at the New York Fair on Wednesday—James Farmer, national director of the Congress of Racial Equality and Bayard Rustin, who was deputy director of the March on Washington last August—engaged in a sit-in that blocked entrances to the New York City Pavilion, and were arrested. They arrived at the fair with many followers, and one of the leaders said: "I came here to court arrest."

Now, ordinarily individuals would not take these chances but they have been supported by recent Supreme Court decisions and by the voices of approval which have been raised in many quarters to the idea of demonstrations.

THUS, FOR EXAMPLE, in the March on Washington there was a disruption of traffic and a heavy financial loss to merchants in the city of Washington and to the city government but the "march" nevertheless was applauded not only by much of the press but in speeches in Congress and elsewhere.

Many workers were afraid to go to the center of the city and a good many citizens refrained from going to their jobs, preferring to take no chances on entering the downtown area.

The danger of any demonstration involving hundreds of persons is one that poses a bewildering legal problem for the police. Shall they deal with a threatened demonstration and get a court order as a preventive, or must they wait until law and order have actually been disurpted and somebody has been hurt?

The Supreme Court, for the time being at least, has decided things must reach the point of violence before the police can intervene.

Vagabond Time Is Here

By Barney Laschever

It being that time of year when winter weather has abated and daffodils raise their yellow heads, it is fair to ask, "Why leave home now?"

The question needs no pondering. If the weather is improving here at home, it's magnificent at most southern resorts and on little rain—and no danger at all of a cold snap.

Spring bursts into full bloom in Europe too, and visitors to the Continent at this time of the year will find most cities bright with garlands of flower beds.

Summer heat has not yet arrived, nor has the horde of tourists.

And forecasts show plainly that a horde indeed is expected.

American Express predicts that 1.25 million Americans are expected to visit Europe this year, an increase of 15 per cent over the record set in 1963 when for the first time more than a million U.S. citizens crossed the Atlantic.

Soothsayers at the AAA, the driving man's friend, say that at least 375,000 Americans will "get behind the wheel of an automobile this year during their vacations in Europe."

Highways are better this year in Europe. Switzerland opened up the long-awaited St. Bernard highway tunnel connecting Martigny and Aosta, Italy. Austria opened the Europa Bridge, tallest in the world, south of Innsbruck.

Bad news comes from France. One-time gasoline coupons worth a 21 per cent discount for foreign tourists no longer are available.

Here at home, the statistics are even more impressive. Last year some 107.65 million Americans took a holiday or business trip within the borders of this country, an increase of 3.41 per cent over 1962, according to a survey by William Patterson in ASTA Travel News.

Simple arithmetic shows that what looks like an enormous little more than half the population of the country. Says Mr. Patterson: "It is estimated that 81.2 million Americans took no trip of any kind during 1963, domestic or foreign."

The travel industry clearly has its work cut out. President Johnson, mindful of the so-called travel dollar gap, would like to see a substantial number of the stay-at-homers take to the road—any American road.

But countering this is the dramatic impact of worldwide progress toward lower air fares, which is certain to attract thousands to take air trips.

Whatever the reason, lower air fares, dependable weather, a wider choice of accommodations at reduced between - season rates, or house and garden tours, now is as good a time as any to take a vacation.

The Expendable Candidates

Trying to pick a winner in the Republican presidential sweepstake is as hazardous as picking one in the National League. Everybody has his own basis of selection, depending on circumstances as he sees them.

One way of choosing to see them has special bearing on the guessing game. The break of the game that could upset every prediction now in circulation concerns not Republican contenders but the Democratic contender.

As long as Lyndon B. Johnson keeps running at the pace he has been able to sustain and quicken since he became president in the nation's long afternoon of grief last Nov. 22, the Republican presidential nomination will be a formal honor.

The nominee will be performing an important function within the two-party system — heading the opposition in a national election.

THE POSSIBILITY he might beat Mr. Johnson will be as remote as the possibility that Adlai E. Stevenson might have beaten Dwight D. Eisenhower in 1952 and 1956, barring an upset or a disaster.

Defeat will not be referred to openly, just as it never is referred to openly when the old school is playing football against an odds-on favorite. But the fact is now and will continue to be that a drastic change in circumstances would be required to turn the odds against President Johnson this year.

If Republican leaders think Mr. Johnson can't be licked, they will nominate a candidate they can count on to do credit to them in defeat — an expendable willing to be expended in good grace.

BUT IF THEY think the President is losing favor and can be taken in the 1964 election, they will give the Republican nomination to the candidate they can do the most credit to them in victory. And it goes without saying they will nominate the candidate strong enough to command the most support at the polls.

So — divide all GOP contenders into two groups — expendables and unexpendables —and rank them in their proper order in thse two categories. It makes the guessing game more fun. It weeds out the contenders with no chance.

Some Glowing Expectations

Joel H. Hunter's outlook for the rest of 1964 at Crucible Steel Co. is encouraging for the concern's employes and investors, along with the rest of the Tri-State Area whose economy is based on steel and pottery.

"Prospects for the latter portion of the year look better than last year," the Crucible president said this week, having told shareholders of increased profits for the first quarter.

National Steel Corp. also gave out news of boosted income, record sales and bright expectations.

Across the nation, steelmakers have indicated belief the second quarter shipments of metal will likely top the first quarter by 4 to 8 per cent.

One of the big clouds on the industry front was the threat of a railroad strike—dissipated this week by the agreement at Washington. The other is the possibility of a labor dispute in the auto industry later in the summer.

Meanwhile, the hot metal continues to flow at Midland and Weirton with a warm and promising glow.

Ample Warning

West Virginia is chalking up a lamentably sad toll of highway deaths for the first part of the year—132 victims so far, compared to 89 this time in 1963.

Carelessness, whether in West Virginia, Ohio or any state, is inevitably the answer, and lies behind the many and varied causes attributed to accidents—speed, road conditions, mechanical failure, momentary distraction, and so on.

The big increase in road fatalities in the Mountain State does point up, however, the real need for motorists and government officials to embark on a program of safety through education, by enforcement and with improved roads.

A 48 per cent increase in death should be an ample warning.

Bridge Out Ahead

It is tempting to think a standoff between railroad management and labor was dissolved by the strike settlement reached Wednesday. But there still is a bridge out ahead, and no one knows what can be done about it.

The strike settlement Wednesday merely settled secondary issues on which four unions struck the Illinois Central April 8. Friction flared immediately into the threat of a national strike by Saturday. This threat has been removed.

But the most troublesome issue has not been touched.

Railroads still do not know if unions and the federal government will let them trim their payrolls and control of their operating costs, like other parts of the transportation industry.

The United States gives routine lip service to free enterprise but still has not determined whether railroads must operate in perpetuity under regulations framed to control them when they were a transportation monopoly.

Everything about transportation has changed since then, except the dead hand of federal control on railroads. Passenger ways have been heavily subsidized by the federal government. So have railroads, but in another way — loans to keep them from succumbing to their subsidized competition.

We share President Johnson's enthusiasm about averting a railroad strike; it would have been a disaster for the railroads, the rail unions and all the rest of us. But no issue of substances has been settled. The bridge is still out ahead.

It still hasn't been settle whether railroads should be allowed to go it alone as free enterprise, or hobbled with restrictions and taxes until they succumb to federal ownership and operation as the only way to survive.

Deplorable!

By Truman Twill

Every time someone urges me and the rest of this country to get back to the old-fashioned virtues before the country goes to hell in a basket, I sigh and start to count to 1,000 by small fractions.

It is possible the country is going to hell in a basket. The point is debatable. In the long pull, all countries end up that way; at least, they've ended up that way so far.

It is not the judgment of where we are going that tests my composure but the notion that we can get back to something behind us, provided we really are picking up momentum on a downhill slope. The physics of this proposition affronts my sense of mechanics.

WE CANNOT ARREST social momentum any more than we can turn back time.

Most of what seems to alarmists to be social degredation, I believe is nothing more serious than changing fashions.

We do not invent new sins nor develop new virtues. We just put new names and gimmicks on standard varieties.

It is arrogant to believe men are bright enough to make material changes in their environment. I suspect they're not even bright enough to blow up the world, though I acknowledge they might be stupid enough to let nostalgic megalomaniacs try it.

In any event, once the conviction has jelled that things aren't the way they used to be and therefore must be a lot worse, what can anyone do about it?

Yapping about it is as foolish as threatening to repeal the law of gravity while falling through the air. Why should anyone waste time listening to such people?

All they are doing in many cases is singing for their supper at the table of someone who deplores the passing of time and begrudges a new generation its inalienable right to make its own mistakes. They can be forgiven for that. They even can be given the benefit of the doubt and classified as Sincere Types, though I question this.

I HAPPEN to be a deplorer, myself. But what I deplore is not the way the world keeps changing but the way I keep changing in relation to the world. It's like being in a train standing still while the train on the next track is moving.

In other words, I do not deplore the passage of time, the law of gravity, or the fact that change is the one thing that never changes. What I deplore is the way my own position keeps skittering about in relation to eternal verities.

I want to reach out with a sky hook and arrest my descent into the abyss. I want to make time stand still while I attend to some items of personal business that have been neglected. In small, personal ways, I screech and squawk, too.

But I am not aware of any surpassing virtue in the old-fashioned virtues, whatever they were. I think things were never better and the people who yap to the contray need to look at themselves, not at society.

This 'n That

The United States, comprising 6.7 per cent of the world's area and 6.4 per cent of the world's population, now has 43.5 per cent of all the trucks and 65.4 per cent of all the passenger automobiles in the world. By comparison, there is one motor vehicle for every 2.5 persons in the U.S. as against a ratio of one motor vehicle for every four persons in Australia, 21 in Europe, 50 in South America, 100 in Africa, and 516 in Asia.

The first official American flag, the Continental or Grand Union flag, was displayed on Prospect Hill on January 1, 1776, in the American lines besieging Boston. It had 13 alternate red and white stripes, with the British Union Jack in the upper left corner.

Doctors Getting Into Politics

By Victor Riesel

There never will be a doctors' strike in the U.S. That's the word from many of the nation's most active physicians—125 of whom were gathered at Chicago's Sheraton hotel. The Belgian boycott was the conversation piece at their unusual conference, which was political not medical.

Victor Riesel

These professional men had come from many cities at the call of their newest society, the American Medical Political Action Committee (AMPAC). They met to learn precinct politics from specialists. The doctors of the land appear not to have the slightest intention of idly waiting for American laws to develop in the image of Belgian and British medical legislation.

AMPAC specialists, who operate out of their national headquarters at 520 N. Michigan ave, Chicago, have doctors' political action rolling in high gear. Their vote getting machine is equipped with everything from prize winning motion pictures to a bulletin called Political Stethoscope.

THESE MOVIES are professional. They're produced in Hollywood at Parthenon Studios and feature a motion picture-TV player, Don Hagerty, who does quite well in his role as a doctor who decides to go into politics.

One of the films — which are part of AMPAC's "barnstormer" political education course—is tailored for the busy physician who cannot find the time to go out into the precinct. The script tells him, in effect, that the precincts actually come to him each day in the form of patients.

AMPAC's strategists, who believe their physicians are a part of the opinion - making circles of each community, have titled this movie "How the Opinion Maker Makes Opinion in Politics."

The movie doctor is told how to win friends from the moment he leaves his home — as he passes the postman, talks to the elevator man in his professional building, walks by the reception nurse in the local hospital, encounters other doctors or technicians and talks privately with his patients.

IN THE LATTER scenes, the "doctor" talks a little politics with each patient if he feels there is empathy with "the cause" — which is opposition to the King-Anderson social security "medicare" bill. The movie doctor asks a patient: "Incidently are you registered?" Or he says: "Incidentally, I don't know who you have in mind for Congress, but. . ."

There is another movie, "How to Stand Up and Not Be Counted," which is described as a film about the right and wrong ways to go into a campaign as a political novice. It explains how to raise funds and how to become a volunteer member on candidates' committees.

There are other films, but they are mostly slides and animated material. AMPAC leaders in all the 50 states and the District of Columbia feel they are effective and have used them at meetings and regional workshop sessions such as this past one here. Another conference is set for Denver. Two have already been held, in Atlanta and New York.

THOUGH THERE has been little publicity, AMPAC has been active for several years. And it claims successes, too. Typical of its activity was the doctors' campaign in Tennessee's third congressional district in '62. There AMPAC backed the conservative incumbent Democrat in a primary election. He lost. So the physicians bolted the Democrats and supported William E. Brock III in the regular fall elections. He won.

AMPAC leaders point to this election as characteristic of their non-partisanship. Their criterion is a conservative approach to medical legislation and opposition to the President's "medicare" bill.

Though President Johnson has just begun putting on the pressure for passage of the "medicare" bill, AMPAC will not swing into the presidential election.

Opposition as an organization to Mr. Johnson would compromise their non-partisan status, the doctors say. Instead, they will have enough political machinery to concentrate on at least 100 campaigns — for House seats. They say they don't have the funds to get into senatorial races.

THEY WILL NOT get behind any candidate, regardless of how much he pledges to fight "medicare" if he has no chance to win or if he obviously will win by a large margin. The doctors want to concentrate on marginal districts where they have a good chance to elect friends or at least to defeat a "medicare" champion.

Thus they believe that by working hard and professionally to deliver on the ballot line for their legislative friends, they will never have to hit the picket line.

Odd Facts

The first air raid recorded in history was in 1849 when the Austrians sent balloons over the city of Venice during the Italian uprisings. Each balloon carried a 30-pound bomb. Some bombs fell in the city, but the changing wind blew several back over the Austrian lines where they exploded.

Since the National Basketball Association was established in 1946, the Boston Celtics have won the playoffs six times — in 1957, 1959, 1960, 1961, 1962, and 1963. Second in this respect were the former Minneapolis Lakers, who were playoff champions five times.

Questions Unanswered

Demonstrators' Limits Never Defined

What's the difference between a stall-in and a sit-in? Did the New York City police violate "the law of the land"—as proclaimed by the Supreme Court of the United States —when demonstrators were arrested in and around the New York World's Fair?

David Lawrence

These questions reflect the confusion that exists in the United States today as to what are the true limits of street demonstrations and just how far the exercise of the right of petition may go before it becomes a vehicle of violence.

No matter whether one approves or disapproves of these demonstrations, the point has been dinned into the ears of many Americans that what the Supreme Court says is "the law of the land." Small wonder that the civil rights demonstrators decided on a stall-in as a mere supplement to the rights granted them in court cases in connection with sit-ins and marches.

The Supreme Court of the United States, for instance, on May 20, 1963, reversed the conviction of three Negroes and one white student who had been arrested for trespass when they refused to leave a lunch counter of a store in New Orleans.

THERE WAS no ordinance requiring segregation, but the mayor had issued a statement previously in which he said that "the community interest, the public safety and the economic welfare of this city require that such demonstrations cease and that henceforth they be prohibited by the police department."

Speaking for the Supreme Court, Chief Justice Warren concluded that this statement by a city official was state action and thus constituted denial of equal protection.

The arrest of the sit-in demonstrators was, therefore, held to be unconstitutional. Justice Douglas, in a concurring opinion, insisted that a restaurant "has no aura of constitutionally protected privacy about it." Certainly the same can be said about the World's Fair Pavilions.

In another case, decided on Feb. 25, 1963, the Supreme Court reversed the conviction of 187 Negro students involved in a march around the state house police had permitted the demonstration to go on for about 45 minutes and made the arrests for breach of the peace only after the students refused to obey an order to disperse when a crowd had gathered in the area and traffic was being impeded.

THE SUPREME COURT, by an 8-1 vote, held that this violated constitutional guarantees of free speech, free assembly and freedom to petition.

Demonstrators thus have been encouraged to block entrances and collect crowds that disrupt traffic—if only to gain notoriety or publicity for their cause. The right of any citizen to drive his automobile and stall it on a public highway is regarded by some Negro leaders as comparable to the court-approved right of sit-in demonstrators to block entrances to buildings.

Strictly speaking, the police should be able to arrest persons either for a breach of the peace or for performing acts which threaten a breach of the peace. The Supreme Court has declared otherwise, and the supporters of the stall-in idea have every right to invoke the existing Supreme Court decisions in defense of their demonstrations in New York City.

IT IS TRUE that the New York State Court issued an order enjoining the stall-in demonstration. The mere existence of an injunction, however, is not sacred in the eyes of the Supreme Court if the person who violates it claims his objective is to obtain constitutional rights.

This is an extreme interpretation but the Supreme Court has made it. It now remains valid, either reversed by the court itself or by a constitutional amendment.

Two of the demonstrators at the New York Fair on Wednesday—James Farmer, national director of the Congress of Racial Equality and Bayard Rustin, who was deputy director of the March on Washington last August—engaged in a sit-in that blocked entrances to the New York City Pavilion, and were arrested. They arrived at the fair with many followers, and one of the leaders said: "I came here to court arrest."

Now, ordinarily individuals would not take these chances but they have been supported by recent Supreme Court decisions and by the voices of approval which have been raised in many quarters to the idea of demonstrations.

THUS, FOR EXAMPLE, in the March on Washington there was a disruption of traffic and a heavy financial loss to merchants in the city of Washington and to the city government but the "march" nevertheless was applauded not only by much of the press but in speeches in Congress and elsewhere.

Many workers were afraid to go to the center of the city and a good many citizens refrained from going to their jobs, preferring to take no chances on entering the downtown area.

The danger of any demonstration involving hundreds of persons is one that poses a bewildering legal problem for the police. Shall they deal with a threatened demonstration and get a court order as a preventive, or must they wait until law and order have actually been disurpted and somebody has been hurt?

The Supreme Court, for the time being at least, has decided things must reach the point of violence before the police can intervene.

Vagabond Time Is Here

By Barney Laschever

It being that time of year when winter weather has abated and daffodils raise their yellow heads, it is fair to ask, "Why leave home now?"

For Civilian Purposes

Closed A-Plants Loom As Big Electric Facilities

WASHINGTON (AP) — Nuclear explosives plants shut down by President Johnson's cutback in plutonium production may be converted into huge civilian electric power plants.

The Atomic Energy Commission considers the conversion to be technically feasible and has invited utility firms to undertake studies, at their own expense, of the economic and engineering problems involved.

Two reactors soon to be withdrawn from producing plutonium — one at AEC's Hanford, Wash., installation and the other at Savannah River, S.C. — have been offered for commercial power generation.

An AEC official said the two have the capability of delivering "many hundreds of megawatts" of electric power — that is, many hundreds of millions of watts — if the shift to peaceful use can be carried through.

This would suggest a capacity larger than any of the 13 nuclear plants now producing commercial power.

At Savannah River, one group of 11 Southern utility companies has signed an agreement with AEC to invest $300,000 to $400,000 in studying the feasibility of taking over the heavy - water type reactor scheduled to be shut down about July 1.

Two other groups have indicated interest in this reactor, one of them representing a number of rural electrical co-ops.

The AEC has invited private and public utilities in the Pacific Northwest to undertake similar feasibility studies at the Hanford Center, looking to the possible conversion and operation of one of the three plutonium - producing reactors being discontinued there.

Some utility groups have expressed interest informally in this reactor, an AEC spokesman said, but none has yet committed itself to undertake a feasibility study.

The AEC is particularly anxious to encourage private ventures at Hanford, because curtailment of AEC activities there is expected to reduce employment in the surrounding tri-city area of Richland, Pasco and Kennewick, Wash.

Plan Sparks Civil Rights Bill Hopes

WASHINGTON (AP) — A leadership-sponsored jury trial amendment to the civil rights bill sparked hopes today of cracking the Senate's impasse over the measure.

Sens. Mike Mansfield and Everett M. Dirksen, the Democratic and Republican leaders, prepared to introduce the amendment as the Senate debate entered its 39th day.

They planned to present it as a substitute for one offered earlier by Sen. Herman Talmadge, D-Ga., acting for Southern foes of the legislation.

The efforts to resolve the jury trial issue were only part of the moves afoot to work out compromises and get the civil rights bill off dead center.

But growing signs of optimism were evident, and were noted by the bipartisan floor managers for the bill—Sens. Hubert H. Humphrey, D-Minn., and Thomas H. Kuchel, R-Calif.

While details were not disclosed in advance, indications were that the Mansfield-Dirksen proposal would be along the lines of a compromise provision that helped win passage of the 1957 Civil Rights Act.

Closed A-Plants Loom As Big Electric Facilities

WASHINGTON (AP) — Nuclear explosives plants shut down by President Johnson's cutback in plutonium production may be converted into huge civilian electric power plants.

The Atomic Energy Commission considers the conversion to be technically feasible and has invited utility firms to undertake studies, at their own expense, of the economic and engineering problems involved.

Two reactors soon to be withdrawn from producing plutonium — one at AEC's Hanford, Wash., installation and the other at Savannah River, S.C. — have been offered for commercial power generation.

An AEC official said the two have the capability of delivering "many hundreds of megawatts" of electric power — that is, many hundreds of millions of watts — if the shift to peaceful use can be carried through.

This would suggest a capacity larger than any of the 13 nuclear plants now producing commercial power.

At Savannah River, one group of 11 Southern utility companies has signed an agreement with AEC to invest $300,000 to $400,000 in studying the feasibility of taking over the heavy - water type reactor scheduled to be shut down about July 1.

Two other groups have indicated interest in this reactor, one of them representing a number of rural electrical co-ops.

The AEC has invited private and public utilities in the Pacific Northwest to undertake similar feasibility studies at the Hanford Center, looking to the possible conversion and operation of one of the three plutonium - producing reactors being discontinued there.

Some utility groups have expressed interest informally in this reactor, an AEC spokesman said, but none has yet committed itself to undertake a feasibility study.

The AEC is particularly anxious to encourage private ventures at Hanford, because curtailment of AEC activities there is expected to reduce employment in the surrounding tri-city area of Richland, Pasco and Kennewick, Wash.

Plan Sparks Civil Rights Bill Hopes

WASHINGTON (AP) — A leadership-sponsored jury trial amendment to the civil rights bill sparked hopes today of cracking the Senate's impasse over the measure.

Sens. Mike Mansfield and Everett M. Dirksen, the Democratic and Republican leaders, prepared to introduce the amendment as the Senate debate entered its 39th day.

They planned to present it as a substitute for one offered earlier by Sen. Herman Talmadge, D-Ga., acting for Southern foes of the legislation.

The efforts to resolve the jury trial issue were only part of the moves afoot to work out compromises and get the civil rights bill off dead center.

But growing signs of optimism were evident, and were noted by the bipartisan floor managers for the bill—Sens. Hubert H. Humphrey, D-Minn., and Thomas H. Kuchel, R-Calif.

While details were not disclosed in advance, indications were that the Mansfield-Dirksen proposal would be along the lines of a compromise provision that helped win passage of the 1957 Civil Rights Act.

2 Killed In Crash

LORAIN, Ohio (AP) — Two cars collided headon near the Thear-in-the-Round in Amherst, killing two Lorain women and critically injuring a third woman. Killed in the accident Thursday were Mrs. William C. Colbert, 36, driver of one car, and her passenger, Mrs. John N. House, 43. Mrs. Anna Hanes, 24, of Amherst, driver of the other car, was in St. Joseph's Hospital with a compound skull fracture.

Deaths and Funerals

Former City Minister Dies

The Rev. Andrew I. Keener, 84, a former pastor of the Emmanuel Presbyterian Church, died Thursday at 2:30 p. m. at the Thornton Home in Newburgh, Ind., after a long illness.

He served as pastor here from January 1943 to October 1945 when he retired from the ministry. He and his wife, Mrs. Ruth Keener, then moved to Brevard, N.C. His wife died in 1955.

He received his bachelor of arts degree from Washington & Jefferson College and his divinity degree from the Pittsburgh Theological Seminary. Following study in Germany, he received the doctor of philosophy degree. Before coming to East Liverpool, he served as pastor and missionary at San Juan, Puerto Rico.

He leaves no immediate survivors.

Services will be held this afternoon at 3 at the East Side Chapel of the Alexander Funeral Home at Evansville, Ind.

Burial will be Monday morning at the Slate Lick Cemetery in Kittanning, Pa. Parishioners who desire to attend the burial services are to contact the Rev. Russell Mase for transportation.

Midland Man Dies While In Parked Car

Stricken while seated in his auto on Broadway in front of the Post Office, Gail Johnson of 5 Carnegie Dr., Midland, was pronounced dead on arrival Thursday at 11:38 a. m. at City Hospital. He was 66.

Police were notified by Postmaster Samuel W. Brown, who said a man who was either asleep or dead was seated in a car at Broadway and E. 5th St.

Patrolmen Jerry Adkins, Charles A. Winters and Orin C. Smith found Mr. Johnson seated behind the wheel of his car, apparently dead. They advised Dr. Roy C. Costello, deputy corner, who authorized an ambulance to remove Mr. Johnson to the hospital.

Mr. Johnson was born April 17, 1898, in Tyler County, W. Va. He lived in East Liverpool for many years before moving to Midland five years ago to reside with his sister, Mrs. Faye Shannon. He retired in 1959 from the open hearth department of the Midland Works of the Crucible Steel Co., where he worked as a craneman for 37 years.

In addition to his sister, he leaves a son, G. Robert Johnson of East Liverpool; a daughter, Miss Regina Johnson of Norfolk, Va.; a brother, John L. Johnson of East Liverpool; a half-brother, T. O. Johnson of Sistersville; two half - sisters, Mrs. Vashta Wells of Lawrenceville, Ill., and Mrs. Mary Cummings of Waynesburg, W. Va., and three grandchildren.

Services will be held Monday at 2:30 p. m. at the Cannon Funeral Home in Midland by the Rev. Edward J. Phinn, pastor of the Grace United Presbyterian Church in East End. Burial will be in Columbiana County Memorial Park.

Friends may call at the funeral home after 2 p. m. Saturday.

Mrs. G. P. Hanlin

Mrs. Zillah M. Hanlin, 72, of Hookstown R. D. 1, wife of George P. Hanlin, died Wednesday at 8:35 p.m. at Aliquippa Hospital, after an illness of several months.

She was born in Hanover Township, Washington County, Pa., Oct. 11, 1891, and was a member of the Tucker Methodist Church of Burgettstown R. D. 1.

In addition to her husband, she leaves a daughter, Mrs. Mary Louise Moore of Aliquippa; a son, Clair Hanlin at home; three sisters, Mrs. Laura McCombs of Burgettstown R.D. 1, Mrs. Lois Elder of New Cumberland R.D. and Miss Myra McCracken of Weirton; four brothers, J. R. McCracken, of Walker, W. Va., W. J. McCracken of Midway, Pa., and R. K. McCracken and Ralph McCracken, both of Burgettstown R.D., and a granddaughter.

Services will be held Sunday at 2 p.m. at the church by the Rev. Ralph Ryan. Burial will be in Chestnut Ridge Cemetery, Burgettstown R.D.

Friends may call at the Welch Funeral Home in Hookstown after 7 tonight and Saturday after 4 p.m.

Mrs. Helen Spangler

Mrs. Helen M. Spangler, 563 Virginia Ave., Chester, widow of Wilbur Spangler, died Thursday at 5:30 p.m. at City Hospital after a brief illness. She was 61.

Mrs. Spangler was born in East Liverpool May 16, 1902, the daughter of Mrs. Ethel McDonald Worcester, who resides in Wellsville, and the late George Worcester. She resided in Chester for 44 years. Her husband died Dec. 2, 1962.

Besides her mother, she leaves a son, Paul G. Spangler of East Liverpool; a daughter, Mrs. William (Kathryn) DeBee of Chester; a brother, Thomas Worcester of East Liverpool and three grandchildren.

Services will be held Monday at 10:30 a.m. at the Chester Arner Funeral Chapel by the Rev. Donald Vogel, pastor of the First United Presbyterian Church. Burial will be in Columbiana County Memorial Park.

Friends may call at the chapel Saturday and Sunday.

Robert Taylor

EAST PALESTINE — Robert L. Taylor, 57, of Park Forest, Ill., a former city resident, died this morning at 1:10 at Salem City Hospital where he was admitted Tuesday.

A resident of the city until five years ago, he had been a department manager for the Goldblatt Brothers Store in Park Forest.

Born here Oct. 11, 1906, he was a son of David Taylor and Carrie Miller Taylor.

He was a member of the Faith United Presbyterian Church of Park Forest and Masonic Lodge 417 of East Palestine, of which he was a past master.

He was married in 1954 to the former Ila Wilson Patton of East Palestine who survives, along with a daughter, Mrs. Lois DeRhodes of Poland R.D.; a step-son, Richard E. Patton of Carrollton; a brother, Paul Taylor of East Palestine, and three grandchildren.

Services will be held Monday afternoon at 1:30 at the Van-Dyke Funeral Home by the Rev. Chalmers Goshorn of the Trinity United Presbyterian Church. Burial will be in Glenview Cemetery.

Friends may call Sunday at the funeral home.

Midland NAACP Sets Banquet For May 23

Plans were completed for a banquet May 23 at the meeting of the Midland branch of the NAACP Thursday night at the Steelworkers Hall.

The Rev. Edward J. Adam of New York will be the principal speaker for the banquet in the union hall.

Mrs. Mary T. Wilson heads the general committee.

A picnic will be held June 13 with Bryant Perkins in charge.

The Rev. W. L. Harris, vice president, presided. Next meeting will be May 26.

Road Repair Project Set

LISBON — Columbiana County commissioners approved the summer road repair program at the meeting Thursday at the courthouse.

Engineer Charles Snyder estimated the cost at $254,574 for county and township roads. Bids for the materials will be opened at the meeting May 14.

In other business, they selected Sunday, May 3, from 2 to 7 p.m. for open house at the County Home. The first floor of women's dormitory, with a 13-bed capacity, will be completely redecorated and open for inspection.

Commissioners approved the "Coach Manor" plant of Charles K. Coleman's First Addition in Section 36 of Liverpool Township. It consists of seven lots of 6.13 acres with roads 0.73 acre set aside for roads for a total of 6.86 acres.

A letter will be forwarded by the commissioners protesting the proposed closing of the Erie-Lackawana Railroad Station here.

Sara Temple, 117 Jerome St., was appointed cook at the Retarded Children's School in Elkton, subject to hiring by Robert Bycroft, superintendent.

Travel allowance was approved for James Miller of Salineville, county juvenile probation officer, to take a youth to the Ohio Youth Commission's Clinic in Columbus Wednesday. Miller will also appear before the State Liquor Board as a witness Thursday.

A $300 slag grant was approved for Knox Township. Next meeting is Monday from 10 a.m to 4 p.m.

Doctor Speaker For Plant Nurses

Dr. Robert Rinderknecht of Dover was guest speaker for the dinner meeting of the Tri-State Industrial Nurses Association Tuesday night at the Dutch Oven Restaurant in New Philadelphia. There were 23 members and six guests present.

He used an almost life-size doll to demonstrate external cardiac massage. Miss Joyce Klamut demonstrated mouth - to - mouth resusciation. Following demonstrations, members practiced the procedures. A film, "Myocardial Infarction — the Nurses' Role," was screened.

Mrs. Oliver Johnson, president, announced 19 members attended the American Association of Industrial Nurses Conference last week at the Hilton Hotel in Pittsburgh.

A tour of the Titanium Metals Corp. will follow the next dinner session May 19 at Toronto Lanes, Toronto.

Youth Faces Federal Charge In Auto Theft

Pvt. William Archie Shingleton, 21, of Millry, Ala., arrested in Chester Monday night as a suspect in a car theft case, was removed from Hancock County Jail Thursday and taken to Wheeling to face a federal charge of interstate transportation of a stolen vehicle.

Deputies turned over the AWOL Marine to a U. S. marshal from federal court. Marine Corps officials have also placed a detainer against the serviceman.

Pvt. Shingleton was sentenced to 10 days in the County Jail and fined $25 by Chester Mayor Harry Abrams on charges of driving a car with expired plates and lack of a registration card. He was taken into custody by Deputy Rex Cowey of the sheriff's office and Patrolman Clifford Bebout.

He is alleged to have stolen a car in Silver Hills, Md., on Sunday night, driving across state lines to Chester.

Customers In Poll Laud World's Fair

NEW YORK (AP)—The New York World's Fair, making a spectacular recovery from opening-day bad weather and civil rights clamor, has earned the endorsement of the most important of all critics, the customer.

The exposition was lauded by some two dozen persons polled at random Thursday on the fairgrounds.

Attendance climbed from Wednesday's opening-day 92,696 to 163,252 Thursday. The relatively low attendance Wednesday was attributed to civil rights demonstrations, which had been announced in advance, and to the chill rain.

More than 300 persons were arrested for demonstrating in or around the 646-acre fair site in Flushing Meadow Park.

Many of the patrons polled Thursday spoke of the educational value of the dozens of government and industrial pavilions.

"There are many worthwhile exhibitions," said Dante Ger-

The New York State Pavilion was dedicated by Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller. Also dedicated and formally opened Thursday were the Korean Pavilion and the Jordanian Pavilion, where King Hussein of Jordan officiated.

A small army of workmen continued construction of several pavilions and other buildings.

Planning Unit's Activities Aired At Kiwanis Club

Operations of the recently - organized Columbiana County Regional Planning Commission were outlined by Allen Dalrymple, member, at a meeting of the Kiwanis Club Thursday at the Travelers Hotel.

Dalrymple, of Wellsville, said the commission, through a number of volunteer committees throughout the county, is currently gathering statistics, data and other information in order to compile an overall picture of economic, cultural and physical aspects of the county and its communities.

Once the survey is complete, the commission will attempt a study of the information and, with the co-operation of participating subdivisions, submit recommendations for planning and development.

He pointed out the commission is an advisory body, and that the cities and townships co-operating will act on their own concerning this planning.

Dalrymple was introduced by James Walker.

Horse, Pony Training Session Held For 4-H

LISBON — Sixty 4-H Club members attended the second Columbiana County horse and pony training meeting Thursday night at St. George's Parish Hall, according to Robert Lewis, county extension agent in 4-H.

Dr. Russell Stryffeler, Columbiana veterinarian, discussed the common ailments of horses and ponies, along with feeding and care of a mare and the new-born colt.

Blaze Damages Shop In Palestine Pottery

EAST PALESTINE — Damage was estimated at $150 to the carpenter shop at the Royal China Co. pottery Plant 1 Thursday afternoon about 4.

Firemen said the flames were ignited by a hotplate used for coffee. Damage was primarily to the small motor, a radio and a cabinet. The hotplate was in a small hooded box which ignited.

88 Hear 'Grass Roots' Talks At Wellsville GOP Dinner

Eighty-eight persons heard three-minute talks by 18 candidates in the May 5 primary at a "grass roots" dinner of the combined Republican Clubs of Wellsville Thursday night at the Jaycee Hall.

Speaking were Frank Fluno on behalf of Rep. Robert Taft Jr., candidate for U. S. Senator; Allen Dalrymple of Wellsville, for 18th District Congressman; Henry C. Robinson and John A. Reddy, for judge of the Court of Appeals, Robert M. Bell 18th District state central committeeman.

Clarence L. Wetzel, for state representative from Columbiana County; Judge Joel H. Sharp for Common Pleas Court; Samuel Webber, Donald Elliott, Galen Greenisen, Walter Hunston, Robert P. Kelm and Wilbur Stratton, for county commissioner; Dean Rose, for clerk of courts; Russell J. VanFossan, for sheriff, Richard G. Brian, for recorder, Dale Miller, for treasurer, and Charles Snyder, for engineer.

The theme was "Victory In the Spring for the GOP." Candidates were introduced by William Shoub, Wellsville chairman. Guests were Atty. Charles Pike of Lisbon, county chairman, and Miss Gladys DeBolt of East Liverpool, county chairwoman. Mrs. Mary Clark of Wellsville presented the address of welcome, and the Rev. James D. Sanko gave the invocation.

Robert Beresford, president of the Young Republicans Club, and Mrs. Betty Rager introduced guests. Mrs. Genevieve Wolf was diningroom chairman, and in charge of membership were Mrs. Ruth Cooper, Mrs. Inez Carter, and Mrs. Billie Shoub.

Decorations followed a spring theme, with cherry trees and pink cloths predominating. There were gold elephants on each table.

Dog-Owners Get New Warning On Restraining Pets

Warden Donald Chapman today issued a new warning to all East Liverpool dog-owners that their pets must be confined or restrained on their property.

Dogs must be on a leash when taken off the owner's property, the warden added, citing a city ordinance which prohibits allowing a canine to run at large.

Chapman said he issued the warning in advance of a move to cite dog owners who permit their dogs to wander at large.

He said the warning also was prompted by the fact seven cases of dog bites were reported to him between 4:30 and 7 p. m. Thursday. He said he has located four of the dogs involved but the other three can not be found, as they apparently are strays.

120 At Meeting Held For Senior Citizens

About 129 attended a meeting of the Senior Citizens Group Thursday afternoon at Parish Hall of St. Stephen's Episcopal Church.

The Rev. John Clark, pastor of the First Methodist Church, gave a devotional talk on the theme, "Spring." The meeting opened with the Lord's Prayer and salute to the flag.

Business was conducted by Charles Pritchett, president. Lunch was served.

135 Get Immunization At Pre-School Clinics

LISBON — A total of 135 second round pre-school immunizations were given in the county this week, according to Mrs. Ruth Kauffman, county health nurse.

A breakdown shows 47 immunizations at Calcutta Monday, 28 at Knox Wednesday and 60 at Fairfield - Waterford Thursday. Make-up shots were being given at the Health Department office this afternoon.

Next week's schedule calls for second round pre-school immunizations at United Local on Tuesday and Lisbon on Thursday.

Former City Minister Dies

The Rev. Andrew I. Keener, 84, a former pastor of the Emmanuel Presbyterian Church, died Thursday at 2:30 p. m. at the Thornton Home in Newburgh, Ind., after a long illness.

He served as pastor here from January 1943 to October 1945 when he retired from the ministry. He and his wife, Mrs. Ruth Keener, then moved to Brevard, N.C. His wife died in 1955.

He received his bachelor of arts degree from Washington & Jefferson College and his divinity degree from the Pittsburgh Theological Seminary. Following study in Germany, he received the doctor of philosophy degree. Before coming to East Liverpool, he served as pastor and missionary at San Juan, Puerto Rico.

He leaves no immediate survivors.

Services will be held this afternoon at 3 at the East Side Chapel of the Alexander Funeral Home at Evansville, Ind.

Burial will be Monday morning at the Slate Lick Cemetery in Kittanning, Pa. Parishioners who desire to attend the burial services are to contact the Rev. Russell Mase for transportation.

Midland Man Dies While In Parked Car

Stricken while seated in his auto on Broadway in front of the Post Office, Gail Johnson of 5 Carnegie Dr., Midland, was pronounced dead on arrival Thursday at 11:38 a. m. at City Hospital. He was 66.

Police were notified by Postmaster Samuel W. Brown, who said a man who was either asleep or dead was seated in a car at Broadway and E. 5th St.

Patrolmen Jerry Adkins, Charles A. Winters and Orin C. Smith found Mr. Johnson seated behind the wheel of his car, apparently dead. They advised Dr. Roy C. Costello, deputy corner, who authorized an ambulance to remove Mr. Johnson to the hospital.

Mr. Johnson was born April 17, 1898, in Tyler County, W. Va. He lived in East Liverpool for many years before moving to Midland five years ago to reside with his sister, Mrs. Faye Shannon. He retired in 1959 from the open hearth department of the Midland Works of the Crucible Steel Co., where he worked as a craneman for 37 years.

In addition to his sister, he leaves a son, G. Robert Johnson of East Liverpool; a daughter, Miss Regina Johnson of Norfolk, Va.; a brother, John L. Johnson of East Liverpool; a half-brother, T. O. Johnson of Sistersville; two half - sisters, Mrs. Vashta Wells of Lawrenceville, Ill., and Mrs. Mary Cummings of Waynesburg, W. Va., and three grandchildren.

Services will be held Monday at 2:30 p. m. at the Cannon Funeral Home in Midland by the Rev. Edward J. Phinn, pastor of the Grace United Presbyterian Church in East End. Burial will be in Columbiana County Memorial Park.

Friends may call at the funeral home after 2 p. m. Saturday.

Youth Faces Federal Charge In Auto Theft

Pvt. William Archie Shingleton, 21, of Millry, Ala., arrested in Chester Monday night as a suspect in a car theft case, was removed from Hancock County Jail Thursday and taken to Wheeling to face a federal charge of interstate transportation of a stolen vehicle.

Deputies turned over the AWOL Marine to a U. S. marshal from federal court. Marine Corps officials have also placed a detainer against the serviceman.

Pvt. Shingleton was sentenced to 10 days in the County Jail and fined $25 by Chester Mayor Harry Abrams on charges of driving a car with expired plates and lack of a registration card. He was taken into custody by Deputy Rex Cowey of the sheriff's office and Patrolman Clifford Bebout.

He is alleged to have stolen a car in Silver Hills, Md., on Sunday night, driving across state lines to Chester.

Customers In Poll Laud World's Fair

NEW YORK (AP)—The New York World's Fair, making a spectacular recovery from opening-day bad weather and civil rights clamor, has earned the endorsement of the most important of all critics, the customer.

The exposition was lauded by some two dozen persons polled at random Thursday on the fairgrounds.

Attendance climbed from Wednesday's opening-day 92,696 to 163,252 Thursday. The relatively low attendance Wednesday was attributed to civil rights demonstrations, which had been announced in advance, and to the chill rain.

More than 300 persons were arrested for demonstrating in or around the 646-acre fair site in Flushing Meadow Park.

Many of the patrons polled Thursday spoke of the educational value of the dozens of government and industrial pavilions.

"There are many worthwhile exhibitions," said Dante Ger-

The New York State Pavilion was dedicated by Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller. Also dedicated and formally opened Thursday were the Korean Pavilion and the Jordanian Pavilion, where King Hussein of Jordan officiated.

A small army of workmen continued construction of several pavilions and other buildings.

Planning Unit's Activities Aired At Kiwanis Club

Operations of the recently - organized Columbiana County Regional Planning Commission were outlined by Allen Dalrymple, member, at a meeting of the Kiwanis Club Thursday at the Travelers Hotel.

Dalrymple, of Wellsville, said the commission, through a number of volunteer committees throughout the county, is currently gathering statistics, data and other information in order to compile an overall picture of economic, cultural and physical aspects of the county and its communities.

Once the survey is complete, the commission will attempt a study of the information and, with the co-operation of participating subdivisions, submit recommendations for planning and development.

He pointed out the commission is an advisory body, and that the cities and townships co-operating will act on their own concerning this planning.

Horse, Pony Training Session Held For 4-H

LISBON — Sixty 4-H Club members attended the second Columbiana County horse and pony training meeting Thursday night at St. George's Parish Hall, according to Robert Lewis, county extension agent in 4-H.

Dr. Russell Stryffeler, Columbiana veterinarian, discussed the common ailments of horses and ponies, along with feeding and care of a mare and the new-born colt.

Blaze Damages Shop In Palestine Pottery

EAST PALESTINE — Damage was estimated at $150 to the carpenter shop at the Royal China Co. pottery Plant 1 Thursday afternoon about 4.

Firemen said the flames were ignited by a hotplate used for coffee. Damage was primarily to the small motor, a radio and a cabinet. The hotplate was in a small hooded box which ignited.

88 Hear 'Grass Roots' Talks At Wellsville GOP Dinner

Eighty-eight persons heard three-minute talks by 18 candidates in the May 5 primary at a "grass roots" dinner of the combined Republican Clubs of Wellsville Thursday night at the Jaycee Hall.

Speaking were Frank Fluno on behalf of Rep. Robert Taft Jr., candidate for U. S. Senator; Allen Dalrymple of Wellsville, for 18th District Congressman; Henry C. Robinson and John A. Reddy, for judge of the Court of Appeals, Robert M. Bell 18th District state central committeeman.

Clarence L. Wetzel, for state representative from Columbiana County; Judge Joel H. Sharp for Common Pleas Court; Samuel Webber, Donald Elliott, Galen Greenisen, Walter Hunston, Robert P. Kelm and Wilbur Stratton, for county commissioner; Dean Rose, for clerk of courts; Russell J. VanFossan, for sheriff, Richard G. Brian, for recorder, Dale Miller, for treasurer, and Charles Snyder, for engineer.

The theme was "Victory In the Spring for the GOP." Candidates were introduced by William Shoub, Wellsville chairman. Guests were Atty. Charles Pike of Lisbon, county chairman, and Miss Gladys DeBolt of East Liverpool, county chairwoman. Mrs. Mary Clark of Wellsville presented the address of welcome, and the Rev. James D. Sanko gave the invocation.

Robert Beresford, president of the Young Republicans Club, and Mrs. Betty Rager introduced guests. Mrs. Genevieve Wolf was diningroom chairman, and in charge of membership were Mrs. Ruth Cooper, Mrs. Inez Carter, and Mrs. Billie Shoub.

Decorations followed a spring theme, with cherry trees and pink cloths predominating. There were gold elephants on each table.

Dog-Owners Get New Warning On Restraining Pets

Warden Donald Chapman today issued a new warning to all East Liverpool dog-owners that their pets must be confined or restrained on their property.

Dogs must be on a leash when taken off the owner's property, the warden added, citing a city ordinance which prohibits allowing a canine to run at large.

Chapman said he issued the warning in advance of a move to cite dog owners who permit their dogs to wander at large.

He said the warning also was prompted by the fact seven cases of dog bites were reported to him between 4:30 and 7 p. m. Thursday. He said he has located four of the dogs involved but the other three can not be found, as they apparently are strays.

120 At Meeting Held For Senior Citizens

About 129 attended a meeting of the Senior Citizens Group Thursday afternoon at Parish Hall of St. Stephen's Episcopal Church.

The Rev. John Clark, pastor of the First Methodist Church, gave a devotional talk on the theme, "Spring." The meeting opened with the Lord's Prayer and salute to the flag.

Business was conducted by Charles Pritchett, president. Lunch was served.

135 Get Immunization At Pre-School Clinics

LISBON — A total of 135 second round pre-school immunizations were given in the county this week, according to Mrs. Ruth Kauffman, county health nurse.

A breakdown shows 47 immunizations at Calcutta Monday, 28 at Knox Wednesday and 60 at Fairfield - Waterford Thursday. Make-up shots were being given at the Health Department office this afternoon.

Next week's schedule calls for second round pre-school immunizations at United Local on Tuesday and Lisbon on Thursday.

the truck that was towing it and crashed into a metal pole on Dresden Ave. at E. 9th St. that supports a traffic signal, police said.

The air compressor became uncoupled from a 1952 model dump truck driven by Eugene A. Bowers, 42, of New Cumberland R. D. 2 and owned by Michael J. Pusateri of Mounted Carrier Route 19, police said.

Bowers told police the hitch turned over and uncoupled as he drove south about 12:40, allowing the compressor to break loose, cross the street and hit the pole. The pole was dented and the compressor also was damaged, officers reported.

Donald W. Harris, 28, of 1181 Lisbon St., escaped injury when his 1951 four-door sedan went over an embankment Thursday at 10:25 p. m. at Ohio Ave. and Elizabeth St., police said.

East End firemen, summoned at 11:25, were on the scene 95 minutes. The car was pulled to the top of the grade to allow the blaze to be extinguished, they said. The first alarm was telephoned by an unidentified person to Fireman Donald Hancock at his home. He relayed the call to the fire department.

Harris told Patrolman Samuel E. Hayes he rounded the turn too fast and lost control of his auto, which went over the embankment. He said he was unfamiliar with the street and did not see the curve, officers said.

A minor mishap Thursday at 4:16 p. m. on E. 6th St. near Broadway damaged a 1958 model compact driven by Virginia McCauley, 1128 Vine St., and a 1957 two-door hardtop operated by Linda Adkins, 16, of 447 Virginia Ave., police said.

The Vine St. woman said she was driving east on E. 6th St. when the other car pulled from the curb and hit her car. The East End girl said she was preparing to pull into traffic from a parking spot when her car "lurched," officers said.

Davis-Pipitone Ceremony Held In California Mission

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Wilbur Davis have returned from a honeymoon in the Hawaiian Islands and are residing in San Gabriel, Calif., following their marriage April 4 at the San Gabriel Mission.

The bride was Miss Johanna Mary Pipitone, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Pipitone of Los Angeles, and her husband is the son of Mrs. June Davis, 412 Vine St., and the late Gale Davis.

Fr. Bernard O'Connor, pastor, officiated for the ceremony before an altar background of white carnations, snapdragons and stephanotis.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of jeweled bridal lace and silk organza. The fitted bodice was fashioned with a bateau neckline and fingertip sleeves of lace. Hand - clipped medallions of lace, appliqued with seed pearls, accented the skirt and chapel-length train.

Her three tier, elbow - length veil of imported silk illusion was attached to a jeweled pillbox crown, accented with a teardrop. She carried a cascade of white orchids and stephanotis.

Mrs. Antoinette Lombardi was matron of honor and Misses Linda Kolbert, Doreen Means, Antoinette Grammaloo and Teresa Faraone bridesmaids. They wore maize organza gowns with matching tulle hats and carried Colonial bouquets of jonquils.

The bride's mother was attired in rose silk pongee with beige accessories and the mother of the bridegroom, in beige brocade with cocoa accessories. White orchid corsages complemented their attire.

MRS. B. W. DAVIS
Ex-City Resident's Bride.

Mrs. Lesley Tatgenhorst of East Liverpool, grandmother of the bridegroom, chose a black and white ensemble with matching accesoories and white orchid corsage.

A reception for 400 was held at the Serbian Hall in San Gabriel. The bridal table was decorated in yellow lace and tulle with tall tapers in silver holders. The six-tier cake, topped with a miniature bridal couple, was cut with a silver cake knife, the gift of Mrs. Tatgenhorst.

The bride was graduated from San Gabriel Mission High School and attended Los Angeles State College.

Her husband is a graduate of East Liverpool High School and attended Ohio State University. Both are employed at the United Parcel Co. of Los Angeles.

Former local residents attending the wedding were Mrs. George Tatgenhorst, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Hussander, Mrs. Freda Bower and daughter, Jeannie, Mr. and Mrs. William Mohr, Mr. and Mrs. Kenny Figley, Mr. and Mrs. Frances Evans and Mr. and Mrs. James Fletcher.

Meeting Set Saturday

Rep. Arch Moore To Air Pughtown Water Project

Rep. Arch A. Moore of the 1st Congressional District will speak at a public meeting for all residents of the Pughtown Public Service District Saturday afternoon at 3:30 at the Oak Glen High School theater building.

Rep. Moore will discuss federal aid available for the proposed Pughtown water project and changes which may be required in the contracts already signed by over 200 residents, Atty. Edwin Flowers, acting chairman of the water commission, said.

Rep. Moore has asked residents of the Lawrenceville area to attend because the problems of federal aid would also apply to proposed water service to the Lawrenceville district.

Atty. Flowers said the $400,000 Pughtown project will need federal assistance for completion. He said plans call for service to 260 residential customers plus the new Oak Glen High School, Pughtown Elementary School and the various businesses in the area. Flowers indicated the Hancock County Board of Education has expressed interest and a willingness to cooperate with the project.

He added that residents of the area have been assured of a substantial reduction of fire insurance rates when water becomes available for use by the local fire department.

An extremely dry 1963 fall season, with resulting brush and forest fires and water shortages, pointed up the urgency of the need for a water supply for the area.

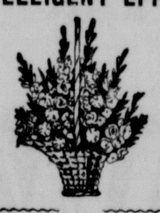

The Pughtown Public Service District was formed in 1963 by the Hancock County Court at the request of area residents. Areas included in the district are Ridge Rd., Route 2 south of Pughtown, Scotts Ln., Flats Cemetery Rd., Pughtown, Westlake Ln., Route 2 north of Pughtown to Huff's Filling Station, Virden Heights and Park Meadows.

Elected to serve on the Board of Commissioners of the district were Richard Houk, chairman; Oliver Glass and Atty. Flowers.

Alternates are James Vall, John D. Herron and Mrs. Burr Fink. Mrs. Lester Hill is commission secretary.

"The public meeting will be an excellent time for all residents to get first-hand answers to their questions on the water situation," Flowers said. "We hope that every household in the area is represented at Saturday's meeting."

Cub Pack Meets For 'Mardi Gras'

"Mardi Gras" was the theme for the meeting of the Cub Scout Pack 34 of the Pennsylvania Ave. Methodist Church Thursday night, which opened with a grand march.

Den 2 led the flag salute and singing of "God Bless America." A poem was read by Jim Dailey.

Two singing groups performed, Den 5 as hillbillies and Den 4 as the Beatles. A sideshow act was presented by Den 1.

Receiving awards were Humphrey, Fred Parfitt, Jeff Carr, Jay Rife, Brian Farnsworth and Rickie Frederick. Two-year pins were presented Bobby Estell and Timmy Osbourne.

The Lord's Prayer in unison closed the meeting.

350 Expected To Hear Rep. Hays At Dinner

LISBON — Approximately 350 persons are expected to attend the Western Columbiana County Democratic Club's first dinner Saturday at 6:30 p. m. at Knox School.

Rep. Wayne L. Hays of the 18th Congressional District will be guest speaker. County Judge Herbert Arfman will be master of ceremonies.

Ohio U. Mock GOP Convention To Open

ATHENS, Ohio (AP) — Sen. John S. Cooper, R-Ky., will keynote the mock Republican national convention beginning tonight at Ohio University. More than 2,600 students will participate in the two-day convention.

Congressman Robert Taft Jr., and Secretary of State Ted W. Brown, candidates for the GOP U. S. senatorial nomination, are on the Saturday program.

Private Plane Crash In Ohio Investigated

LONDON, Ohio (AP) — The Madison County sheriff's office reported today it was investigating the crash of a private plane near Lilly Chapel in Madison County about four miles south of West Jefferson.

The pilot of the plane was reported to have been killed. Identity of the victim was not determined immediately, the Highway Patrol reported.

6 Firms Ignore Fees

City Health Board Orders Milk Ordinance Enforced

Enforcement of a milk ordinance requiring distributors to pay farm inspection fees along with minimum permit fees was ordered Thursday night by the Board of Health.

The board instructed Gene Smith, sanitary police officer, to proceed with enforcing the law against approximately half a dozen distributors who either have only partially complied or made no attempt to comply.

The amended ordinance approved last year by City Council limited the number of farms to 400 on which permit holders must pay inspection fees. It set the fee at $3 except for farms outside a 50-mile radius where the charge will be $5.

The board's action presumably means that Smith will take steps to halt delivery within the city by distributors who have not complied.

Board members indicated they decided to proceed with the enforcement to be fair to the distributors who have complied with the law.

Milk distributors were sent two separate letters advising them to comply. The last was sent after the February meeting when the board granted a 30-day extension.

Only three members — Dr. J. Keith Rugh, C. Frank Dales and Paul Zehnder—attended last night's meeting. Dr. C. M. Mayberry and Mrs. Ila Finney Johnston were excused. It had been postponed from April 16 for lack of a quorum.

Smith reported he made 105 inspections and the report made for Septimus Cook, health commissioner, listed 101 calls and inspections.

Miss Selma Ladzinske, health nurse, reported 157 visits. She also accompanied a representative of the Ohio Board of Child Care on an inspection when the maternity wards at City and Osteopathic Hospitals were approved.

Mrs. Luella Bevan, registrar of vital statistics, reported 38 males and 37 females born in the period between March 19 and April 16. At the same time, 15 males and 14 females died.

Firemen Finish Glenmoor Class

Glenmoor volunteer firemen concluded three months of special training on fire-fighting tactics Thursday night, with Chief Kenneth Mills turning in a surprise alarm for practice.

A small home on the Y. & O. Rd. was set afire as a surprise windup of the training, and 19 men responded to the alarm. The firemen were joined by 11 volunteers from the LaCroft department.

Chief Mills thanked the men for participating in the training, adding he was "well pleased" with the outcome.

Work is slated Monday night on installing a tower on the top of the station for a new siren. On Saturday morning at 9, firemen are to report to the station to repair a leaking roof.

Lodge Wins Otterbein Mock Convention Vote

WESTERVILLE, Ohio (AP)—Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge would win the Republican presidential nomination going away if a mock convention at Otterbein College had its way.

Lodge got 1,093 votes on the second ballot Thursday, compared to 117 for Gov. William Scranton of Pennsylvania, 24 for Sen. Everett Dirksen of Illinois, and 16 for Arizona Sen. Barry Goldwater. Former vice president Richard M. Nixon and Gov. Nelson Rockefeller of New York received no votes after the first ballot.

Hookstown Firemen Air Fair Participation

Participation in the Hookstown Fair in August was discussed at the meeting of the Hookstown volunteer fire department Thursday night at the fire station.

The department again will handle the game concessions.

The new pickup truck will be sent to Columbus to be fitted with fire equipment.

Burned Boy Improves

WEST POINT — Michael Wolski, 10, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Wolski, was in "satisfactory" condition at Salem City Hospital after surgery earlier this week in connection with severe burns of the left leg received in a brush fire March 28. He and a chum, Van Possage, 12, were attempted to burn brush in the Wolski yard when fuel flared as they poured it on the brush. His companion beat out the flames in young Wolski's clothing.

Poison Bait Suspected In Death Of Songbirds

Many colorful, inoffensive songbirds have been found dead mysteriously within the last few days in an East Liverpool residential neighborhood and householders said today they fear the birds may have picked up poisoned bait that was scattered in an effort to eradicate pigeons.

Blue jays, robins and red birds have been found dead in large numbers throughout the area that includes Blakeley St., Thompson Ave., Fawcett St. and Vine St. One man said he has buried eight or nine of the birds which he found dead within the last week.

Since the birds show no sign of a violent death, the householders assumed they may have picked up poisoned bait intended to destroy pigeons in the area.

Meeting Set Saturday

Rep. Arch Moore To Air Pughtown Water Project

Rep. Arch A. Moore of the 1st Congressional District will speak at a public meeting for all residents of the Pughtown Public Service District Saturday afternoon at 3:30 at the Oak Glen High School theater building.

Rep. Moore will discuss federal aid available for the proposed Pughtown water project and changes which may be required in the contracts already signed by over 200 residents, Atty. Edwin Flowers, acting chairman of the water commission, said.

Rep. Moore has asked residents of the Lawrenceville area to attend because the problems of federal aid would also apply to proposed water service to the Lawrenceville district.

Atty. Flowers said the $400,000 Pughtown project will need federal assistance for completion. He said plans call for service to 260 residential customers plus the new Oak Glen High School, Pughtown Elementary School and the various businesses in the area. Flowers indicated the Hancock County Board of Education has expressed interest and a willingness to cooperate with the project.

He added that residents of the area have been assured of a substantial reduction of fire insurance rates when water becomes available for use by the local fire department.

An extremely dry 1963 fall season, with resulting brush and forest fires and water shortages, pointed up the urgency of the need for a water supply for the area.

The Pughtown Public Service District was formed in 1963 by the Hancock County Court at the request of area residents. Areas included in the district are Ridge Rd., Route 2 south of Pughtown, Scotts Ln., Flats Cemetery Rd., Pughtown, Westlake Ln., Route 2 north of Pughtown to Huff's Filling Station, Virden Heights and Park Meadows.

Elected to serve on the Board of Commissioners of the district were Richard Houk, chairman; Oliver Glass and Atty. Flowers.

Alternates are James Vall, John D. Herron and Mrs. Burr Fink. Mrs. Lester Hill is commission secretary.

"The public meeting will be an excellent time for all residents to get first-hand answers to their questions on the water situation," Flowers said. "We hope that every household in the area is represented at Saturday's meeting."

Out Of The Air

By HAL HUMPHREY

ABC's Moore Sees World Geared To TV

At the next summit conference of world leaders we are sure to find also the presidents of all TV networks.

Hal Humphrey

Imagine for a moment that the conference has just gotten under way and Mao Tse-tung suddenly and sullenly stands up to announce he has the H-bomb and will drop it on Washington and Moscow tomorrow. Before Lyndon Johnson or Nikita Khrushchev can answer him, an American TV network president jumps to his feet, shouting.

-:-

"WAIT! MAO! Don't be crazy! What kind of TV audience do you think you're going to get without enough advance notice? You can't start World War III and not have proper TV coverage!"

Mao is surprised, but he listens. Before the summit conference breaks up, the networks have worked out a pool arrangement to cover World War III, and a soft drink and oil company are to sponsor what will be billed "Another First for Television."

If this seems a bit far out, then consider the speech which ABC-TV's president Tom Moore gave before the Hollywood Ad Club earlier this week.

MOORE SAID that, except for sleeping, the American family spends more time watching TV than anything else. Ergo, according to Moore, "it now is time for some of our tradition-bound institutions to do a little adapting to television."

The first tradition - bound institution Moore would like to see adapt to TV is major league baseball. He says it is a highly overexposed sport and should cut its present 162-game schedule for each team to 60 games and hold them only on weekends.

Naturally, Moore's ABC would be happy to televise these weekend TV specials, and he already has conferred with some of the team owners about his plan.

The managers and players will have to toe the line, however, Moore says. "Too much time is consumed by stretching pitcher changes, strategy meetings and just plain indolence."

MOORE ALSO HAS proposals for streamlining college football schedules, organizing a kind of professional golfers' league and year-'round American Olympics competition — all geared for maximum enjoyment by TV viewers.

Actually the Moore plan to adapt tradition - bound institutions to TV is not as revolutionary as it may look. Consider what already has been done to revolve our society around TV.

Political campaigns have been shortened and revised to assure the candidate's TV exposure at the proper time. The national conventions are planned with the TV producers sitting in to tell the politicos how things should be run.

MOORE'S colleagues at CBS and NBC constantly are beleaguering the American Bar Association to relax its ban on TV cameras in our courtrooms. And all three networks want to televise Congress in action.

If the courts and Congress should give in, it will be only a matter of time before the networks will be asking that all verdicts and legislation be saved for the "prime evening hours" and that "everybody wear blue shirts" — including the accused.

Next season ABC is dropping the Friday Night Fights because the fighters and their managers can't be trusted to put on long enough matches for the sponsor to get in the minimum number of commercials.

CBS IS LAYING OUT $28 million to the National Football League to televise its games this year and next, but with the understanding that the NFL referees call sufficient time outs to sandwich in the required number of commercials.

In fact, Mao Tse-tung will have to promise the networks a firm 13 weeks of continuous war, or he won't get sponsorship.

Glenmoor Legion Enrolls Member

The post voted to sponsor Mike Fisher, a junior at Beaver Local High School, to the Buckeye Boys State the week of June 11 at Ohio University in Athens.

Bert Keck, county commander, and Russ Turner, county adjutant, reported on the County Council delegation's visit to the Massillon State Hospital April 8.

Bill Fletcher, post commander, appointed Robert Buckley, Jay Mathess, Ed Boywer and William Wilson as the committee for the Memorial Day observance.

Plans were made to air condition the post home and to construct a new set of steps. Next meeting will be May 5.

Elect Dayton Man

NEW YORK (AP) — Stockholders of National Cash Register Co., Dayton, Ohio, have elected R. Stanley Laing as president, succeeding Robert S. Oelman. Oelman was re-elected to his other posts of board chairman and chief executive officer. Laing has been executive vice president.

Many an overweight feels that she gets written off, and that no one is really concerned about her problem. A homemaker writes:

"The doctor says that he cannot help me. . .that I must help myself. I am sure he is right in his thinking. But I am like the woman who wrote, 'I eat, eat, eat whether I want to or not. . .'

"I, too, know that boredom, frustration and depression can send one to eating like crazy. I feel sure that if I could write to some stranger about my problem a fine friendship could result. Or, do you think a reducing club would be better? I may be able to help someone else as I am a former dietitian."

A REDUCING CLUB would be an excellent plan. The personal contacts through a club are far more helpful than having a pen pal. Why don't you organize a club? Make this a different kind of club. . .with an action program. Instead of meeting in each others' homes merely for discussion, why not allocate part of the time to walking?

You could meet to weigh in each week, or twice weekly. Then, in low heel shoes, hit the trail. If you do not wish to walk on city streets, drive out to some lovely spot and recapture the joy of moving. There is no better way to counteract frustrations. You would return home relaxed and pleasantly weary.

What you, and most overweight individuals want, is someone to help yourself. In a club of this kind you receive help without criticism, and in friendly fashion you help each other.

In many communities, reducing clubs are formed with the help of home demonstration agents, home economists with Extension Service of the state agriculture organization, has its headquarters in Wisconsin. To receive information about a TOPS group in your vicinity, write to them at 3180 South 27th Street, Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

IMPROVED HEALTH must be one goal. Each club member should have a preliminary check-up by a good medical man.

The important thing is to get started. Whether your club is small or large, each member should have a special assignment. One can be the chairman of weight records; one of the measurement records. The most imaginative cook could be in charge of recipe collecting, slimming style. The exercise-minded member could arrange for various activities — hiking, bowling, swimming. One member could devise a fashion and grooming program.

National Steel Sets Records

PITTSBURGH — National Steel Corp., parent firm of the Weirton Steel Co., has established new records for a first-quarter period in sales, ingot production, shipments, net income and net income per share, it was reported at the annual meeting of stockholders Wednesday in the corporation's Grant Building headquarters.

Net income, after all charges, for the quarter ended March 31, 1964, was $18,453,288, equal to $1.18 per share, an increase of 40 per cent over net income of $13,066,015, equal to 85 cents per share, in the first quarter of 1963.

Sales of $238,463,745 in the 1964 first quarter compared with $213,607,809 in the comparable period of 1963. The provision for depreciation and depletion amounted to $13,975,459 in the first three months of 1964 compared with $14,762,023 in the 1963 period.

Ingot production of approximately 1,909,000 tons and shipments of approximately 1,473,000 tons in the first quarter of 1964 were second only to the record highs established in the second quarter of 1963.

Thomas E. Millsop, chairman, said the favorable operating and financial results were due to a combination of the sustained high demand for the corporation's products throughout the first quarter and the benefits of highly modern facilities in all National Steel divisions.

$750,000-A-Year Numbers Ring Cracked In Cincinnati

CINCINNATI (AP) — Police have cracked a $750,000-a-year numbers racket ring they described as the largest and most successful in Cincinnati police history.

Four men and one woman were arrested in vice raids Thursday that capped a six months investigation by detectives Paul Allen and Handy Matthews of the vice squad.

Arrested were Lacy Calloway, 42; Harry Tayler, 39, and Mrs. Mattie Mapp, 26, all charged with promoting games of chance and Richard Holmes, 43, and Ellis Richardson, 41, on charges of possession of numbers slips. Holmes also was charged with transporting numbers slips and his automobile was confiscated.

Calloway, pajama-clad, raced through a second-floor window, over a porch rail and into the arms of a detective after police broke into his apartment.

Police said his $1,500-a-day operation was the largest of the three gambling centers closed.

Police seized Richardson when he entered Calloway's apartment during a raid, and Holmes was picked up in his auto.

Calloway told police his was an independent operation, and quoted him as saying: "I'm guilty, I'm just going to throw myself on the mercy of the judge."

Police had to break down doors to gain entrance to all three of the gambling places, and while there received several phone calls from persons wanting to make bets.

A wide spatula for kitchen use should be about the size and shape of a pancake turner but more flexible and thinner.

By HAL HUMPHREY

ABC's Moore Sees World Geared To TV

At the next summit conference of world leaders we are sure to find also the presidents of all TV networks.

Hal Humphrey

Imagine for a moment that the conference has just gotten under way and Mao Tse-tung suddenly and sullenly stands up to announce he has the H-bomb and will drop it on Washington and Moscow tomorrow. Before Lyndon Johnson or Nikita Khrushchev can answer him, an American TV network president jumps to his feet, shouting.

-:-

"WAIT! MAO! Don't be crazy! What kind of TV audience do you think you're going to get without enough advance notice? You can't start World War III and not have proper TV coverage!"

Mao is surprised, but he listens. Before the summit conference breaks up, the networks have worked out a pool arrangement to cover World War III, and a soft drink and oil company are to sponsor what will be billed "Another First for Television."

If this seems a bit far out, then consider the speech which ABC-TV's president Tom Moore gave before the Hollywood Ad Club earlier this week.

MOORE SAID that, except for sleeping, the American family spends more time watching TV than anything else. Ergo, according to Moore, "it now is time for some of our tradition-bound institutions to do a little adapting to television."

The first tradition - bound institution Moore would like to see adapt to TV is major league baseball. He says it is a highly overexposed sport and should cut its present 162-game schedule for each team to 60 games and hold them only on weekends.

Naturally, Moore's ABC would be happy to televise these weekend TV specials, and he already has conferred with some of the team owners about his plan.

The managers and players will have to toe the line, however, Moore says. "Too much time is consumed by stretching pitcher changes, strategy meetings and just plain indolence."

MOORE ALSO HAS proposals for streamlining college football schedules, organizing a kind of professional golfers' league and year-'round American Olympics competition — all geared for maximum enjoyment by TV viewers.

Actually the Moore plan to adapt tradition - bound institutions to TV is not as revolutionary as it may look. Consider what already has been done to revolve our society around TV.

Political campaigns have been shortened and revised to assure the candidate's TV exposure at the proper time. The national conventions are planned with the TV producers sitting in to tell the politicos how things should be run.

MOORE'S colleagues at CBS and NBC constantly are beleaguering the American Bar Association to relax its ban on TV cameras in our courtrooms. And all three networks want to televise Congress in action.

If the courts and Congress should give in, it will be only a matter of time before the networks will be asking that all verdicts and legislation be saved for the "prime evening hours" and that "everybody wear blue shirts" — including the accused.

Next season ABC is dropping the Friday Night Fights because the fighters and their managers can't be trusted to put on long enough matches for the sponsor to get in the minimum number of commercials.

CBS IS LAYING OUT $28 million to the National Football League to televise its games this year and next, but with the understanding that the NFL referees call sufficient time outs to sandwich in the required number of commercials.

In fact, Mao Tse-tung will have to promise the networks a firm 13 weeks of continuous war, or he won't get sponsorship.

Glenmoor Legion Enrolls Member

The post voted to sponsor Mike Fisher, a junior at Beaver Local High School, to the Buckeye Boys State the week of June 11 at Ohio University in Athens.

Bert Keck, county commander, and Russ Turner, county adjutant, reported on the County Council delegation's visit to the Massillon State Hospital April 8.

Bill Fletcher, post commander, appointed Robert Buckley, Jay Mathess, Ed Boywer and William Wilson as the committee for the Memorial Day observance.

Plans were made to air condition the post home and to construct a new set of steps. Next meeting will be May 5.

National Steel Sets Records

PITTSBURGH — National Steel Corp., parent firm of the Weirton Steel Co., has established new records for a first-quarter period in sales, ingot production, shipments, net income and net income per share, it was reported at the annual meeting of stockholders Wednesday in the corporation's Grant Building headquarters.

Net income, after all charges, for the quarter ended March 31, 1964, was $18,453,288, equal to $1.18 per share, an increase of 40 per cent over net income of $13,066,015, equal to 85 cents per share, in the first quarter of 1963.

Sales of $238,463,745 in the 1964 first quarter compared with $213,607,809 in the comparable period of 1963. The provision for depreciation and depletion amounted to $13,975,459 in the first three months of 1964 compared with $14,762,023 in the 1963 period.

Ingot production of approximately 1,909,000 tons and shipments of approximately 1,473,000 tons in the first quarter of 1964 were second only to the record highs established in the second quarter of 1963.

Thomas E. Millsop, chairman, said the favorable operating and financial results were due to a combination of the sustained high demand for the corporation's products throughout the first quarter and the benefits of highly modern facilities in all National Steel divisions.

$750,000-A-Year Numbers Ring Cracked In Cincinnati

CINCINNATI (AP) — Police have cracked a $750,000-a-year numbers racket ring they described as the largest and most successful in Cincinnati police history.

Four men and one woman were arrested in vice raids Thursday that capped a six months investigation by detectives Paul Allen and Handy Matthews of the vice squad.

Arrested were Lacy Calloway, 42; Harry Tayler, 39, and Mrs. Mattie Mapp, 26, all charged with promoting games of chance and Richard Holmes, 43, and Ellis Richardson, 41, on charges of possession of numbers slips. Holmes also was charged with transporting numbers slips and his automobile was confiscated.

Calloway, pajama-clad, raced through a second-floor window, over a porch rail and into the arms of a detective after police broke into his apartment.

Police said his $1,500-a-day operation was the largest of the three gambling centers closed.

Police seized Richardson when he entered Calloway's apartment during a raid, and Holmes was picked up in his auto.

Calloway told police his was an independent operation, and quoted him as saying: "I'm guilty, I'm just going to throw myself on the mercy of the judge."

Police had to break down doors to gain entrance to all three of the gambling places, and while there received several phone calls from persons wanting to make bets.

325 At Scout Dinner

Lisbon Man Gets 'Silver Beaver'

LISBON — Charles Roessler, 628 E. Lincoln Way, traffic manager for the Church Budget Envelope Co. of Salem, received the coveted Silver Beaver award—the highest in the Boy Scout movement—at the annual awards dinner of the Columbiana Boy Scouts Council Thursday night at Orchard Hill School in Leetonia.

Some 325 attended the event and a number of other awards were made.

Roessler, active in scouting since 1913, became an Eagle Scout in 1916, and earned the Quartermaster Sea Scout, the Gold Quill and the God and Country awards.

HE SERVED 10 years as a scoutmaster, three years as district commissioner, six years as field commissioner for exploring, six years as chairman of the Court of Honor, eight years as a member of the district camping and activities committee, three years as camp director of the council summer camp and three years as an explorer advisor.

He is a charter member of the Columbiana Council.

He is active in the Methodist Church, Salem Camera Club, Odd Fellows Lodge and the Youngstown District Traffic Forum.

Calvin Filler of Salem, council commissioner, made the presentation.

Receiving the Council Award —the second highest—was John C. Thompson of East Liverpool, member of the Executive Board of the Columbiana Council, which was presented by C. Emory Miller of East Palestine, council president.

TRAINING AWARDS presented by Thomas Snow of East Liverpool, training chairman of the Shawnee District, went to Arden Crumbaker and James Peters of Salem and William H. Col. Harold Bedenbaugh of Cincinnati, deputy executive of Region 4, extended greetings and spoke on the Boy Scout movement.

BENNETT D. Taylor Jr., council executive, thanked the volunteers in the council and introduced his office staff.

Fr. Paul Petric of St. Patrick's Catholic Church in Leetonia, gave the invocation and the Rev. Daniel J. Davis of the East Palestine Presbyterian Church, the benediction. Songs were led by Russell Howell of Glasgow with Thomas Scott pianists.

Allan White of Columbiana was the master of ceremonies.

IOOF Lodge To Hold Sale

Plans were discussed for a carnival and a rummage sale when Pennova Odd Fellows Lodge 880 met Thursday night at the East End Temple.

The carnival is set for June 22-27 at the Thorofare Market parking lot. Carl Mumaw, chairman, distributed advance sale tickets for amusements.

The rummage sale will be held in the front room of the lodge Saturday.

The lodge contributed $15 to those in Alaska for earthquake relief.

James Thomas will represent the lodge at a future meeting of District 28 in Cleveland.

Members were asked to send a birthday card to Lyman Earle of Aliquippa, a lifetime member of the lodge who will celebrate his 88th anniversary Sunday. He is a former member of the city police force.

Space Race Held For Cub Scouts

Mike Stenger and Ricky Williams were winners.

Fitzgerald announced that a kite derby will be held Saturday and the boys are to meet in front of the church at 1:30 p. m.

The meeting opened with the flag ceremony by Den 3, of which Mrs. Helen Stenger is den mother.

Next pack meeting will be May 27.

Trial By Jury Due Driver In Drunk Case

County Judge Herbert Arfman Thursday ordered a jury trial for an East Palestine area driver charged with driving while drunk. Eight other motorists penalized on traffic charges at hearings.

Richard Felger of East Palestine R.D. 1, entered a plea of not guilty to a charge of driving while intoxicated and requested a jury trial, which will be held June 18.

Harry Riggs of East Palestine R.D. 1 was fined $100 and costs, given three days in jail and a six-month suspension of his driver's license for drunken driving.

Victor E. Hauenstein of Negley R.D. 1 was fined $20 and costs for speeding.

Harvey Pickens, 250 Carolina Ave., Chester, forfeited a $20 bond on a charge of failure to obey a stop sign.

Harry Falkner of Lisbon R. D. 3, charged with speeding, failed to appear and a bench warrant was ordered.

Anthony Giovenco, 800 Morton St., East Liverpool, was fined $15 and costs for making an improper turn.

Ralph H. Hicks of Lisbon R. D. 3 was fined $15 and costs for passing at an intersection.

Nelson Knight of Negley, cited on a bench warrant when he failed to appear on charges of speeding and lack of a driver's license, was ordered to appear for a hearing May 21.

Raymond Eddy, 722 Edwards Ave., East Liverpool, was fined $50 and costs for operating an unsafe vehicle. The judge suspended $45 of the fine if repairs are made.

Donald Reidy of East Palestine R.D. 1 was fined $50 and costs for improper passing and his license was suspended for six months.

Fifty-five attended a traffic school at which a film on traffic hazards was screened.

Dallas Police Quell Riot Of 150 In Jail

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Police with dogs and fire hoses Thursday night quelled a riot in the Dallas County Jail that involved about 150 Negro prisoners and lasted three and one-half hours.

One jailer, Ray Masters, 50, was wounded superficially, Sheriff Bill Decker said, with a razor blade broken into two pieces and wielded by two inmates.

The sheriff said no prisoners were hurt in the disturbance.

Decker said he had gone to the jail about 7:30 p.m. to talk to a group of prisoners who had been shouting, "We want justice," and rattling tin cups on their cell bars. He said they protested about food, crowded conditions and infrequent use of the telephone.

After talking to the prisoners, Decker said he thought everything had quieted until a short time later when the riot erupted.

Shippingport Ferry Service Still Closed

The Shippingport ferry remained idle today as Robert Christy and Jack Morrow, co-owners continued negotiations with the Consolidation Coal Co. to determine the amount of the bond necessary to reclaim their two boats seized Tuesday by U.S. marshals on orders of the Federal Court in Pittsburgh.

The legal action was started by the widows of Philip McManus of Pleasant Hills and Richard A. Pidgeon of Mt. Lebanon, Crucible Steel Co. employes, killed Oct. 1 in a collision between the ferry boat and a tow of barges of Consolidation Coal.

The widows filed suit asking in excess of $10,000 against Consolidation Coal, which then sued to have the ferry owners named co-defendants.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: This is a true story, so help me.

Our next-door neighbors, the Kellys, went to Europe for three weeks. They left their cocker spaniel, "Lucky," with us. The first week Lucky didn't eat much. He was lonesome for the Kellys. The second week his appetite perked up but then on Friday he wouldn't eat the pieces of left-over roast. He just drank his water.

The next day Lucky ate fine and continued to eat well all through the week. When Friday came around he turned his nose up at the hamburger and refused to touch it.

Jokingly, my husband said, "You know, that darned dog eats like the Kellys — no meat on Friday." We all laughed. Just for the heck of it I opened a can of sardines and put it down for Lucky. He cleaned up the tin.

Now, I ask you, Ann Landers can a dog know when it's Friday? I wouldn't have believed it was possible, but I'm not so sure now. Comment, pleaee. — ASTONISHED.

Dear Astonished: Dogs do not know when it's Friday. Perhaps there is a logical explanation for this fascinating story but I don't know what it is. Maybe the Kellys will be able to come up with the answer when they get home.

Daughter's Choice

Dear Ann: Our teen-age daughter just told us she is pregnant. She says the boy will not marry her. I don't believe she knows who the father of the child is. She wants to go to a home for unwed mothers and put the child up for adoption.

My husband and I want her to stay home and have the baby. If she doesn't want the baby after it is born, we would like to adopt it.

The only thing that worries me is that I'm in my middle 50s and not in the best of health. This daughter has made me terribly nervous. I'm not sure I have the patience and strength to take on the responsibilities of a new-born baby.

You seem to be able to see things so clearly, Ann. Will you kindly tell me what to do? — JUST HEARTSICK.

Dear Just Heartsick: Please, for the sake of everyone involved (particularly the unborn child), let your daughter make this decision.

In my opinion, it would be far better if the girl followed her plan. Your proposal could mean disaster for all of you.

Always A Bridesmaid

Dear Ann: My daughter was asked to be a bridesmaid at the wedding of a girl she does not known very well. If my daughter says "yes" this will be the seventh wedding in the last three years in which she was asked to take part.

I know it's an honor, but it's also a heavy financial burden for middle-income people. Gwendolyn is in college, not a working girl, so you can see what the problems are.

Bridesmaids' gowns, as you know, are selected by the bride and her mother. The girls have to pay for them whether they like them or not. Then there are shoes, head pieces and gloves to buy. Only one out of the six gowns Gwendolyn has bought looked good enough to wear elsewhere.

I'm writing to ask if you feel it would be a slap in the face to the girl if Gwendolyn refuses to serve unless she has a voice in the selection of the dresses. May we hear from you? — IRRITATED MOTHER.

Dear Mother: Better Gwendolyn should say she is unable to serve — and be honest about the reason.

The bride and her mother do, indeed (and should), select the bridesmaids' gowns. Gwendolyn would be way out of line if she asked for a voice in the selection.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Lisbon Chamber Dinner Will Be Held On May 7

LISBON — R. J. (Denny) Schill, executive vice president of the Ellwood City Chamber of Commerce for 28 years, and an authority on obtaining new industries, will be guest speaker for the Lisbon Chamber dinner May 7 at 6:30 p. m. in the David Anderson High School gym.

Schill founded the Ellwood City Industrial Development Corp. in 1946 as a non-profit corporation to bring new diversified industry to his area.

Through the corporation, 43 new industries were established, increasing the annual payroll from $10 million to $47 million.

A graduate of Baldwin-Wallace College, in 1961 he was presented a Distinguished Service Award by Geneva College for his contribution to industrial development in the Beaver Valley area. He is one of the main boosters of the Lake Erie-Ohio River Canal.

Over 450 tickets have been printed for the dinner and it is hoped 500 will attend.

The committee includes Willard Hillyer, Gail Lewis, George Nace, Pete Gallo and Bob MacAleese.

60 Of Southern Local Will Attend Contest

Sixty members of the Southern Local High School band, along with a privately chartered bus of parents and boosters, will leave Saturday morning for Columbus and the state band competition.

The students will travel in two school buses, leaving at 8 p. m. Charles Temple is director.

Lisbon District Man Cited In Sideswiping

A 21-year-old Lisbon area man was cited after a car-truck sideswipe on Route 7 at a truck stop near Route 14 Thursday.

The Ohio Highway Patrol at Lisbon said Jacob John Marshalek of Lisbon R. D. 4 attempted to pass a semi-trailer truck operated by Thomas Paul Lively, 22, of Sewickley, as the trucker made a left turn into the truck stop.

Both vehicles were headed north. Marshalek was cited for speed in excess of road conditions. Neither driver was hurt in the mishap at 4 a. m., officers said.

Gas And Oil Bids Planned May 11

Sealed bids will be opened at City Hall at noon Monday, May 11 on a year's supply of gasoline, motor oil and other items for use of the street, incinerator, police and fire departments, Safety - Service Director Robert E Vodrey announced.

The offers will be opened by the director and Mayor Merrill D. Hall, who comprise the board of Control.

A legal advertisement issued by the director asks bids on: 15,000 gallons of gasoline, 500 gallons of motor oil, 1,000 gallons of diesel fuel, 200 gallons of hydraulic oil and 20,000 gallons of road oil.

Envelopes containing the offers should be marked "Annual Supply Bid," the advertisement specified. Authority for the administration to call for bids was contained in legislation approved by Council Monday night.

Electric heat qualifies you for a very low "wholesale" rate . . . an economy that affects every electrical "servant" you own!

Why you pay less to cook your meals... when you heat your home with electricity

Because electric heating brings low "wholesale" rates, it lowers the average cost of using all your electric "servants"... range, dryer, water heater, lights, etc.

When you have electric heating in your home you enjoy many benefits and advantages. Electric heating is flameless, clean, comfortable, efficient and decidedly economical. In addition, and of real importance to the family budget, electric heating lowers the cost of using all your electric "servants."

Here's how it works. By using only electricity to do all the jobs in your home you benefit from the lowest-of-all rates . . . our Total Electric rate! With this rate the average kilowatt hour cost for all the electricity you use is reduced over 50% from the initial electric rate.

We'll be glad to show you the advantages and economies of heating your home with flameless electricity. Just call our office.

Free booklet gives details

Ask for Sooner Than You Think. It shows just what steps you should take to get low "wholesale" rates. Phone us for it, stop in, or mail the coupon.

"Pumped storage" uses the same water over and over to produce electric power. During daytime high-use periods, two dams generate power, with some water from the upper dam being stored in a reservoir behind the lower dam. At night, when the need for power is low, reversible turbines force the stored water back up behind the upper dam . . . to produce more electricity! This increased efficiency is another reason why we can keep your rates low.

Our rates were never so low. This chart shows how the average cost per kilowatt hour of electricity has been lowered 18% in the past 10 years, while cost of living has risen 14% in the same period . . . and we're dedicated to continue this trend.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: This is a true story, so help me.

Our next-door neighbors, the Kellys, went to Europe for three weeks. They left their cocker spaniel, "Lucky," with us. The first week Lucky didn't eat much. He was lonesome for the Kellys. The second week his appetite perked up but then on Friday he wouldn't eat the pieces of left-over roast. He just drank his water.

The next day Lucky ate fine and continued to eat well all through the week. When Friday came around he turned his nose up at the hamburger and refused to touch it.

Jokingly, my husband said, "You know, that darned dog eats like the Kellys — no meat on Friday." We all laughed. Just for the heck of it I opened a can of sardines and put it down for Lucky. He cleaned up the tin.

Now, I ask you, Ann Landers can a dog know when it's Friday? I wouldn't have believed it was possible, but I'm not so sure now. Comment, pleaee. — ASTONISHED.

Dear Astonished: Dogs do not know when it's Friday. Perhaps there is a logical explanation for this fascinating story but I don't know what it is. Maybe the Kellys will be able to come up with the answer when they get home.

Daughter's Choice

Dear Ann: Our teen-age daughter just told us she is pregnant. She says the boy will not marry her. I don't believe she knows who the father of the child is. She wants to go to a home for unwed mothers and put the child up for adoption.

My husband and I want her to stay home and have the baby. If she doesn't want the baby after it is born, we would like to adopt it.

The only thing that worries me is that I'm in my middle 50s and not in the best of health. This daughter has made me terribly nervous. I'm not sure I have the patience and strength to take on the responsibilities of a new-born baby.

You seem to be able to see things so clearly, Ann. Will you kindly tell me what to do? — JUST HEARTSICK.

Dear Just Heartsick: Please, for the sake of everyone involved (particularly the unborn child), let your daughter make this decision.

In my opinion, it would be far better if the girl followed her plan. Your proposal could mean disaster for all of you.

Always A Bridesmaid

Dear Ann: My daughter was asked to be a bridesmaid at the wedding of a girl she does not known very well. If my daughter says "yes" this will be the seventh wedding in the last three years in which she was asked to take part.

I know it's an honor, but it's also a heavy financial burden for middle-income people. Gwendolyn is in college, not a working girl, so you can see what the problems are.

Bridesmaids' gowns, as you know, are selected by the bride and her mother. The girls have to pay for them whether they like them or not. Then there are shoes, head pieces and gloves to buy. Only one out of the six gowns Gwendolyn has bought looked good enough to wear elsewhere.

I'm writing to ask if you feel it would be a slap in the face to the girl if Gwendolyn refuses to serve unless she has a voice in the selection of the dresses. May we hear from you? — IRRITATED MOTHER.

Dear Mother: Better Gwendolyn should say she is unable to serve — and be honest about the reason.

The bride and her mother do, indeed (and should), select the bridesmaids' gowns. Gwendolyn would be way out of line if she asked for a voice in the selection.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Lisbon Chamber Dinner Will Be Held On May 7

LISBON — R. J. (Denny) Schill, executive vice president of the Ellwood City Chamber of Commerce for 28 years, and an authority on obtaining new industries, will be guest speaker for the Lisbon Chamber dinner May 7 at 6:30 p. m. in the David Anderson High School gym.

Schill founded the Ellwood City Industrial Development Corp. in 1946 as a non-profit corporation to bring new diversified industry to his area.

Through the corporation, 43 new industries were established, increasing the annual payroll from $10 million to $47 million.

A graduate of Baldwin-Wallace College, in 1961 he was presented a Distinguished Service Award by Geneva College for his contribution to industrial development in the Beaver Valley area. He is one of the main boosters of the Lake Erie-Ohio River Canal.

Over 450 tickets have been printed for the dinner and it is hoped 500 will attend.

The committee includes Willard Hillyer, Gail Lewis, George Nace, Pete Gallo and Bob MacAleese.

60 Of Southern Local Will Attend Contest

Sixty members of the Southern Local High School band, along with a privately chartered bus of parents and boosters, will leave Saturday morning for Columbus and the state band competition.

The students will travel in two school buses, leaving at 8 p. m. Charles Temple is director.

Queen Lends Name

LONDON (AP) — Queen Elizabeth, the Queen Mother, is serving in the honorary position of patron of the Keep Britain Tidy group, England's counterpart of Keep America Beautiful, the U.S. antilitter organization. Her majesty's name occupies a prominent place on the agency's literature.

Wellsville Cancer Campaign Set

Three co-chairmen were named for the door-to-door solicitation in Wellsville's 1964 cancer Fund drive, which began Thursday night. It ends next Thursday.

Mrs. Marjorie Dysert is the city chairman. The door-to-door phase is being headed by Mrs. Everett Bunfill, Mrs. William Bush and Mrs. Henry Gooch.

Heading the groups of workers covering various sections of town are Mrs. Virginia Gitschier, east end to 5th St.; Mrs. Bush, 5th to 7th Sts.; Mrs. Helen Jarvis, 7th to 9th Sts.; Mrs. Hilda Crawford and Mrs. Delores Whiteman, 9th to 11th Sts.; Mrs. Jack Call, 11th to 13th Sts.; Mrs. Robert Coleman and Mrs. Sam DeSarro, 13th to 15th Sts.; Mrs. Gooch, 15th to 25th Sts.; Mrs. Betty Miller, Hillcrest, and Mrs. Patti Andrews, Mrs. Doris McMorrow and Mrs. Jean Fiber, Russell Heights. Teams of volunteers have been assigned to each.

Lisbon District Man Cited In Sideswiping

A 21-year-old Lisbon area man was cited after a car-truck sideswipe on Route 7 at a truck stop near Route 14 Thursday.

The Ohio Highway Patrol at Lisbon said Jacob John Marshalek of Lisbon R. D. 4 attempted to pass a semi-trailer truck operated by Thomas Paul Lively, 22, of Sewickley, as the trucker made a left turn into the truck stop.

Both vehicles were headed north. Marshalek was cited for speed in excess of road conditions. Neither driver was hurt in the mishap at 4 a. m., officers said.

Gas And Oil Bids Planned May 11

Sealed bids will be opened at City Hall at noon Monday, May 11 on a year's supply of gasoline, motor oil and other items for use of the street, incinerator, police and fire departments, Safety - Service Director Robert E Vodrey announced.

The offers will be opened by the director and Mayor Merrill D. Hall, who comprise the board of Control.

A legal advertisement issued by the director asks bids on: 15,000 gallons of gasoline, 500 gallons of motor oil, 1,000 gallons of diesel fuel, 200 gallons of hydraulic oil and 20,000 gallons of road oil.

Envelopes containing the offers should be marked "Annual Supply Bid," the advertisement specified. Authority for the administration to call for bids was contained in legislation approved by Council Monday night.

Educators Schedule Meeting Wednesday

LISBON — The Columbiana County School Administrators Discussion Group, comprised of executives in the Beaver Local, Fairfield - Waterford, Southern Local and United Local systems, will meet Wednesday at 6:30 p. m. at Grady's Restaurant on Route 9 between Salem and Hanoverton.

Wives and husbands of the administrators and guidance counselors will be guests. Chester M. Brautigam, executive head of the United Local system, will be in charge of the program. Thomas Leek of Salineville is president.

Gains Shown By Democrats In Hancock

Hancock County Democrats have made a significant gain in registration since the 1962 presidential election, according to new figures compiled by the office of Mrs. Mary Stewart, county clerk, at New Cumberland.

The party has gained 1,443 members since 1962, while the Republicans picked up only four, the records show.

New registration figures disclosed the county will have a record 22,929 voters eligible to ballot in the May 12 primary—15,254 Democrats, 7,611 Republicans and 64 Independents.

GRANT DISTRICT

| Pct. | R | D |
|---|---|---|
| 1 Chester City Hall | 295 | 237 |
| 2 Chester School | 334 | 354 |

Butler District, which embraces the Weirton area, shows a registration of 14,896, including 4,442 Republicans, 10,403 Democrats and 51 Independents.

If you are substituting butter for lard in an old-fashioned biscuit or other hot bread recipe, you'll need more butter than the amount of lard called for. Lard is "richer" than butter and this makes the compensation in amount necessary.

It's 'Evening Of Music'

Band, Orchestra To Play Tonight

"Evening of Music" will be the theme of the annual spring program of the East Liverpool High School band and orchestra tonight at 8 at the Memorial Auditorium, under the direction of Vincent L. Maola, instrumental music supervisor.

There will be the presentation of annual awards, including the special Joe Thornberry Memorial award for the outstanding senior in band and orchestra.

The program will begin with five orchestra selections, "Russian Choral and Overture" (Tschaikowsky - Isaac), "Russian Sailors' Dance" (Gliere - Isaac), "Mississippi Suite" (Grofe), "Syncopated Clock" (Anderson) and highlights from "My Fair Lady" (Lerner-Lowe).

Selections by the White Band will include "Down by the O-Hi-O" (Yellen), "River Jordan Fantasy" (Whitney), "The Sound of Music" (Rodgers-Hammerstine) and "Badinage of Brasses" (Walters). Don Adams of Westgate Junior High will be the guest director for the selection, "Totem Pole" (Osterling).

The Blue Band will open its program with "Across the Field" (Dougherty), and "Ruv Blas" (Mendelssohn), followed with "Bandology Concert March" (Osterling) under the direction of Archie Myers of East Junior High, guest director.

Soloists for "Valvette" (Catizone) will include Allen Starkey, Joe Bates and Jim Smith. Susan Smith will be piano soloist for the theme from the "Apartment" (Williams).

Other numbers by the Blue Band include "West Side Story Selection" (Bernstein - Duthoit), "Jungle Drums" (Lecuona) and "Stars and Stripes Forever March" (Sousa).

Dancing will follow with music by the high school stage band during which refreshments will be served.

Guilford Lake Rates Settled

LISBON — New rates for state-owned lakes, including Guilford, have been announced by the Ohio Parks and Recreation Division and they will be less than had been planned but higher than those now charged.

Ernest J. Gebhart, chief of the division, said at Columbus that the new schedule of rates for non-commercial boat facilities will be effective May 2. Guilford Lake users had complained of the originally proposed rates and a delegation attended a hearing in Columbus Monday.

The division had proposed substantial rate increases last November, but after the public hearing decided to make the new rates nearer former levels.

The amended rules were approved by Natural Resources Director Fred E. Morr and went to the Secretary of State Tuesday.

The new calendar rates are as follows:

Docks where boats are moored, $12 and $6 for each additional boat. The rate recommended in November was $18.

Docks where no boats are moored, $10. Previously the charge was based on the number of lineal feet.

Covered docks or boathouses, $18, and $6 for each additional. The rate recommended in November was $20.

Tie-up space provided in zoned area in lieu of dock structures, where stakes or posts are furnished, $6 for each boat. The rate recommended in November was $10.

Farmers Told Of Deadline In Hancock

Hancock County's 84 wheat growers have until May 15 to sign up for the new 1964 voluntary wheat program that provides for government price supports up to 70 cents a bushel and an average of $7.34 an acre for diversion of wheat acreage.

Mrs. Norma Murray, office manager, said the growers are to report to the County Agricultural, Stabilization and Conservation office in the Courthouse annex in New Cumberland to make application.

If a farmer grows 90 per cent of his allotment he can get a 70-cent bushel price support payment on 45 per cent of his normal yield and 25 cents a bushel payment on another 45 per cent of his normal yield.

The grower has to set aside a minimum of 10 per cent of his wheat acreage or a maximum of 20 per cent in meadow or cropland with a cover in order to qualify for those price supports.

He will be paid an average of $7.35 for each diverted acre, Mrs. Murray said. Diversion rates differ according to the productivity index of the farm.

Cancer Fund Campaign Set For Hancock's Clay District

The 1964 Cancer Crusade in the Clay District area of Hancock County will open with the annual house-to-house canvass beginning at 1 p. m. Sunday, Mrs. Edwin Flowers, crusade chairman, announced today.

Areas to be solicited include New Cumberland, New Cumberland Heights, Hardins Run, Pughtown, Route 2 from New Cumberland to Hillcrest Farms, Park Meadows, Westlake Ln., Ridge Rd., Scotts Ln., south Washington School Rd., Gas Valley Rd. and Shepherd's Valley.

Members of the New Cumberland Young Women's Club will be in charge of the canvass. Miss Rosemarie Patterson is president of the club. Educational material on cancer will be distributed to each house.

In case of bad weather, the canvass will be postponed to Sunday, May 2, Mrs. Flowers said.

Co-chairmen for the crusade are Mrs. John McSwegin and Mrs. Eddie Reese, and committee members are Miss Patterson, Mrs. William Milby, Mrs. Michael Jones and Mrs. George Robb.

Letters concerning the Cancer Crusade have been sent to local clubs and businesses and professional people to enlist their support. Crusade canisters have also been placed in area business places. "A total of $543.29 was raised last year through the generosity of the people of the area, and we hope the response this year will be even greater," Mrs. Flowers said.

Anyone missed during the crusade may mail contributions to Cancer Crusade, Mrs. Edwin Flowers, chairman, Box 147, New Cumberland, W. Va. Checks should be made payable to the Brooke - Hancock Unit, American Cancer Society.

Areas which are not covered this Sunday will be completed during the following week.

Money collected in the canvass provides for patient care on a local basis — for equipment loaned for the duration of the illness and for free sickroom supplies, and for indigent patients, the cost of drugs, transportation and diagnostic procedures. Nationally, the money provides research grants, educational material and professional information.

Lisbon District Man Gets Suspended Fine

LISBON — Jesse F. Dilling, 43, of Lisbon R. D. 5 was given a suspended $25 fine Thursday by County Judge James L. MacDonald for operating a motor vehicle with out-of-state registration. He was ordered to pay $6.50 costs.

In other State Highway Patrol cases, Arthur H. Wilson, 54, of Salineville R. D. was fined $5 and costs for failing to obey a stop sign and James H. Lunn, 27, of Akron, forfeited a $15 bond.

It's 'Evening Of Music'

Band, Orchestra To Play Tonight

"Evening of Music" will be the theme of the annual spring program of the East Liverpool High School band and orchestra tonight at 8 at the Memorial Auditorium, under the direction of Vincent L. Maola, instrumental music supervisor.

There will be the presentation of annual awards, including the special Joe Thornberry Memorial award for the outstanding senior in band and orchestra.

The program will begin with five orchestra selections, "Russian Choral and Overture" (Tschaikowsky - Isaac), "Russian Sailors' Dance" (Gliere - Isaac), "Mississippi Suite" (Grofe), "Syncopated Clock" (Anderson) and highlights from "My Fair Lady" (Lerner-Lowe).

Selections by the White Band will include "Down by the O-Hi-O" (Yellen), "River Jordan Fantasy" (Whitney), "The Sound of Music" (Rodgers-Hammerstine) and "Badinage of Brasses" (Walters). Don Adams of Westgate Junior High will be the guest director for the selection, "Totem Pole" (Osterling).

The Blue Band will open its program with "Across the Field" (Dougherty), and "Ruv Blas" (Mendelssohn), followed with "Bandology Concert March" (Osterling) under the direction of Archie Myers of East Junior High, guest director.

Soloists for "Valvette" (Catizone) will include Allen Starkey, Joe Bates and Jim Smith. Susan Smith will be piano soloist for the theme from the "Apartment" (Williams).

Other numbers by the Blue Band include "West Side Story Selection" (Bernstein - Duthoit), "Jungle Drums" (Lecuona) and "Stars and Stripes Forever March" (Sousa).

Dancing will follow with music by the high school stage band during which refreshments will be served.

Cancer Fund Campaign Set For Hancock's Clay District

The 1964 Cancer Crusade in the Clay District area of Hancock County will open with the annual house-to-house canvass beginning at 1 p. m. Sunday, Mrs. Edwin Flowers, crusade chairman, announced today.

Areas to be solicited include New Cumberland, New Cumberland Heights, Hardins Run, Pughtown, Route 2 from New Cumberland to Hillcrest Farms, Park Meadows, Westlake Ln., Ridge Rd., Scotts Ln., south Washington School Rd., Gas Valley Rd. and Shepherd's Valley.

Members of the New Cumberland Young Women's Club will be in charge of the canvass. Miss Rosemarie Patterson is president of the club. Educational material on cancer will be distributed to each house.

In case of bad weather, the canvass will be postponed to Sunday, May 2, Mrs. Flowers said.

Co-chairmen for the crusade are Mrs. John McSwegin and Mrs. Eddie Reese, and committee members are Miss Patterson, Mrs. William Milby, Mrs. Michael Jones and Mrs. George Robb.

Letters concerning the Cancer Crusade have been sent to local clubs and businesses and professional people to enlist their support. Crusade canisters have also been placed in area business places. "A total of $543.29 was raised last year through the generosity of the people of the area, and we hope the response this year will be even greater," Mrs. Flowers said.

Anyone missed during the crusade may mail contributions to Cancer Crusade, Mrs. Edwin Flowers, chairman, Box 147, New Cumberland, W. Va. Checks should be made payable to the Brooke - Hancock Unit, American Cancer Society.

Areas which are not covered this Sunday will be completed during the following week.

Money collected in the canvass provides for patient care on a local basis — for equipment loaned for the duration of the illness and for free sickroom supplies, and for indigent patients, the cost of drugs, transportation and diagnostic procedures. Nationally, the money provides research grants, educational material and professional information.

Lisbon District Man Gets Suspended Fine

LISBON — Jesse F. Dilling, 43, of Lisbon R. D. 5 was given a suspended $25 fine Thursday by County Judge James L. MacDonald for operating a motor vehicle with out-of-state registration. He was ordered to pay $6.50 costs.

In other State Highway Patrol cases, Arthur H. Wilson, 54, of Salineville R. D. was fined $5 and costs for failing to obey a stop sign and James H. Lunn, 27, of Akron, forfeited a $15 bond.

Guilford Lake Rates Settled

LISBON — New rates for state-owned lakes, including Guilford, have been announced by the Ohio Parks and Recreation Division and they will be less than had been planned but higher than those now charged.

Ernest J. Gebhart, chief of the division, said at Columbus that the new schedule of rates for non-commercial boat facilities will be effective May 2. Guilford Lake users had complained of the originally proposed rates and a delegation attended a hearing in Columbus Monday.

The division had proposed substantial rate increases last November, but after the public hearing decided to make the new rates nearer former levels.

The amended rules were approved by Natural Resources Director Fred E. Morr and went to the Secretary of State Tuesday.

The new calendar rates are as follows:

Docks where boats are moored, $12 and $6 for each additional boat. The rate recommended in November was $18.

Docks where no boats are moored, $10. Previously the charge was based on the number of lineal feet.

Covered docks or boathouses, $18, and $6 for each additional. The rate recommended in November was $20.

Tie-up space provided in zoned area in lieu of dock structures, where stakes or posts are furnished, $6 for each boat. The rate recommended in November was $10.

Farmers Told Of Deadline In Hancock

Hancock County's 84 wheat growers have until May 15 to sign up for the new 1964 voluntary wheat program that provides for government price supports up to 70 cents a bushel and an average of $7.34 an acre for diversion of wheat acreage.

Mrs. Norma Murray, office manager, said the growers are to report to the County Agricultural, Stabilization and Conservation office in the Courthouse annex in New Cumberland to make application.

If a farmer grows 90 per cent of his allotment he can get a 70-cent bushel price support payment on 45 per cent of his normal yield and 25 cents a bushel payment on another 45 per cent of his normal yield.

The grower has to set aside a minimum of 10 per cent of his wheat acreage or a maximum of 20 per cent in meadow or cropland with a cover in order to qualify for those price supports.

He will be paid an average of $7.35 for each diverted acre, Mrs. Murray said. Diversion rates differ according to the productivity index of the farm.

Cincy Beats Colt Pitcher On 2 Errors; Bucs Fall

By MURRAY CHASS
Associated Press Sports Writer

"So I made history. Heckuva way to get into the books, isn't it?"

Houston pitcher Ken Johnson had just pitched a unique no-hit game against his former Cincinnati teammates Thursday night and lost 1-0 on two errors in the ninth inning, one of them his.

It was the first no-hit game of the young major league season and the second in the Colts' brief three-year history. But it was even more than that.

Johnson is the first pitcher ever to hurl a no-hitter and lose in a nine-inning game and the first ever to lose a game without giving the opposing team a hit. Other pitchers have gone through nine hitless innings but lost in extra innings after allowing hits.

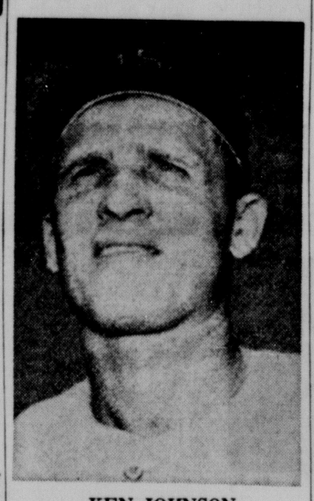

Johnson, a knuckleball specialist, was well aware of the no-hitter during the game. After the seventh inning, he asked teammate Don Nottebart, "How's a guy supposed to feel, Notty? What do you do?"

Nottebart, who hurled Houston's first no-hit game last May 17 against Philadelphia, replied:

"Stay loose and keep going."

After he had concluded his bizarre performance, Johnson scorned sympathy.

"What else can I do?" he asked, smiling. "I pitched the best game of my life. I can't feel bad because I lost it. Actually, I feel worse for the guys on the club. I guess that sounds funny, but it's true."

KEN JOHNSON

In other National League games, Philadelphia nipped Pittsburgh 6-5, Los Angeles downed St. Louis 7-5 for its first victory after seven straight defeats and Chicago stopped New York 5-1.

Johnson, who already had won two games this season, blamed himself for the defeat. His wild throw on Pete Rose's bunt with one out in the ninth put Rose on second, and he reached third on an infield out.

Then Vada Pinson hit a routine grounder to Nellie Fox. The veteran second baseman booted the ball, allowing Rose to score.

Even after that inning, another oddity still was to come. The Colts' Pete Runnels hit a ground ball and appeared to be thrown out in Houston's ninth. First base umpire Stan Landes called it that way. However, home plate Umpire Augie Donatelli overruled Landes, saying first baseman Deron Johnson never had full control of the ball.

The Reds immediately announced they were playing the game under protest. But the Colts were unable to score as Joe Nuxhall came out the winner with a five-hitter.

Rookie John Werhas' two-run single in the eighth inning halted the Dodgers' disastrous losing ways. The hit off relief pitcher Bobby Shantz followed two walks and a safe bunt.

(3) That both are rehired.

The possibilities are not in the order we prefer because we are not advocating that they be dismissed.

The possibilities are listed in the order of what we can gather may happen.

What are the reasons for rehiring or dismissing either man?

Hedmond Won Last Round, 3-2 . . .

In February of 1963, the Board voted on rehiring Hedmond after a 3-7 record in 1962. Hedmond was rehired by a 3-2 vote. One member voting in favor of retaining Hedmond is on the present Board. She is Mrs. Nessie R. Dunlop.

A member voting against renewing Hedmond's contract is also on the present board. He is Harry D. McConville.

The Board has three new members in John R. Woomer, Samuel W. Brown and Richard Smith.

Hedmond, a hard working sort, turned in a 7-3 record last season and his team and organization seemed much improved over the two previous seasons. Probably the biggest blemish on Hedmond's three seasons at East Liverpool was the 1962 loss to Beaver Local.

In five seasons at his alma mater, Harris has compiled a losing record overall of 40 wins and 55 defeats.

Harris was never blessed with any height and the material has been thin. It came somewhat as a surprise this past campaign when the Potters, with little talent, came out batting .500 with a 9-9 record and winning the last five of six games.

The fact that he has never won a tournament game in five seasons at ELHS seems to stack up against him.

BOTH football and basketball finished well in the black this year, as far as dollars and cents go, so there is no kick coming on this point.

The Potter football team started the season with five straight victories, and that fact, plus some fine weather, bolstered home attendance.

Oak Glen Star Picks School . . .

Harris has been active in several sports at Oak Glen, but excelled in wrestling where he was the Ohio Valley Athletic Conference champ at 165 pounds this past year. He also won three letters in football.

Indians Slip Into First

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

Baseball's department of unique statistics has had its first busy day of the season.

Some three hours after Houston's Ken Johnson earned a place in the record book by losing a no-hitter to Cincinnati 1-0 Thursday night, Ken McBride of the Los Angeles Angels entered the sweepstakes.

McBride, who previously had hit two batters with pitches, stood out on the mound in the ninth inning and hit two more, forcing in Cleveland's winning run in a 3-2 victory and equaling an American League record for most hit batters in one game.

McBride got into the ninth-inning jam on singles by Fred Whitfield and Tito Francona, who collected the 1,000th hit of his major league career earlier in the game. McBride then hit Johnny Romano and Woody Held in succession, forcing in the tie-breaking run.

In the opener, the Orioles lost the services of Steve Barber, the only Baltimore 20-game winner since the club rejoined the American League 10 years ago.

Barber pulled a muscle under his left shoulder blade in the pre-game warmup, was tagged for two runs in the first inning and then forced to leave. There was no word on how long Barber would be sidelined.

Only one other game was scheduled in the AL. In that, Bill Skowron drove in the winning run with a single in the eighth inning as Washington edged Minnesota 5-4.

Besides the Colts-Reds game in the National League, the Los Angeles Dodgers defeated St. Louis 7-5, Philadelphia edged Pittsburgh 6-5 and the Chicago Cubs whipped the New York Mets 5-1. San Francisco and Milwaukee were not scheduled.

The Angels pulled ahead of the Indians 2-0 in the fourth on a triple by Jim Fregosi, an infield out, an error, a stolen base and Bob Rodgers' single. The Indians tied it in the fifth when Whitfield doubled, Francona singled and pitcher Dick Donovan singled both home.

Donovan got credit for the victory when the bizarre ending was fashioned by McBride.

Ensinger Blasts Home Run

Beavers Blank ELHS, 3-0

Potters Fall On Merritt's Three-Hitter

East Liverpool's baseball forces were handed their first setback of the season when a strong pitching performance by righthander Ron Merritt earned a 3-0 victory for Beaver Local Thursday afternoon at Colt Field.

Merritt limited the Potters, now 3-1, to only three hits and fanned 10 batters. He only issued two walks.

Keith Locke the starting pitcher for Coach Jim Potts' squad was the loser. He was relieved by Len Walker in the fifth inning.

BELLAIRE, Ohio (AP) — At least 45 high schools from three states will compete Saturday in the tenth annual Bellaire Relays, one of Ohio's most colorful scholastic cinder meets.

Cleveland Glenville will defend its title. Other former champions seeking the crown include Dayton Roosevelt, 1961 and 1962; Warren Harding, 1959 and 1960; Bellaire, 1955 and 1958, and St. Clairsville, 1956 and 1957. Cleveland East Tech, which has won more Ohio track titles than any other school — but has never triumphed here—also will try again.

Russian Cagers Win

BASEBALL HEROES

PITCHING — Ken Johnson, Colts, pitched a no-hitter but lost to Cincinnati 1-0 when the Reds scored in the ninth inning on two errors.

BATTING—Ernie Banks and Andre Rodgers, Cubs, each collected three hits in 15-hit attack that beat the New York Mets 5-1.

INDIANS MAX ALVIS is hit by one of Angel pitcher Ken McBride's throws in the fourth inning Thursday night at Los Angeles. Alvis was one of four Indians which McBride hit. His wildness eventually led to the winning run for Cleveland as the Angel hurler hit two batters in the ninth to force in the deciding tally. (UPI Telephoto)

Pinch Double Gives Monaca 3-2 Victory Over Leopards

Pinchhitter Karl Schmitt blasted a double in the last of the seventh with two outs to drive in the tieing and winning runs for a 3-2 victory over Midland Thursday at Monaca.

For pitcher Pete Cilli it was a tough one to lose. The Midland hurler owned a 2-1 lead going into the last of the seventh and had fanned the first two batters to face him. The next two batters singled and Schmitt's double won the game.

Midland scored both runs in the fifth inning and Cilli didn't give up a run until the sixth.

Dancer Gains Easy Victory In Prep Race

By ORLO ROBERTSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

Northern Dancer's easy triumph in the $29,550 Blue Grass Stakes at Keeneland posed a big question today for a number of owners and trainers pointing their 3-year-old thoroughbreds for the Kentucky Derby.

Will it be worth $1,500 to see their colors in the post-parade at Churchill Downs May 2 with the possibility of taking a part of the Derby's $125,000-added purse? It will cost $250 to pass the derby entry box next Thursday and additional $1,250 to start.

Northern Dancer's margin over Allen Adair at the end of the 1⅛ miles Thursday was only one length and the time of 1:49 4-5 was 2 2-5 seconds off the track record.

DAYTON Belmont's Harry Culbertson, 6-5 center, who was overshadowed by teammates Bill Hosket and Don May of the Ohio Champions, has enrolled at Kent State University. Culbertson looked good to us in the state finals when we weren't watching the performances of Hosket and May.

WE WISH Blaine Morton the best of luck in his new post as assistant on the Massillon High football staff.

Blaine said, "I enjoyed my season at East Liverpool, but I have always heard so much about the football program at Massillon, now I can see for myself if it is really true. There is a lot of tradition to uphold at Massillon," he added.

The Tigers have their work cut for them the first month of the season when they meet Niles in the second game at Akron's Rubber Bowl.

McBride's Wildness Helps Tribe

Indians Slip Into First

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

Baseball's department of unique statistics has had its first busy day of the season.

Some three hours after Houston's Ken Johnson earned a place in the record book by losing a no-hitter to Cincinnati 1-0 Thursday night, Ken McBride of the Los Angeles Angels entered the sweepstakes.

McBride, who previously had hit two batters with pitches, stood out on the mound in the ninth inning and hit two more, forcing in Cleveland's winning run in a 3-2 victory and equaling an American League record for most hit batters in one game.

McBride got into the ninth-inning jam on singles by Fred Whitfield and Tito Francona, who collected the 1,000th hit of his major league career earlier in the game. McBride then hit Johnny Romano and Woody Held in succession, forcing in the tie-breaking run.

In the opener, the Orioles lost the services of Steve Barber, the only Baltimore 20-game winner since the club rejoined the American League 10 years ago.

Barber pulled a muscle under his left shoulder blade in the pre-game warmup, was tagged for two runs in the first inning and then forced to leave. There was no word on how long Barber would be sidelined.

Only one other game was scheduled in the AL. In that, Bill Skowron drove in the winning run with a single in the eighth inning as Washington edged Minnesota 5-4.

Besides the Colts-Reds game in the National League, the Los Angeles Dodgers defeated St. Louis 7-5, Philadelphia edged Pittsburgh 6-5 and the Chicago Cubs whipped the New York Mets 5-1. San Francisco and Milwaukee were not scheduled.

The Angels pulled ahead of the Indians 2-0 in the fourth on a triple by Jim Fregosi, an infield out, an error, a stolen base and Bob Rodgers' single. The Indians tied it in the fifth when Whitfield doubled, Francona singled and pitcher Dick Donovan singled both home.

Donovan got credit for the victory when the bizarre ending was fashioned by McBride.

Beavers Blank ELHS, 3-0

Potters Fall On Merritt's Three-Hitter

East Liverpool's baseball forces were handed their first setback of the season when a strong pitching performance by righthander Ron Merritt earned a 3-0 victory for Beaver Local Thursday afternoon at Colt Field.

Merritt limited the Potters, now 3-1, to only three hits and fanned 10 batters. He only issued two walks.

Infielder Larry Ensinger gave Merritt all the working room he needed when he blasted a home run over the left field fence in the third inning.

Errors led to Beaver Local's last two runs. Coach Lloyd Stockdale's nine scored in the fifth when Merritt doubled and scored on an error.

In the sixth inning, Ray Artrip singled, swiped second and third base and as he took third, the throw from catcher Nick Marchbank's went into left field allowing him to score.

Merritt allowed the Potters only three singles and he collected a pair of doubles himself.

Keith Locke the starting pitcher for Coach Jim Potts' squad was the loser. He was relieved by Len Walker in the fifth inning.

The victory was the second in five starts for the Beavers while the Potters show a 3-1 mark.

Minor League Meets Tonight At Wellsville

Officers will be elected at a meeting of the Wellsville Minor Little League tonight at 7:30 at Daw Junior High School. All parents, managers and anyone interested in managing a team are requested to attend, Dick Payne, president, announced.

45 Schools Entered In Bellaire's Relays

BELLAIRE, Ohio (AP) — At least 45 high schools from three states will compete Saturday in the tenth annual Bellaire Relays, one of Ohio's most colorful scholastic cinder meets.

Cleveland Glenville will defend its title. Other former champions seeking the crown include Dayton Roosevelt, 1961 and 1962; Warren Harding, 1959 and 1960; Bellaire, 1955 and 1958, and St. Clairsville, 1956 and 1957. Cleveland East Tech, which has won more Ohio track titles than any other school — but has never triumphed here—also will try again.

BASEBALL HEROES

PITCHING — Ken Johnson, Colts, pitched a no-hitter but lost to Cincinnati 1-0 when the Reds scored in the ninth inning on two errors.

Russian Cagers Win

LIMA, Peru (AP) — Russia beat Yugoslavia 73-45 Thursday night in the first game of the final round of the Women's World Basketball Championship.

INDIANS MAX ALVIS is hit by one of Angel pitcher Ken McBride's throws in the fourth inning Thursday night at Los Angeles. Alvis was one of four Indians which McBride hit. His wildness eventually led to the winning run for Cleveland as the Angel hurler hit two batters in the ninth to force in the deciding tally. (UPI Telephoto)

Pinch Double Gives Monaca 3-2 Victory Over Leopards

Pinchhitter Karl Schmitt blasted a double in the last of the seventh with two outs to drive in the tieing and winning runs for a 3-2 victory over Midland Thursday at Monaca.

For pitcher Pete Cilli it was a tough one to lose. The Midland hurler owned a 2-1 lead going into the last of the seventh and had fanned the first two batters to face him. The next two batters singled and Schmitt's double won the game.

Midland scored both runs in the fifth inning and Cilli didn't give up a run until the sixth.

Cilli also collected two doubles while Jim Miller belted a triple and a single to pace Midland's five-hit attack.

Dancer Gains Easy Victory In Prep Race

By ORLO ROBERTSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

Northern Dancer's easy triumph in the $29,550 Blue Grass Stakes at Keeneland posed a big question today for a number of owners and trainers pointing their 3-year-old thoroughbreds for the Kentucky Derby.

Will it be worth $1,500 to see their colors in the post-parade at Churchill Downs May 2 with the possibility of taking a part of the Derby's $125,000-added purse? It will cost $250 to pass the derby entry box next Thursday and additional $1,250 to start.

Northern Dancer's margin over Allen Adair at the end of the 1⅛ miles Thursday was only one length and the time of 1:49 4-5 was 2 2-5 seconds off the track record.

Waterford Will Honor Veteran Bovine Saturday

Veteran Jockey Victor Bovine, now 47-year of age and still going strong in the saddle, will be honored at Waterford Park Saturday with ceremonies in front of the stands as a testimonial to the diminutive athlete for having ridden his 2,000th winner at this Northern Panhandle track.

Bovine, a natural lightweight, tips the scales at 112 pounds and has little or no trouble keeping his weight at that point. He has spent 28 years around race tracks, starting as a stable boy for Henry McDaniels in 1936. He accepted his first mount three years later at Bay Meadows, California where he broke his maiden aboard the famous sprinter Enoch Borland.

Vic wound up as leading rider at many race tracks during his years in the saddle and has ridden at practically every track in both North and South America, having spent seven years at the Mexico City track where he became top rider during the years from 1942 until 1947.

He also rode several years on the Canadian circuit and holds the distinction of having ridden six Derby winners in that country.

Toronto Ties Playoff With Wings At 3-3

DETROIT (AP)—The Detroit Red Wings, accustomed to coming from behind and battling to win important games, have reached that point again.

Toronto extended the Stanley Cup hockey playoff finals to the limit with a 4-3 victory Thursday night on Bob Baun's goal at 1:43 of an overtime session. A Detroit victory would have given the Red Wings the Stanley Cup.

10-Way Tie For Texas Lead May Be Record

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Writer

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP)—The PGA doesn't carry such a statistic but the 10-man tie for first place in the $40,000 Texas Open's first round Thursday was believed to be a record.

Nobody could remember it ever happening before. They knew it certainly never had happened in the Texas Open, which is in its 37th year.

Six tied for the lead in the second round last year and it was agreed then that it was a record.

The 10 were jammed at the top with three-under-par 67s over the 6,715-yard Oak Hills Country Club course.

The big names—Arnold Palmer, Jack Nicklaus, Gary Player and Julius Boros—passed up the Texas Open this year. But there still were some pretty well-known and respected fellows working over par.

The leaders include Gene Littler, former National Open champion; Bob Charles, British Open king; Bob Rosburg, former PGA champion; Don January, and E. J. (Dutch) Harrison; Charles Sifford, the Negro star playing in his first Texas Open, and Jack Rule.

The only players who have not yet notched a tournament victory were Jerry Steelsmith, Terry Dill and Gary Floan. Dill and Floan are recent collegians, Dill at the University of Texas and Floan at University of Idaho.

The 42-year-old Harrison gave the crowd a boost when he sank a 20-foot putt on No. 18 to tie for the lead after a stirring comeback from a bogey and double bogey on the front nine.

Veteran Jimmy Demaret, who has played in 24 of the tournaments and to whom it was dedicated this year, posted a 71. Demaret has been runner-up four times.

New Players Assigned In Ruth League

West Virginia Trout Season Set To Open

CHARLESTON (AP) — The trout season opens in West Virginia Saturday and the State Natural Resources Department says fishermen should have good luck.

A late report of over - all stream conditions in the state indicates water levels are slightly above normal with lakes and streams clearing.

PARKERSBURG - WHEELING—Little Kanawha in Gilmer and Wirt counties, high and muddy; Ohio River Middle Island, high and muddy; Fishing Creek, normal and muddy.

Waterford Will Honor Veteran Bovine Saturday

Veteran Jockey Victor Bovine, now 47-year of age and still going strong in the saddle, will be honored at Waterford Park Saturday with ceremonies in front of the stands as a testimonial to the diminutive athlete for having ridden his 2,000th winner at this Northern Panhandle track.

Bovine, a natural lightweight, tips the scales at 112 pounds and has little or no trouble keeping his weight at that point. He has spent 28 years around race tracks, starting as a stable boy for Henry McDaniels in 1936. He accepted his first mount three years later at Bay Meadows, California where he broke his maiden aboard the famous sprinter Enoch Borland.

Vic wound up as leading rider at many race tracks during his years in the saddle and has ridden at practically every track in both North and South America, having spent seven years at the Mexico City track where he became top rider during the years from 1942 until 1947.

He also rode several years on the Canadian circuit and holds the distinction of having ridden six Derby winners in that country.

Toronto Ties Playoff With Wings At 3-3

DETROIT (AP)—The Detroit Red Wings, accustomed to coming from behind and battling to win important games, have reached that point again.

Toronto extended the Stanley Cup hockey playoff finals to the limit with a 4-3 victory Thursday night on Bob Baun's goal at 1:43 of an overtime session. A Detroit victory would have given the Red Wings the Stanley Cup.

10-Way Tie For Texas Lead May Be Record

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Writer

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP)—The PGA doesn't carry such a statistic but the 10-man tie for first place in the $40,000 Texas Open's first round Thursday was believed to be a record.

Nobody could remember it ever happening before. They knew it certainly never had happened in the Texas Open, which is in its 37th year.

Six tied for the lead in the second round last year and it was agreed then that it was a record.

The 10 were jammed at the top with three-under-par 67s over the 6,715-yard Oak Hills Country Club course.

The big names—Arnold Palmer, Jack Nicklaus, Gary Player and Julius Boros—passed up the Texas Open this year. But there still were some pretty well-known and respected fellows working over par.

The leaders include Gene Littler, former National Open champion; Bob Charles, British Open king; Bob Rosburg, former PGA champion; Don January, and E. J. (Dutch) Harrison; Charles Sifford, the Negro star playing in his first Texas Open, and Jack Rule.

The only players who have not yet notched a tournament victory were Jerry Steelsmith, Terry Dill and Gary Floan. Dill and Floan are recent collegians, Dill at the University of Texas and Floan at University of Idaho.

The 42-year-old Harrison gave the crowd a boost when he sank a 20-foot putt on No. 18 to tie for the lead after a stirring comeback from a bogey and double bogey on the front nine.

Littler barely missed becoming the undisputed leader. He three-putted 18, bobbling a four-footer on his second try.

Thirty players racked up par in the first round, which was about an average for the Texas Open.

Veteran Jimmy Demaret, who has played in 24 of the tournaments and to whom it was dedicated this year, posted a 71. Demaret has been runner-up four times.

New Players Assigned In Ruth League

Ohio View Women Hold Fete

Band Group Dance Planned

The 11th anniversary dinner for members of the Lutheran Christian Women of the Ohio View Lutheran Church was held Tuesday night in the church hall in Industry.

Devotions and program were combined in a presentation, "She Shall Be Praised." Mrs. Don Wiley, Mrs. Allen Butler, Mrs. Jack Peck, Mrs. Laco Shreve and Mrs. Homer Gifford participated. Hymn singing was accompanied by Mrs. C. L. Defenbaugh.

Mrs. Homer Paul, president, conducted business.

Church service chairman, Mrs. Steve Hazy, announced the altar care committee for May including Mrs. George Madish, Mrs. Robert Prseton, Mrs. Robert Cowan, Mrs. Eleanor Wagoner and Miss Karen Madish.

The Rev. Ralph Blair conducted services at the Beaver County Home and Hospital last week and Mrs. Blair, Mrs. William Stiblo, Mrs. Peck, Mrs. Gifford, Mrs. Kramer and Mrs. Paul participated.

Mrs. Hazy thanked all who assisted at the luncheon served by the unit to the Theil College Women's Club Saturday in the church hall. Rev. Blair installed officers. Mrs. William Welther of Rochester presided.

An arrangement of spring flowers and orchid tapers made by Mrs. Defenbaugh centered the buffet table.

A banquet and dance for active band members of Western Beaver High School in Industry will be sponsored by the western Beaver Music Boosters May 23 at 6 p.m. in the St. Christine Church Hall in Ohio View.

Senior parents will be guests, along with officers of the boosters club, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Meredith, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Arbutina, Leo Curto and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Henderson.

Dinner will be served by the St. Christine Guild.

Residents of the Ohioville and Industry area with news for publication in The Review may phone the material to Pat Nuzzo, reporter. Her phone number is 634-6836.

Lisbon Rites For Y-Teens

"Light of the World" was the theme of senior recognition services held for the Y-Teens of Lisbon High School Tuesday night at the Trinity United Presbyterian Church.

Miss Jodine Pilmer played the organ prelude and the opening prayer was given by Miss Nancy Ramsey. Scripture was read by Miss Candy Hill, followed by a vocal duet by Miss Diane Forney and Miss Jean Roberts.

Miss Norma Shade of Leetonia, who recently returned from the two years 4-H service in Brazil with the Peace Corps, explained the requirements and opportunities of the corps. She was introduced by Mrs. Jayne Calhoun, who spoke briefly of the varied opportunities for seniors.

An expression of appreciation to seniors for their leadership was given by Miss Kay Hayes.

The senior recessional was led by the retiring officers, Miss Sandy Barton, Miss Sandy Williams, Mrs. Florence Bosel and Miss Shirley Wellman, and the junior members formed a candlelighted aisle.

Plans for the affair were arranged by the junior officers, Miss Logston, president; Miss Jean Roberts, vice president, Miss Pilmer, secretary, and Miss Hayes, treasurer.

The Wednesday Night Bridge Club was entertained by Mrs. George Yost of N. Market St. and Mrs. Charles Hill was a guest.

Mrs. Lodge Thorne and Mrs. Victor Williams received prize.

Mrs. Ross Carnes of N. Beaver St. will be hostess May 13.

Payments Lagging For Personal Taxes

LISBON — With just one week remaining in which to pay the personal property tax, only about 60 per cent have filed, according to Kenneth Bell, county auditor.

This year's collection is running about 20 per cent less than in former years and his office will be open Saturday morning and Monday through Thursday for filing of returns.

The closing date is Thursday, after which a penalty will be added, Bell said.

Interested In College

WARREN, Ohio (AP)—Directors of the Warren Area College Committee have told Kent State University officials they are interested in having a campus branch here for day classes. The committee was instrumental in getting KSU to hold night classes at Warren's Harding High School.

1-5-Year Prison Term Salem Man Receives

LISBON — Robert Earle Wolfe, 40, of Salem, under sentence for a tavern burglary ceived a 1-5-year prison term Thursday on a 1960 burglary because of violation of terms of probation.

Wolfe received five years probation Sept. 28, 1961, for the daytime burglary of the home of William Sprague of Wellsville on June 19, 1960, while the family was in Florida. He pleaded guilty, was sentenced to 1-5 years and then granted probation because of his World War II record in which he received the Distinguished Service Medal for wiping out two Japanese machinegun nests single-handed on Leyte in 1945.

But Monday he pleaded guilty to an indictment of burglary of Schafer's Tavern in Salem March 14 in which $400 was taken and was sentenced to 1-15 years. His previous probation was suspended and the earlier sentence imposed yesterday by Judge Raymond S. Buzzard.

Peaceful March Set By Negroes In Springfield

SPRINGFIELD, Ohio (AP)—A peaceful march was planned here Saturday by a group of Springfield Negroes who wanted to emphasize the theme, "Let's Be Happy," according to Harold D. Wilson, organizer of the demonstration.

Wilson said the group represents no particular organization, but merely wants to call attention to the fact that, while Springfield Negroes are not willing to give up efforts for full equal rights they aren't "mad at anyone."

He said marchers will carry signs bearing slogans such as: "We Are Not Mad"; "At Anyone"; "Me Neither" and "Let's Be Happy."

He said many Negroes in the Springfield area contend that the ultimate goal is happiness "and advocate the pursuit together."

Dravo's Earnings To Remain Level

The Dravo Corp's earnings for 1964 should approximate those of 1963, Carl B. Jansen, chairman, told stockholders at the annual meeting Thursday in Pittsburgh.

In the first quarter of 1964, Jansen reported, Dravo completed $26 million of work, compared to $28 million last year.

Net income for the first quarter was $409,000, or 39 cents per common share, compared with $804,000 in the same period of 1963.

The drop in income, Jansen said, was due to low profitability on some completed work and to floods and bad weather.

Orders received in the first quarter helped to raise the backlog of uncompleted work to $90 million, compared with $85 million at the end of 1963.

Ohio View Women Hold Fete

The 11th anniversary dinner for members of the Lutheran Christian Women of the Ohio View Lutheran Church was held Tuesday night in the church hall in Industry.

Devotions and program were combined in a presentation, "She Shall Be Praised." Mrs. Don Wiley, Mrs. Allen Butler, Mrs. Jack Peck, Mrs. Laco Shreve and Mrs. Homer Gifford participated. Hymn singing was accompanied by Mrs. C. L. Defenbaugh.

Mrs. Homer Paul, president, conducted business.

Church service chairman, Mrs. Steve Hazy, announced the altar care committee for May including Mrs. George Madish, Mrs. Robert Prseton, Mrs. Robert Cowan, Mrs. Eleanor Wagoner and Miss Karen Madish.

The Rev. Ralph Blair conducted services at the Beaver County Home and Hospital last week and Mrs. Blair, Mrs. William Stiblo, Mrs. Peck, Mrs. Gifford, Mrs. Kramer and Mrs. Paul participated.

Mrs. Hazy thanked all who assisted at the luncheon served by the unit to the Theil College Women's Club Saturday in the church hall. Rev. Blair installed officers. Mrs. William Welther of Rochester presided.

An arrangement of spring flowers and orchid tapers made by Mrs. Defenbaugh centered the buffet table.

A banquet and dance for active band members of Western Beaver High School in Industry will be sponsored by the western Beaver Music Boosters May 23 at 6 p.m. in the St. Christine Church Hall in Ohio View.

Senior parents will be guests, along with officers of the boosters club, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Meredith, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Arbutina, Leo Curto and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Henderson.

Dinner will be served by the St. Christine Guild.

The dance will follow at 8 p.m. Ed Stephens, president, will present senior awards and introduce guests.

Residents of the Ohioville and Industry area with news for publication in The Review may phone the material to Pat Nuzzo, reporter. Her phone number is 634-6836.

Lisbon Rites For Y-Teens

"Light of the World" was the theme of senior recognition services held for the Y-Teens of Lisbon High School Tuesday night at the Trinity United Presbyterian Church.

Miss Jodine Pilmer played the organ prelude and the opening prayer was given by Miss Nancy Ramsey. Scripture was read by Miss Candy Hill, followed by a vocal duet by Miss Diane Forney and Miss Jean Roberts.

Miss Norma Shade of Leetonia, who recently returned from the two years 4-H service in Brazil with the Peace Corps, explained the requirements and opportunities of the corps. She was introduced by Mrs. Jayne Calhoun, who spoke briefly of the varied opportunities for seniors.

An expression of appreciation to seniors for their leadership was given by Miss Kay Hayes.

The senior recessional was led by the retiring officers, Miss Sandy Barton, Miss Sandy Williams, Mrs. Florence Bosel and Miss Shirley Wellman, and the junior members formed a candlelighted aisle.

Plans for the affair were arranged by the junior officers, Miss Logston, president; Miss Jean Roberts, vice president, Miss Pilmer, secretary, and Miss Hayes, treasurer.

The Wednesday Night Bridge Club was entertained by Mrs. George Yost of N. Market St. and Mrs. Charles Hill was a guest.

Mrs. Lodge Thorne and Mrs. Victor Williams received prizse.

Mrs. Ross Carnes of N. Beaver St. will be hostess May 13.

Payments Lagging For Personal Taxes

LISBON — With just one week remaining in which to pay the personal property tax, only about 60 per cent have filed, according to Kenneth Bell, county auditor.

This year's collection is running about 20 per cent less than in former years and his office will be open Saturday morning and Monday through Thursday for filing of returns.

The closing date is Thursday, after which a penalty will be added, Bell said.

Interested In College

WARREN, Ohio (AP)—Directors of the Warren Area College Committee have told Kent State University officials they are interested in having a campus branch here for day classes. The committee was instrumental in getting KSU to hold night classes at Warren's Harding High School.

Bringing Up A Family

By DR. GARRY MYERS

College Tests Hard For Poor Readers

The other day the father of a high school senior told me his boy made a good rating on most of the college entrance tests but was low in the verbal part of the tests. These included vocabulary tests. "Probably he hasn't read much," I said. "That's it," he replied. "He rarely reads anything for pleasure; he's a poor reader."

Dr. Garry Myers

What makes this boy's case the more tragic is that he rates high on a general intelligence test. He has had some special help in reading through reading exercises and they have helped some.

But most of these exercises, to which thousands of poor readers in junior and senior high are exposed, are too difficult for the very students they are designed to help.

MOST YOUTHS who overdo so simply by reading more come their reading handicaps and more in addition to assigned schoolwork.

The usual story is that all through their school life many students read very little. In consequence, they never become avid readers. They get into a vicious circle: being poor readers they rarely or never read for pleasure; and with so little practice at reading, they continue to be poor readers.

Rich and satisfying reading experiences will benefit any student taking college entrance exams. The time to prepare for these tests is in the child's early grades at school or even before.

As soon as your child will look at pictures for a few moments at a stretch (between the age of 12 months and two years; start reading to him. Keep on reading to him once or several times a day indefinitely.

WHEN HE GETS his first instructions in reading at school, begin to find ways to help him enjoy success at reading. Do your best to encourage his success at reading. The better your child at 6, 8 or 12 reads and the more he reads in addition to his regular school books, the better he will be prepared, as a rule, to do well in high school and with his college entrance tsets.

With the lure of the TV screens, your child at 3 or 5 may not choose to have you read much or often to him.

When he can read even fairly well at the age of 7, 10 or 13, the child may not choose to spend much or even any time at reading for pleasure—unless you limit his TV viewing-time.

Don't let him make the choice between TV and reading. Limit the time he may spend before the TV screen. Begin this limitation long before he enters school. It's useless to expect that he will find the stories that are read to him or those he reads himself so attractive that he will develop good reading habits without further efforts on the parents' part.

IF YOU CAN'T stimulate your child at 7, 10 or 13 to read considerably, in addition to his regular school work, require that he shall do so daily.

From among the rich variety of reading materials you supply him, require him to read each evening for a period of anywhere from 15 minutes to an hour. Hold rigidly to this requirement right through the elementary grades, even beyond.

My bulletins, "Why Read to Baby and Young Child," "Helping Your Child at Home in Early Steps of Reading," and "Home Helps for Poor Readers I and II," may be secured by sending a self-addressed, stamped envelope to me in care of The Review.

Officers Aid 2 Ailing Men

Two men who were taken ill Thursday night and early today —one at his Pleasant Heights home and the other in a downtown restaurant—were removed to City Hospital in police cruisers for treatment.

Patrolmen Howard Bosworth and K. J. Montgomery were dispatched at 12:30 this morning to the home of Carl Schneider, 28, of 621 Sanford Ave. His wife reported Schneider was ill and wanted to go to the hospital but was unable to drive his car.

Schneider told the officers he had received a tetanus shot at his place of employment and it apparently caused a reaction. At the hospital, he was given medication and released to see a physician today, police said.

Ralph Olsen, 62, of the Thompson Hotel was taken ill at 8:58 p.m. Thursday while in the National Restaurant on E. 6th St., officers said.

Patrolmen Karl Samples and Paul Blevins, dispatched to investigate, said they found Olsen apparently was having difficulty in breathing. He took some pills which he was carrying and then was removed to the hospital, they said. A physician diagnosed his illness as an asthmatic attack. Olsen was admitted. His condition today was "fair."

Contest Opened For Ohio Dairy Princess Crown

LISBON — Entries are now being received for the Ohio Dairy Princess contest, sponsored by the American Dairy Association of Ohio, according to Donald K. Myers, county extension agent in agriculture.

Girls desiring to enter the contest must have a dairy background, the parents must derive at least a part of their income from dairy farming and the entrant must be at least 16 by June 1, and not over 25 on the same date. The entrant must not be, nor ever have been married, and must be a high school graduate or will graduate this June.

The Columbiana County Dairymen's Council is sponsoring the local contest. The local winner will represent the county at the state contest in Columbus in June. From the county winners, a state dairy princess is selected who represents the dairy industry in Ohio. Her duties are to make public appearances throughout the year at various events on behalf of the dairy industry.

Entry forms now available at the Co-operative Extension Service Office, 113 S. Market St., must be completed and returned by June 1, Myers said.

College Tests Hard For Poor Readers

The other day the father of a high school senior told me his boy made a good rating on most of the college entrance tests but was low in the verbal part of the tests. These included vocabulary tests. "Probably he hasn't read much," I said. "That's it," he replied. "He rarely reads anything for pleasure; he's a poor reader."

Dr. Garry Myers

What makes this boy's case the more tragic is that he rates high on a general intelligence test. He has had some special help in reading through reading exercises and they have helped some.

But most of these exercises, to which thousands of poor readers in junior and senior high are exposed, are too difficult for the very students they are designed to help.

MOST YOUTHS who overdo so simply by reading more come their reading handicaps and more in addition to assigned schoolwork.

The usual story is that all through their school life many students read very little. In consequence, they never become avid readers. They get into a vicious circle: being poor readers they rarely or never read for pleasure; and with so little practice at reading, they continue to be poor readers.

Rich and satisfying reading experiences will benefit any student taking college entrance exams. The time to prepare for these tests is in the child's early grades at school or even before.

As soon as your child will look at pictures for a few moments at a stretch (between the age of 12 months and two years; start reading to him. Keep on reading to him once or several times a day indefinitely.

WHEN HE GETS his first instructions in reading at school, begin to find ways to help him enjoy success at reading. Do your best to encourage his success at reading. The better your child at 6, 8 or 12 reads and the more he reads in addition to his regular school books, the better he will be prepared, as a rule, to do well in high school and with his college entrance tsets.

With the lure of the TV screens, your child at 3 or 5 may not choose to have you read much or often to him.

When he can read even fairly well at the age of 7, 10 or 13, the child may not choose to spend much or even any time at reading for pleasure—unless you limit his TV viewing-time.

Don't let him make the choice between TV and reading. Limit the time he may spend before the TV screen. Begin this limitation long before he enters school. It's useless to expect that he will find the stories that are read to him or those he reads himself so attractive that he will develop good reading habits without further efforts on the parents' part.

IF YOU CAN'T stimulate your child at 7, 10 or 13 to read considerably, in addition to his regular school work, require that he shall do so daily.

From among the rich variety of reading materials you supply him, require him to read each evening for a period of anywhere from 15 minutes to an hour. Hold rigidly to this requirement right through the elementary grades, even beyond.

My bulletins, "Why Read to Baby and Young Child," "Helping Your Child at Home in Early Steps of Reading," and "Home Helps for Poor Readers I and II," may be secured by sending a self-addressed, stamped envelope to me in care of The Review.

Officers Aid 2 Ailing Men

Two men who were taken ill Thursday night and early today —one at his Pleasant Heights home and the other in a downtown restaurant—were removed to City Hospital in police cruisers for treatment.

Patrolmen Howard Bosworth and K. J. Montgomery were dispatched at 12:30 this morning to the home of Carl Schneider, 28, of 621 Sanford Ave. His wife reported Schneider was ill and wanted to go to the hospital but was unable to drive his car.

Schneider told the officers he had received a tetanus shot at his place of employment and it apparently caused a reaction. At the hospital, he was given medication and released to see a physician today, police said.

Ralph Olsen, 62, of the Thompson Hotel was taken ill at 8:58 p.m. Thursday while in the National Restaurant on E. 6th St., officers said.

Patrolmen Karl Samples and Paul Blevins, dispatched to investigate, said they found Olsen apparently was having difficulty in breathing. He took some pills which he was carrying and then was removed to the hospital, they said. A physician diagnosed his illness as an asthmatic attack. Olsen was admitted. His condition today was "fair."

Contest Opened For Ohio Dairy Princess Crown

LISBON — Entries are now being received for the Ohio Dairy Princess contest, sponsored by the American Dairy Association of Ohio, according to Donald K. Myers, county extension agent in agriculture.

Girls desiring to enter the contest must have a dairy background, the parents must derive at least a part of their income from dairy farming and the entrant must be at least 16 by June 1, and not over 25 on the same date. The entrant must not be, nor ever have been married, and must be a high school graduate or will graduate this June.

The Columbiana County Dairymen's Council is sponsoring the local contest. The local winner will represent the county at the state contest in Columbus in June. From the county winners, a state dairy princess is selected who represents the dairy industry in Ohio. Her duties are to make public appearances throughout the year at various events on behalf of the dairy industry.

Entry forms now available at the Co-operative Extension Service Office, 113 S. Market St., must be completed and returned by June 1, Myers said.

4-H News

A mother-daughter banquet was planned for May 11 in the Oak Ridge Presbyterian Church when the Golden Needles 4-H Club met at the church Tuesday night.

Denise and Debbie McElroy, Sue Corbin and Susan Mercer will comprise the decorating committee. The club will join with the No. 16 Agriculture 4-H Club in presenting the program in observance of Rural Life Sunday May 3 at the Oak Ridge church. Sherry Mercer, president, conducted the meeting and Ann Culp read Ps. 23.

Demonstrations were given by Terry Culp and Susan Corbin. The business topic, "How to Prevent Accidents," was discussed by Susan Mercer. Refreshments were served by Sharon Nicholson and Terry Culp.

The Hookstown Agricultural 4-H Club will elect officers at a meeting Tuesday at 7:30 p. m. at the Hookstown Grange Hall.

Don Hofmeister, Beaver County Extension Service officer, will discuss and explain projects. Any boy or girl 10 or over may attend. Mrs. Carl Soisson is leader.

Junior Editors Quiz on COMPUTERS

QUESTION: Who invented computers and how do they give answers?

ANSWER: An English professor of mathematics, Charles Babbage, conceived of a mechanical computing machine in 1835, but never actually made one. The first computer was finally built by an American professor, Howard Aiken, in 1944. This machine used electromechanical devices, but the science of electronics was developing rapidly and in 1946 an all-electronic computer was built. These electronic machines work with amazing speed—enormous amounts of information can be stored in the computer's electronic "memory" and can be found and consulted in less than 10 millionths of a second.

Suppose you wanted the answer to five minus three. You could hold your five fingers straight, turn down three and count the rest, getting two. "Digital" computers use the same idea, but with tiny electric circuits instead of fingers. If there is a break in one such circuit (open) this might represent zero. If the circuit is complete (closed) so the electricity can run through, this might be one. Computers use "binary" numbers, making all the regular numbers out of combinations of one and zero. A certain number of the little circuits will flip open or shut; with it's incredible speed, the computer will count the ones remaining.

Today In History

By The Associated Press

Today's highlight in history:

On this date in 1788, John Paul Jones captured the British sloop-of-war Drake off Belfast, Scotland.

On this date

In 1704, the first American newspaper to publish for any length of time, the Boston News-Letter, was published by John Campbell with news and gossip he collected as postmaster.

In 1800, the Library of Congress was founded.

In 1898, war was declared between the United States and Spain.

In 1916, the Easter Rebellion broke out in Dublin, Ireland.

In 1941, mechanized divisions of the Nazi army were moving on Athens, Greece.

Ten years ago—A battalion of six atomic cannon was dispatched to West Germany to bolster American forces.

Five years ago—A mysterious force of about 80 armed men made a landing on the shores of Panama. The group was dispersed after a clash with Panamanian armed forces. Three of the invaders, who were captured, said the group was made up of Cubans acting under the orders of Fidel Castro, but Castro later denied this.

— One year ago—The U.S. ambassador, Foy Kohler, and the British ambassador to Moscow suggested to Premier Khrushchev the issue of the number of test ban inspections be sidetracked temporarily in order to focus on the deadlocked Geneva disarmament negotiations.

Hints from Heloise

— By Heloise Cruse —

Dear Gals: I would like you to pour yourself another cup of coffee, sit down for a few minutes, and try to absorb something (that's hard, I know . . . I have trouble doing this myself!) that I would like to explain.

We often wonder where our pennies go, why our budgets won't stretch, and to whom we can turn for advice on comparison buys. Who is going to tell use the truth? How do we know we are getting our money's worth, etc. . . .

Learn to test for yourself. YOU are the only one who can do it.

Some are not so precious (moneywise that is, gals).

Before you buy your cans of tomatoes this weekend, stop and think, "WHAT am I going to use them for? Spaghetti sauce?" If so, why not buy the cheaper grade?

You will find that some tomatoes might have a hard core, but you can squeeze the tomato and just pick out that hard core, if you are saving pennies.

ARE YOU using tomatoes for stewing? This may require a better grade of tomatoes! If not, just "squeeze" 'em and remove the hard core.

Very good canned tomatoes (they usually cost more, too!) can (in an emergency) be used in salads. I have sometimes, when desperate, chilled a can in the refrigerator for a day or so, before opening and pouring off the juice, (especially when the price of fresh tomatoes is high) and cut them for salads.

Now . . . next time you do your grocery shopping. THINK! "Have I bought the same brand for years?" Your answer will probably be "Yes."

So the next time you go to the store . . . instead of buying three cans of "that - same - brand," buy three DIFFERENT brands. Then when you open the cans compare them. When you find a brand of tomatoes that is well packed, and the color hits your fancy, and it's cheaper in price than the brand you have been using . . . then it's time you CHANGED brands to the one which pleases you the most and save that few pennies. Eh?

FOR YEARS I bought the same brand of peas, first because my mother did, and had for years, and the label on the can was pretty, and the peas looked greener in the picture. . . then I started comparison buying. Wow! Was I ever fooled!

I never look at the picture on a label any more.

If I need asparagus, I buy two different brands. I always buy two SMALL cans, and even though it costs me a little more than one big can, at least I'm testing this MYSELF and comparing them. When I find a brand that our family thinks is better, I start using that brand.

Asparagus is something that you can really get fooled on. When it says "green tips," then buy two small cans of different brands and SEE for yourself, which can really has the most green tips. In one can we found only one slightly chartreuse tip! And the label said "green tips". . .

DO THE SAME thing with peas. I know most of you buy that big pound can, but other brands will read "One pound and one ounce" and you are getting an extra ounce. But what do the peas look like?

Here's what to do:

Get two small cans of peas in different brands. Open them both at the same time and test each with a spoon before heating, (canned peas should never be boiled, only heated) and then test again AFTER heating.

After they are mixed in your sauce pan you will see the difference . . . Then stick to the brand you like best.

Those hard - earned pennies which are saved eventually make dollars. Dollars saved give us security. It is security that we are all seeking.

THINK before you buy . . . . anything.

And as a parting thought, say to yourself "Do we save 10 per cent of our salary?"

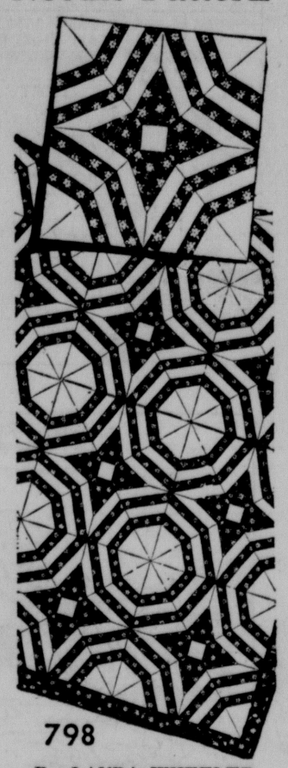

If the answer is "Yes" — and let's hope it is, then think again . . .

"If I waste one penny, then that is 10 cents that my husband has to earn to replace it."

Count your pennies, gals, and God bless you always.

HELOISE.

Hints from Heloise

— By Heloise Cruse —

Dear Gals: I would like you to pour yourself another cup of coffee, sit down for a few minutes, and try to absorb something (that's hard, I know . . . I have trouble doing this myself!) that I would like to explain.

We often wonder where our pennies go, why our budgets won't stretch, and to whom we can turn for advice on comparison buys. Who is going to tell use the truth? How do we know we are getting our money's worth, etc. . . .

Learn to test for yourself. YOU are the only one who can do it.

As an example, let's take tomatoes . . . canned, that is.

Tomatoes come in cans of all sizes. Compare ounces on the label, then price, then contents . . .

Some seem expensive when compared.

Some are not so precious (moneywise that is, gals).

Before you buy your cans of tomatoes this weekend, stop and think, "WHAT am I going to use them for? Spaghetti sauce?" If so, why not buy the cheaper grade?

You will find that some tomatoes might have a hard core, but you can squeeze the tomato and just pick out that hard core, if you are saving pennies.

ARE YOU using tomatoes for stewing? This may require a better grade of tomatoes! If not, just "squeeze" 'em and remove the hard core.

Very good canned tomatoes (they usually cost more, too!) can (in an emergency) be used in salads. I have sometimes, when desperate, chilled a can in the refrigerator for a day or so, before opening and pouring off the juice, (especially when the price of fresh tomatoes is high) and cut them for salads.

Now . . . next time you do your grocery shopping. THINK! "Have I bought the same brand for years?" Your answer will probably be "Yes."

So the next time you go to the store . . . instead of buying three cans of "that - same - brand," buy three DIFFERENT brands. Then when you open the cans compare them. When you find a brand of tomatoes that is well packed, and the color hits your fancy, and it's cheaper in price than the brand you have been using . . . then it's time you CHANGED brands to the one which pleases you the most and save that few pennies. Eh?

FOR YEARS I bought the same brand of peas, first because my mother did, and had for years, and the label on the can was pretty, and the peas looked greener in the picture. . . then I started comparison buying. Wow! Was I ever fooled!

I never look at the picture on a label any more.

If I need asparagus, I buy two different brands. I always buy two SMALL cans, and even though it costs me a little more than one big can, at least I'm testing this MYSELF and comparing them. When I find a brand that our family thinks is better, I start using that brand.

Asparagus is something that you can really get fooled on. When it says "green tips," then buy two small cans of different brands and SEE for yourself, which can really has the most green tips. In one can we found only one slightly chartreuse tip! And the label said "green tips". . .

DO THE SAME thing with peas. I know most of you buy that big pound can, but other brands will read "One pound and one ounce" and you are getting an extra ounce. But what do the peas look like?

Here's what to do:

Get two small cans of peas in different brands. Open them both at the same time and test each with a spoon before heating, (canned peas should never be boiled, only heated) and then test again AFTER heating.

After they are mixed in your sauce pan you will see the difference . . . Then stick to the brand you like best.

Gals, this is NOT a waste of your husband's hard earned money. Eventually you will stretch every penny the easy way.

Those hard - earned pennies which are saved eventually make dollars. Dollars saved give us security. It is security that we are all seeking.

THINK before you buy . . . . anything.

And as a parting thought, say to yourself "Do we save 10 per cent of our salary?"

If the answer is "Yes" — and let's hope it is, then think again . . .

"If I waste one penny, then that is 10 cents that my husband has to earn to replace it."

Count your pennies, gals, and God bless you always.
